Re: Nathaniel Alston v. All My Son's Moving and Storage
Appellate Case No. 2017-002126

Dear Mr. Alston:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and each deficiency must be corrected in its entirety within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed:

- The accompanying proof of service is not in compliance with the SCACR. Specifically, the date of service on the Worker's Compensation Commission and on the respondent is not given. Your proof of service should be substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by the order(s) and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal. The packages of documents that were sent to this Court by you are not needed at this time and will not be accepted as part of the notice of appeal. Therefore, they are being returned to you. Only the order(s) and/or judgments(s) that are being challenged on appeal are needed at this point.

- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $100.00.
- The notice of appeal and proof of service have not been signed as required by Rule 267(b), SCACR.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
