v.

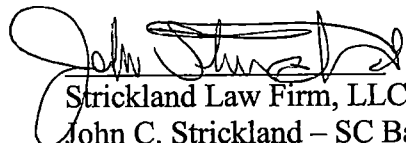

Davis Roofing Group, LLC Appellant,

MOTION TO REQUEST ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE INITIAL BRIEF

Comes now the Appellant, Davis Roofing, by and through their Attorney, filing a Motion to grant additional time to file Initial Brief of Appellant in the above mentioned case. This request is due to a transcript that was not provided for one of the hearings in this matter. The transcript has been re-requested and will be provided in time to file the Initial Brief, should the Court grant this request.

Granting this motion is in the interest of justice and does not prejudice the rights of the Respondents.

Re: Nexstar v Davis Roofing
Appellate Case No: 2017-001546
Request for 30 day extension to file initial brief

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I am writing to request a 30 day extension to file Petitioners Initial Brief. Although our brief is due on November 6, 2017. I am requesting a thirty (30) day extension to file the Initial Brief.

This extension is based on the fact that I didn't learn until yesterday that I have not received a complete record/transcript from the Court Reporter. There should have been two (2) transcripts, one from the trial and the other from the Motion to Reconsider. As I was reviewing all the records I noticed I did not have the transcript from the Motion to Reconsider hearing. I have requested, yesterday, that the Court Reporter provide me with that transcript. My records reflect that I asked for the complete transcript from the case but this may have been a minor miscommunication.

Additionally the issues in this case are complex therefore additional time is necessary to prepare a Brief.

There will be no prejudice to Respondent in granting this request for extension of time to file the Initial Brief. This request is made in good faith, and not merely for purposes of delay.

Please also find a check for Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars for the cost of this request.

Respectfully,

John Strickland
Attorney
