SC Court of Appeals

Sorry for taking so long to get this letter to you I wanted to send this to you last week but they wouldn't send me to the mail room. But as you know my name is "RICHARD BALDWIN" and I sent my lawyer a letter stating I wanted to Appeal. then I sent him another letter stating I NO LONGER wanted to Appeal. But I assume he never got that letter because I just got a letter last week telling me he put my motion to Appeal in. The reason I wanted to Appeal in the first place was because I wasn't happy with getting sent to prison. I felt that I should of gotten probation. So out of emotion I wrote my lawyer that letter. then after that I talked with a family, and my girlfriend (future wife) and I came to see that I was blessed with the YOA sentence and that its probably ment for me to due some prison time on this YOA sentence. to Re-evaluate myself and my thoughts and to Lear a trade so I can have something under my belt. So I NO longer wish to Appeal I wish my lawyer would have listen that letter I ALSO wrote him again letting him know this. I am sorry for the mistake and misunderstanding I dont want to waste the courts time with this Appeal. Again I Apologize for the misunderstanding I no longer want to Appeal.
