RE:RE:Gregory Pencillev. South Carolina Department of Corrections

Appellate case Nos. 2017-001724 & 2017-001725

Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

This letter is in response to the response letter from Christina Catoe Bigelow November 9, 2017 in which she alleges that Mr. Pencille filed two incorrect forms. Fact of the matter is I requested forms for as the title says "Inmate Trust Fund Account Report for South Carolina Court Filing Fees". General Counsel returned them highlighting the "I plan to file this action in the SC county of ___" part of the form in which I left blank as it was not applicable in this case. General Counsel then returned the form back to me with note attached stating I must fill in a county for this portion. I promptly filled in as best I could and returned to institutional mailbox. I never received a response as to the corrected filing form or notice of it's whereabouts. Also, Mrs. Catoe Bigelow is misinformed as to the use of the form and is ignorant of the S.C. Code 24-27-100& 150 meaning. The form merely allows SCDC to pay the fee and deduct payments from the inmates trust fund account until SCDC is recompensed and the S.C. Code is for indigent filers and not once mentions $150.00 check. Furthermore, it shows more proof by showing this court a form in which they Redacted from (attached) the court that allows access to funds requested to file in this court and that SCDC/ General Counsel is hindering my actions against them in this court. I again reaffirm my last letter (attached) to this court that General Counsel's negligence and corruption begs for reprimand and their failure to properly contest my request defaults the filing fee to their full unwavering responsibility. So mote it be!

Respectfully yours,

Gregory Pencille
