City of Columbia, Respondent,

v.

Haiyan Lin, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2015-001866

RECEIVED

OCT 08 2017

SC Court of Appeals

Motion To Recall Remittitur and Motion To Reinstate Appeal.

The appellant has just returned from CA on Sept. 26, 2017, and received the court order of July 7, 2017, dismissing the appeal for failure to provide the status update of the transcript. In fact, the appellant did send the payment for the transcript to the court reporter and a copy to the court for status update back in April, 2017, as well as her forwarding address in CA while she being out of town for her medical treatment in CA.

The appellant has no clue that the court did not receive her letter for status update and forwarding address in CA. Now, the appellant has received the complete transcripts for the case, as attached with the status notice.

To protect her due process right to appeal, the appellant hereby do request the court to recall the remittitur and to reinstate the case, so that the appeal can be move forward.

Sept. 28, 2017.
