Re: Clarence B. Jenkins, Jr. v. SCDEW
Appellate Case No. 2017-001902

Dear Mr. Jenkins:

This Court has received your petition dated September 21, 2017. It has been construed as a petition for a writ of certiorari to review the decision of the South Carolina Court of Appeals in Appellate Case Number 2015-002356.<sup>1</sup>

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267, SCACR. The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

<sup>1</sup> To the extent you may be trying to file a complaint of judicial misconduct with this Court, no action will be taken on this complaint by this Court. Instead, complaints of this nature must be filed with the Commission on Judicial Conduct under the Rules for Judicial Disciplinary Enforcement (RJDE) contained in Rule 502, SCACR. Information on how to file a complaint with the Commission is available at www.sccourts.org/discCounsel/howToFile.cfm.

Finally, to the extent you may be trying to seek relief in the original jurisdiction of this Court, you will need to seek that relief by filing a separate petition that fully complies with the requirements of Rule 245, SCACR.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Your request to proceed without filing a record on appeal has been construed as a motion to allow you to proceed without filing the appendix required by Rule 242(e), SCACR. Enclosed is an order regarding that motion.

For this matter to proceed, it will be necessary for you to provide this Court with the following within ten (10) days of the date of this order:

- (1) The $100 filing fee specified by Rule 242(c), SCACR;
- (2) Six copies of the petition for a writ of certiorari as required by Rule 242(c), SCACR; and,
- (3) One copy of an appendix having the content specified by Rule 267(e), SCACR.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be a stylized name, possibly "D. A. [unclear]", written over a horizontal line.
