RE: Alfred and Mary Jenkins vs. Ferrara Buist, LLC
File No.: 2016-CP-46-1001
Our File No.: 11848-001

Dear Judge Kimball:

I am writing with authority from and at the request of Paul Ferrara, counsel for the Defendant in this case. You may recall that you, Paul Ferrara and I had a conference call concerning a Motion filed by Mr. Ferrara in this case. Mr. Ferrara's Motion sought a court order requiring Plaintiffs to release the Lis Pendens filed by the Plaintiffs on real property owned by the Defendant.

During the conference call, Mr. Ferrara and I advised the Court that we had reached an agreement concerning the issues involved in the Motion. The Parties agreed that the Lis Pendens would be released so that the property could be sold and that part of the proceeds of the sale which would be sufficient to cover Plaintiffs' claim would be held in trust.

Mr. Ferrara and I would like to have the funds held by the Clerk of Court. If you are amenable to this proposal, I enclose for your consideration a proposed Consent Order directing the Parties to deposit the funds with the Clerk of Court.

Please let us know if you need any additional information or if we should proceed in some other fashion.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Herbert W. Hamilton'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

Case No. 2016-CP-46-1001

ORDER

FILED-RECEIVED
 2016 NOV 28 PM 4:04
 DAVID HAMILTON
 C.C.P. CLERK
 YORK COUNTY, SC

This matter came before the Court on November 17, 2016, upon Plaintiff's motion for partial summary judgment. Herbert W. Hamilton appeared for Plaintiffs. Paul B. Ferrara appeared for the Defendant. Based on the record presented and the arguments of counsel, I make the following findings and conclusions.

FACTUAL/PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This action arises out of a contract between the parties for the construction of a house for Plaintiffs by Defendant, a builder. Title to the house and land during construction remained in Defendant. The house and lot were to be conveyed to Plaintiffs upon final completion. The original contract price was $741,095.00. After all change orders, the final contract price was $881,868.63, as indicated on Defendant's last pay application.

Although the contract does not specify a procedure for payment to Defendant, Defendant sent periodic pay applications to Plaintiffs. With the exception of the last pay application, Plaintiffs paid all pay applications in full in a timely manner. At the time the contract was terminated, Plaintiffs had paid $643,760.70 to Defendant. Plaintiffs made all payments to Defendant from personal funds. There is no mortgage lien on the property.

The final pay application, dated November 11, 2016, and covering a period ending November 20, 2016, was submitted by Defendant to Plaintiffs. Following receipt of the pay application, the relationship between the parties deteriorated, and they were unable to reconcile their differences. Each side contends that the other breached the contract, and that, therefore, that party was entitled to terminate the contract.

Upon termination of the contract, Defendant put the house on the market for sale.

Defendant secured a contract for the sale of the house, and the transaction was consummated. The sales price was $850,000.00.

The Complaint in this action was filed on April 1, 2016. The Complaint contains several causes of action, one of which is an application for an equitable lien on the house by reason of the payments by Plaintiffs to Defendant. Plaintiffs filed a Lis Pendens to protect their interests. In order to allow the sale of the house to go forward, the parties agreed to place $663,395.37 from the proceeds of the sale of the house in trust with the Clerk of Court for York County. This fund represents the payments made to Defendant by the Jenkins, plus the value of appliances and a ceiling fan purchased by Jenkins, which were installed in the house.

DISCUSSION

The case is before the Court upon Plaintiffs' motion for the release of the funds held by the Clerk of Court to Plaintiffs. Although Plaintiffs' motion is titled as a motion for partial summary judgment, it is in essence simply a motion seeking the exercise of the equitable powers of the Court to place the parties in the position they would have been in as a result of a sale of the house by Plaintiffs, without affecting any party's claim for breach of contract.

Defendant has effectively been paid in full for its work, except for the damages it claims for breach of contract. Defendant does not claim, and I find and conclude that it does not possess, any legal or equitable lien on the proceeds of the sale representing the money already paid to Defendant by Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs contend that Defendant has already been paid $643,760.70, and that if Defendant is allowed to retain the entire proceeds of the sale of the house, it will constitute double payment.

