Re: Sunset Cay, LLC vs. SCDHEC
Appellate Case Number: 2017-000161

Dear Dianne,

Thank you for walking me through the deficiencies. Since I need an extension to file my final brief (and since respondent has already requested one), I enclose a motion for extension as well as one original, unbound Supplemental Record on Appeal. Since I had to change the cover page again, I will have the copy shop mail the card stock unbound version, along with the 14 bound copies, directly to you. I also enclose a Certificate of Service, and our firm's check in the amount of $25.00. As we discussed, I did not really need to file a motion since respondent's counsel has consented to the supplemental record, but, in an abundance of caution, and since I need an extension anyway, I am enclosing the motion I previously drafted. Of course, by copy of this letter to Bradley Churdar, I am serving a copy of the Supplemental Record on Appeal upon opposing counsel (even though he will get a bound version later). With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,
