Re: Charles Taylor vs. Thomas Davis
Civil Action No 2007-CP-40-8423

Dear Mr. Taylor:

In checking on the status of this matter with the South Carolina Court of Appeals, I was advised that you filed Appellant's Initial Brief along with Designation of Matter to be included in the record around mid-November. I was also advised that you had filed a certificate of service indicating that you had served me with copies of the Appellant's Initial Brief. As I explained to the Court of Appeals, I have not been served with your Initial Brief nor your Designation. Moreover, I have not received information that the transcript which you had requested from the court reporter had been delivered.

I would ask that you serve me with everything required under the rules. Given the fact that I was never served with Appellant's Brief or Designation of Matter to be included in the record, I will be filing a motion requesting an extension of time on behalf of Respondent.

By copy of this letter to the Court of Appeals and to Ms. Helms, I am advising them of my communication.

With kind regards,

McDonald, McKenzie, Rubin,
Miller and Lybrand, LLP
