George C. McCullough v. Author Solutions, LLC Case No. 2016-CP-04-00560

Dear Mrs. Cross

the Clerk of the South Carolina Court of Appeals has forwarded me a copy of the enclosed letter.

Per her request, I submit this letter seeking your assistance to have made available to my home address this letter, a court transcript in Case No. 2016-CP-04-00560; pursuant South Carolina Appeals Court Rule 207. The case was a rehearing heard on March 30, 2017 before the Honorable Judge R. Scott Sprouse in Anderson County's Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions.

A check I the amount of $56.00 was paid on August 15, 2017 for fees due, (see the attached copy,) but I have not received the transcripts requested.

For any other matters of concern with this letter of request, please write the above mailing address, or call the phone number listed. Quickest way of contact is at the email address given.

I thank you, and apologize in advance if this request is of an inconvenience.

Sincerely,

George McCullough

Re: George C. McCullough v. Author Solutions, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2017-001448

Dear Mr. McCullough:

Our records indicate that the transcript in the above matter should have been delivered. As of today's date, we have not received any information indicating that the court reporter has been granted an extension. Further, you have not notified us that you have failed to receive the transcript, nor have we received your initial brief.

If you have not yet received the transcript, Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires you to contact the Office of Court Administration. The address for Court Administration is as follows:

South Carolina Office of Court Administration
1220 Senate Street, Suite 201
Columbia, SC 29201

Be sure to copy the Court and opposing counsel with all correspondence concerning the transcript.

Please advise the Court of the status of the transcript within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
