Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing to provide the Court and all parties of record with notice that the transcripts have been ordered in the above-referenced case.<sup>1</sup> The court reporter agreed to accept my transcript request via e-mail, which I have attached to this notice, in accordance with Rule 207(a)(1). The court reporter has indicated that she believes she will produce the remaining transcript portion in approximately three weeks. I will serve opposing counsel with my Initial Brief within the time allotted after receipt of that transcript.

Sincerely,

<sup>1</sup> Transcripts of the trial proceedings have already been produced and filed by the court reporter. Transcripts of the post-trial motion proceedings before the trial court held on September 28, 2017 are forthcoming.

Hi Chris,

Yes, your email is sufficient. Right now I'm swamped. Probably be about three weeks. I will try to get to it sooner, but can't promise.