After consideration of the arguments of counsel and the uncontested affidavits submitted by the parties, I find and conclude that, as a result of the sale of the house, Defendant has been paid in full the contract price based on the parties' contract, except for $31,861.13.¹ Defendant argues that a substantial portion of the money held by the Clerk of Court should be retained to reimburse Defendant for consequential damages it claims to have incurred. However, I find and conclude that Defendant is not entitled to the establishment of a fund to secure collection of additional damages it may be awarded through a trial of the case. Defendant simply does not have a legal or equitable basis for the maintaining of such a fund.

¹ The last pay application submitted by Defendant shows a total contract price of $881,868.13. The contract sale price was $850,000.00, leaving a difference of $31,868.13 that Defendant claims is due it. Further, Defendant has actually received $160,588.96 in proceeds from the closing of the sale. This represents the sale price, less Defendant's share of the closing costs, and the funds on deposit with the Clerk of Court.

J M
2

Both Plaintiffs and Defendant claim damages for breach of contract. There is nothing in their contract that would give rise to, or support, a claim of a lien on any proceeds of the sale of the house. The funds deposited with the Court were the result of an agreement entered into in order that all parties would receive the benefit of a sale of the house. That agreement did not establish a legal or equitable lien on the deposited proceeds.

Thus, I find and conclude that Plaintiffs are entitled to be paid the entire sum on deposit with the Clerk of Court.²

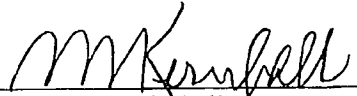

By ruling in the manner described, the Court is not ruling upon, or granting judgment of any kind, as to the claims of either party, and makes no determination as to any entitlement to damages due either party. This order simply recognizes and determines that, upon receipt of payment by Plaintiffs in the amount of $643,760.70, and receiving the same amount at the closing of the sale of the house, Defendant has received payment in full under the parties' contract, except for $31,861.13.³ Defendant has no claim that needs to be protected, and has no right at law or in equity for security for its claim for damages in this action.

CONCLUSION

Based on the findings and conclusions herein, it is ordered that the Clerk of Court for York County be authorized and directed to disburse to Plaintiffs the entirety of funds paid in to Court in this matter, namely $663,395.37.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

November 23, 2016

S. Jackson Kimball
Special Circuit Court Judge
York County

² I recognize that my ruling at the hearing was that a portion of the proceeds on deposit representing the difference between the amount due for the house under the parties' contract and the sale price to the third party, namely, $31,861.13, would be retained by the Clerk of Court. However, upon consideration of the record, and further review of the exhibits submitted by the parties, I conclude that there is no sustainable argument that Defendant should be entitled to be secured by those funds, and no sustainable argument that Plaintiffs should be deprived of them, pending a resolution of this dispute.

³ Defendant used, or had the use of, the money paid by Plaintiffs to pay the costs of construction as work on the house proceeded. It has no independent claim to the money on deposit with the Clerk of Court.

NOTE: ATTORNEYS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR NOTIFYING LOWER COURT, TRIBUNAL, OR ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY OF THE CIRCUIT COURT RULING IN THIS APPEAL.

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: See attached order; (formal order to follow) Statement of Judgment by the Court:

This matter came before me on February 16, 2017, upon Defendant's motion pursuant to Rule 59(e), SCRPC, asking the Court to alter or amend the Court's Order filed November 28, 2016. Representing the parties were: Herbert W. Hamilton for Plaintiffs; and, Paul B. Ferrara for Defendant.

The purpose of Rule 59(e), SCRPC, to alter or amend the judgment, is to request the trial judge to "... reconsider matters properly encompassed in a decision on the merits." Arnold v. State, 309 S.C. 157, 172, 420 S.E.2d 834, 842 (1992) (Citations omitted). A party cannot use a motion to reconsider, alter or amend a judgment to present an issue that could have been raised prior to the judgment, but was not. See Johnson v. Sonoco Products Co., 381 S.C. 172, 672 S.E.2d 567 (2009); and, Poch v. Bayshore Concrete Products/South Carolina, Inc., 386 S.C. 13, 686 S.E.2d 689 (Ct. App. 2009).

Defendant argues that while Plaintiffs' motion was for partial summary judgment, the Court's ruling did not specify such relief. Notwithstanding this contention, all argument and the ruling on the motion was based on the precise grounds stated in the motion, and Defendant argued against those grounds fully. The Order granted Plaintiffs' relief as requested in the motion. Thus, Defendant's assertion has no merit.

