SC Court of Appeals

v.)

RULE 203(B) EXPLANATION

TRAVIS C. HALL,) Defendant.)

Pursuant to Rule 203(B) (iv), the issues to be raised on Appeal may include whether the Trial Court abused its discretion when it imposed a sentence of 2 years suspended to 3 years probation; to be held until bed space is available in an inpatient treatment facility; once completed, must be in intensive outpatient treatment; NA/AA three times per week; review in 90 days if bedspace not found upon the Appellant after he plead guilty.

The undersigned does not have a good faith basis to believe that such an abuse occurred and the undersigned did not object to the sentence or file a Motion to Reconsider the sentence. Nevertheless, the undersigned consulted with the Appellant about his right to appeal, and after consultation, the undersigned has filed the instant appeal at the request of the Appellant because the Sixth Amendment requires counsel to follow the Appellant's request. See Frazer v. South Carolina, 430F.3d 696, 706 (4th Cir. 2005) ("A Defendant has a right to pursue a direct appeal, even if frivolous, which counsel must assist as 'an active advocate in behalf of his client, '") (quoting Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 744 (1967)).

Respectfully submitted,
