I received a letter from the court stating that it had not received your respondent' brief. I am letting you know I did receive it and was planning to ask for an extension to file my reply. Feel free to let the court know I received it.

RE: Jacqueline Blackwell v. Marion County Sheriff's Department
Appellate Case No.: 2017-000210

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of your letter dated October 12, 2017 indicating that the Court did not receive Respondent's Initial Brief or Designation of Matter. The purpose of this letter is to inform the Court that the same was placed in the mail with sufficient postage and addressed to both the Court and opposing counsel on October 6, 2017. I am not sure why the copy to the Court was never delivered. However, I have enclosed an e-mail from opposing counsel indicating that she received the copy that was addressed to her.

I am enclosing again for filing an original and one copy each of Respondent's Initial Brief and Respondent's Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal. I have also generated a new Certificate of Service attesting to the facts set forth above. We would appreciate it if you would file the originals and return the stamped copies through the provided envelope.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require anything further.

Sincerely,

Eric M. Poulin

Enclosure
