APPEAL FROM DORCHESTER COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

Patrick Watts, Special Referee Dorchester County

C.A. No.: 2016-CP-18-01681

RECEIVED

SC Court of Appeals

SSC Real Estate, LLCRespondent,

v.

Kimberly A. Thompson and David A. Thompson Appellants.

APPELLANTS RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS AND RETURN OPPOSING APPELLANTS' MOTION REQUESTING PERMISSION TO ORDER AND FILE TRANSCRIPTS AND MOTION FOR IMMEDIATE INJUNCTION

Appellants file this response seeking the stay of this appeal.

I. RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS

The Appellants claim is due to be considered by the Appeals Court due to misconduct by appointed Special Referee in Dorchester County. Mr. Watts made rulings after the hearing that were never discussed/heard at the hearing. The court will see this when transcripts arrive. There was also never a Judgment of any kind entered the Dorchester County Computer System. Section 8-1-80 South Carolina Code of Laws Unannotated

The Appellants claim is due to be considered by the Appeals Court due to the misconduct of the Clerk of Court's office in Dorchester County. Until the appeal was filed they had all corresponding cases marked as dismissed - Dismissed per rule 43K Attachment 1 - Pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws if this was a mistake on the clerks part they need to be held accountable. Whoever made this mistake never corrected after the Appellants made multiple visits and phone calls questioning the filing. Section 8-1-80 South Carolina Code of Laws Unannotated

The Appellants claim is due to be considered by the Appeals Court due to misconduct on the Dorchester County Treasurers office for withholding information at the hearing. That the house was sold April of 2013 and the taxes for 2012 were taken out of the proceeds for that sale. If they were not the failure falls fully on the Dorchester County Treasurers Office as the Appellants did not purchase the property until June 2013.

II. MOTION REQUESTING PERMISSION TO ORDER AND FILE TRANSCRIPTS

Appellants contend the motion must stay as they have ordered the transcripts and corrected the deficiency prior the the Respondents motion.

III. MOTION FOR IMMEDIATE INJUNCTION

Appellants contend this motion must be put into place immediately to retain the property in question. Any deficiency's had been corrected prior to the respondents motion.

In conclusion the Appellants ask the courts to allow the Appeal to be heard.