Upon reviewing the record presented, and considering the arguments of counsel, I find no matter presented that was not addressed expressly, or by clear implication, in the prior order. I further find no basis for reconsideration or amendment of the ruling rendered in the prior order.

Therefore, it is ordered that Defendant's Motion pursuant to Rule 59(e), SCRPC, be denied.
AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

C.C.P. CLERK
YORK COUNTY, SC

Plaintiffs, Alfred and Mary Jenkins complaining of the Defendant herein allege:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiffs are citizens of some state other than South Carolina who have the intent to permanently reside in South Carolina.
2. Defendant is an LLC formed under the laws of South Carolina with its principal place of business in York County, South Carolina.
3. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court.

FACTS

4. On or about August 22, 2014, the Plaintiffs and Defendant signed a contract ("Contract") whereby Defendant contracted to build a house for Plaintiffs. A copy of the Contract is attached hereto as Exhibit A and by reference is incorporated herein.
5. Plaintiffs paid an initial deposit of $20,000, as required by the Contract and directed Defendant to proceed with construction.

6. In December of 2014, Defendant requested a payment of $78,000.00. Despite the fact that an additional payment was not required by the Contract, and Defendant had not broken ground for the house, Plaintiffs paid Defendant an additional $78,000 ostensibly to pay for the lot.

7. The Plaintiffs' payment notwithstanding, the lot was not deeded to the Plaintiffs.

8. On February 19, 2015, before any work had been done, Plaintiffs submitted Invoice No. 1 in the amount of $47,735.00. Even though the contract does not provide for partial payments, Plaintiffs paid Invoice No. 1 on February 26, 2015.

9. Defendant finally began construction in March of 2015.

10. Throughout the course of construction, Defendant sent applications for partial payment to the Plaintiffs which were promptly paid through October of 2015. Plaintiffs have paid Defendant a total of $643,760.70.

11. Throughout the course of construction, Plaintiffs repeatedly notified Defendant of defects in construction and failure to follow the plans and specifications. Defendant assured Plaintiffs that all concerns would be properly addressed.

12. In November of 2014, Defendant notified Plaintiffs that he planned to complete construction including correction of all "punch list" items on December 1, 2015.

13. On November 23, 2015, Plaintiffs met with Defendant and again found many items incomplete or incorrect.

14. On November 27, 2015, Plaintiffs visited the house again and found numerous items still incorrect.

15. On December 4, 2015, Plaintiffs met with Defendant. Defendant asked Plaintiffs to give him one more chance to correct the problems. Defendants reluctantly agreed. A walk through was scheduled for December 15, 2015.

16. On December 14, 2015, Plaintiffs went to the house to do a preliminary walk through with their house inspector. The house was locked.

17. Plaintiffs contacted Defendant and were told that he would not allow anyone in the house.

18. Defendant has failed and refused to complete the house, has failed and refused to correct all punch list items despite repeated assurances that he would do so and has failed and refused to close the transaction.

19. On information and belief, the Defendant has listed the house for sale, thus repudiating the Contract without justification.

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Equitable Lien)

20. The allegations of paragraph 1 through 19 are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth.

21. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that, by reason of their status as purchaser under an executory contract for the purchase and sale of real property, they have an equitable lien on the property described in the Contract in the amount paid on the purchase price and amounts paid to improve the real property.

22. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that they are entitled to an order declaring the existence of an equitable lien on real property in the amount of $665,423.12; foreclosing the lien; selling the property at public auction; disbursing the proceeds of the sale to the Plaintiffs in an amount not to exceed $665,423.12 plus costs and legal fees.

FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Restitution)

23. The allegations of paragraph 1 through 22 are incorporated herein as if fully set forth.

24. Payments by the Plaintiffs to the Defendant for the improvement of the real property, were made as consideration for the transfer of the real property from Defendants to Plaintiffs.

25. The retention of the real property by the Defendant as well as the payments made by the Plaintiffs for the improvement of the real property in the amount of $665,423.12 constitutes unjust enrichment.

26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that they are entitled to restitution of the payments made to Defendant or for improvement of the real property in the amount of $665,423.12 plus costs and attorneys' fees.

FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Breach of Contract)

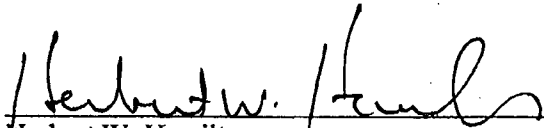

27. The allegations of paragraphs 1 through 26 are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth.

28. The failure and refusal of the Defendant to complete the house and transfer the house to the Plaintiffs constitute breach of contract.

