

STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

1. Did the trial courts fail to see this matter as a breach of contract?
2. Did the trial courts fail to see this matter as a sales contract?
3. Title of real property

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. Upon signing the sales contract we had to evict his tenants in order take possession of property.
2. Part of the property was surveyed out of the contract after the contract was signed.
3. Mr. Pate put a mobile home on the property and rented it out.
4. When Mr. Pate was informed of the damage his tenants had done to the house his reply was to sue his tenants or take him to court.
5. This case has never been for litigation, and with the allegations of breach of contract we feel it should have went to litigation before it went to a trial.

ARGUMENTS

1. With the damage of the property, done by his tenants that he rented the dwelling to, we have had to slowly fix and repair in the house to be able to make it a livable dwelling.
2. With the land that Mr. Pate surveyed out of the contract that was part of the property on our sales agreement, we feel like he collected rent on the mobile home that he placed on the land was payment for our land.

3. The breach of contract done by Mr. Pate, when he survived land out of the contract, refused to remove his tenants when contract was signed and he received deposit.

4. Hazardous material that was left on property that we have had to slowly remove.

5. The misrepresentation of the property when the contract was signed was supposed to be a 3 bedroom 2 bath house and it ended up being a 2 bedroom 1 bathroom house.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated, this Court should reverse the judgement of the circuit court.
