Re: The State v. Ontavious Plumer
Case No: 2017-000481

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

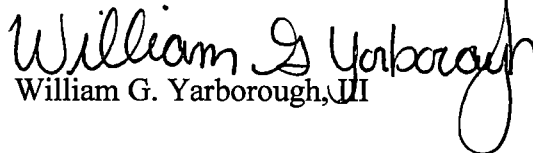

I hope this letter finds you well. I am contacting you in regards to the Notice of Deficiencies I received to attach Mr. Plumer's order and/or sentencing sheets to the Notice of Appeal and provide a response on the receipt of the Transcript. Enclosed are the redacted copies of the sentencing sheets for the above-referenced matter and an email from Bill Nettles's paralegal, Brittany Legg, providing us an electronic copy of the trial transcript for Mr. Ontavious Plumer on September 20, 2017. We apologize in the delay in curing the deficiencies.

I, William G. Yarborough, III, will continue to proceed as appellant's counsel. I have sent a letter to Bill Nettles informing him that we will continue to proceed as counsel on the above-referenced matter. We apologize to the Court for any confusions in this matter.

If you wish to discuss anything or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

William G. Yarborough, III

Natasha,

Please see attached. I thought it might be too big to send via email. If it doesn't come through, please let me know!