29. By reason of Defendant's breach of contract, Plaintiffs have incurred direct, actual and consequential damages in an amount to be determined by the jury.

30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that they are entitled to judgment against the Defendant for all actual and consequential damages plus costs and attorneys' fees.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant establishing the existence of an equitable lien on the real property which is the subject of the Contract in the amount of $665,423.23; for an order foreclosing the lien; selling the property at public auction; paying the proceeds of the sale to the Plaintiffs in an amount not to exceed $665,423.12 plus costs, expenses and legal fees and establishing any deficiency judgment; or, in the alternative, for judgment for direct and consequential damages for breach of contract plus costs and attorney's fees; and for such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.

11. Defendant denies Paragraphs 21 and 22 of the complaint. Plaintiffs have failed to assert and/or prove the necessary elements to establish an equitable lien.
12. Paragraph 23 does not require a response. To the extent a response is required, Paragraph 23 is denied.
13. Defendant denies Paragraphs 24 through 26.
14. Paragraph 27 does not require a response. To the extent a response is required, Paragraph 27 is denied.
15. Defendant denies Paragraphs 28 through 30.

FOR AND AS A THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Failure to Mitigate Damages)

16. Without admitting liability or that Plaintiffs have suffered damages, to the extent Plaintiffs have suffered damages, Plaintiffs failed to properly and timely mitigate their damages. The Defendants plead this failure to mitigate damages as a complete bar to this action, or in the alternative, a reduction in recovery in the claims of Plaintiffs.
17. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS A FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Estoppel)

18. By and through their prior conduct to and after bringing this lawsuit, Plaintiffs should be estopped from asserting their claims against Defendants. Therefore, the Defendants plead estoppel as a complete bar to this action.
19. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS A FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Statute of Frauds)

20. To the extent that Plaintiffs are relying on contracts other than those that are written, their claims are barred by the Statute of Frauds and should be dismissed.
21. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS A SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Unclean Hands)

22. The Plaintiffs do not have clean hands with regard to the allegations in the complaint. The Defendants plead the doctrine of unclean hands as a complete bar to this action.
23. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS A SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Rule 12(b)(6))

24. The complaint fails to state a claim for which relief can be granted and therefore should be dismissed under Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.
25. The complaint fails to state the necessary elements for an equitable lien.
26. Furthermore, "equity is generally only available when a party is without an adequate remedy at law." Nutt Corp. v. Howell Rd., LLC, 396 S.C. 323, 328, 721 S.E.2d 447, 449 (Ct. App. 2011).
27. Without admitting liability, Defendants assert that Plaintiffs seek an available remedy by breach of contract, and therefore have adequate remedies at law and equitable remedies are unnecessary.
28. Therefore, Plaintiffs' claim for an equitable lien and foreclosure upon said lien should be dismissed.
29. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS AN EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Consent and Approval)

30. Plaintiffs provided consent and approval for all actions taken by the Defendants.
31. All actions taken by the Defendants were approved by the Plaintiffs. Furthermore, all actions taken by Defendants were in furtherance of the contract between the parties. Therefore, Defendants did not breach the contract with Plaintiffs.
32. The Plaintiffs' breach of contract claim is without merit and should be dismissed.
33. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS A NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Frivolous Civil Proceedings)

34. The claims asserted in the complaint are not supported by law or fact and no reasonable attorney would believe, under the same facts, that the claim for equitable lien and filing of a lis pendens is warranted by existing law.
35. The complaint was intended merely to harass and injure the Defendants.
36. Therefore, the Plaintiffs are barred from asserting the claims under Rule 11 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and the South Carolina Frivolous Civil Proceedings Sanctions Act.
37. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS A TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Non-Waiver of Defenses)

38. Defendants reserve and do not waive any additional or further defenses, affirmative defenses, crossclaims or counterclaims as may be revealed by additional information that may be acquired in discovery or otherwise.
39. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

FOR AND AS AN ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

(Declaratory Judgment/Breach of Contract)

40. The Defendant is a business licensed to do business in the State of South Carolina with its principal place of business in York County, South Carolina.
41. The Plaintiffs are residents of some other state with the intent to permanently reside in South Carolina.
42. The Plaintiffs contracted for business in York County, South Carolina with the Defendant for the construction of a new home.
43. The Defendants seek to obtain declaration pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §15-53-130 (1976) that the Plaintiffs are in default and breached the contract between the Defendants and Plaintiff.

