S.C. SUPREME COURT re: The State vs Stephanie J Greene
Case No. 2014-000764

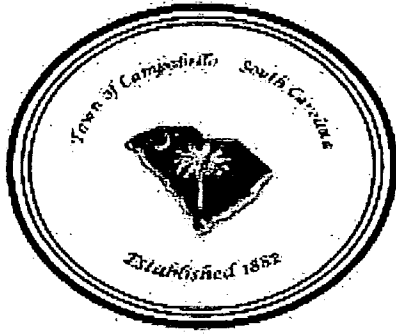

Supreme Court of SC

To Whom it may concern;

My Supreme Court case is the oldest pending case at this time. It has been almost 18 months since oral arguments were heard. A bond petition was filed on May 25, 2017 along with letters from both the fire chief AND Chief of Police from my home town, vouching for me and stating that they welcome me back to the community. My dear husband, Randy Greene is currently battling Stage IV metastatic throat cancer which has spread to his liver and lungs; and has been given 6 months to live. I beg of the court to please understand the seriousness of this matter. Please consider granting my bond request so that I may be home for what will probably be my husband's last Christmas on this earth. This has been a most heart-breaking and devastating time for our family. I am enclosing the two letters from the fire and Police Chief and respectfully ask you to please help me. Thank you in advance for your time, compassion, and understanding in this most serious matter.

Sincerely,

Stephanie J Greene

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in reference to Stephanie Greene. Stephanie has been an acquaintance of mine for more than thirty years and as acting Police Chief of the Town of Campobello I would like it to be known Stephanie poses no threat to the Police Department or to the community or its residences.

As the Chief of Police of this town for more than ten years, I would ask that you accept this letter as a request from myself to release Stephanie Greene to give her a chance to restart her life as an active member of this community.

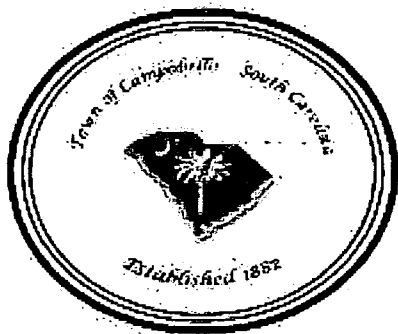

I would like to thank you for taking the time to acknowledge my request on Stephanie's behalf. If you have any additional questions or concerns, please feel free to contact my office.

Warm Regards,

Police Chief Chad McNeill

Committed to honor, serve and protect the Town of Campobello

To whom it may concern,

As the acting Fire Chief for the Town of Campobello I am writing you this letter on behalf of Stephanie Greene. I have known Stephanie for more than fifteen years and ensure you that she presents no threat to the Town of Campobello in anyway.

It is my request that you honor this letter as proof that I as well as the Town of Campobello welcomes her return back into our community.

If you have further questions on this matter, please contact me directly.

Sincerely,

William E. McNeill