44. The Plaintiffs and Defendant entered into an agreement on August 22, 2014, for the construction of a new home. The contract is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
45. The Defendant performed under the contract.
46. The original contract sum was $741,095.00. Change Orders agreed to by Plaintiffs increased the sum due under the contract to $881,868.13.
47. Defendant has received payments from Plaintiffs totaling $643,760.70.
48. Therefore, Defendants owe a balance of $238,107.43.
49. The Defendant gave Plaintiffs adequate and reasonable time to pay the remaining balance due under the terms of the contract.
50. The breach of contract by the Plaintiffs have caused the Defendant to suffer damages including attorney fees and costs.

FOR AND AS A TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

(Slander of Title)

51. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.
52. Wrongfully recording an unfounded claim against the property of another is generally actionable as slander of title. Huff v. Jennings, 319 S.C. 142, 459 S.E.2d 886 (S.C. App., 1995).
53. Plaintiffs improperly and in violation of South Carolina law filed an invalid mechanic's lien.
54. Plaintiffs are not licensed contractors, and therefore have no legal right to file a mechanic's lien.
55. Thus, the mechanic's lien is invalid and Plaintiffs are liable to Defendant for slander of title.

FOR AND AS A THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

(Cloud on Title)

56. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.

57. A cloud on title is a claim which on its face appears to be valid, but resort to extrinsic evidence will show its invalidity.
58. Plaintiffs do not own or have an interest in the subject property.
59. Plaintiffs' cause of action for breach of contract does not give rise to a claim of right or interest in the subject property. Plaintiffs assert that Defendants breached the contract, making contract performance impossible.
60. Furthermore, upon information and belief Plaintiffs did not intend on completing the contract and purchasing the property, as such the lis pendens should not have been filed.
61. Defendant has all right, title and interest in the property. Defendant listed the property for sale.
62. The lis pendens filed by Plaintiffs improperly clouds title and any interference with the sale of the subject property gives rise to direct and consequential damages, plus attorney's fees and costs.

FOR AND AS A FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

(Notice of Motion and Motion for Injunctive Relief)

63. The allegations of the preceding defenses are re-alleged and incorporated by reference insofar as they are consistent.
64. Plaintiffs made payments toward the subject property totaling 643,760.70.
65. Defendant fully performed the contract and worked with Plaintiffs to make all changes and updates as Plaintiffs' requested.
66. Defendant emailed Plaintiffs a letter regarding their default in December 2015 attached hereto as Exhibit B.
67. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs purchased another home in South Carolina and no longer wish to purchase the subject property.
68. Defendant placed the subject property for sale and the subject property is currently under contract (attached hereto as Exhibit C) and expected to close May 10, 2016.
69. Defendant would suffer irreparable harm if unable to proceed with the sale of the house as it would prove difficult and lengthy to find another buyer.

70. Without admitting liability, Defendant asserts that Plaintiff has adequate remedies at law under breach of contract theory and would not be harmed or prejudiced by the sale of the property.

71. Therefore, Defendant seeks injunctive relief to release the lis pendens and mechanic's lien wrongfully filed by Plaintiffs and allow the sale of the subject property.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully prays that this Honorable Court enter an Order finding that the Plaintiffs are in breach of contract and default, and owe Plaintiff the sum of $238,107.43. Also, Defendant respectfully request this Court find Plaintiffs liable for improperly clouding title and slander of title causing Defendant direct and consequential damages. Moreover, Plaintiffs request this Court dismiss all actions by the Plaintiffs and to issue all other appropriate remedies including attorney fees and costs for this action.

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

15. The factual allegations of the Defendant's Complaint are incorporated herein as if fully set forth.

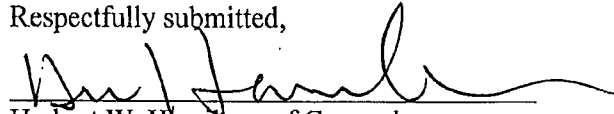

16. The Plaintiffs were prepared to close upon Defendant's proper completion of the house.

 CASE NO.: 2016-CP-46-1001

Response to Plaintiffs' Notice of Motion and Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

FILED-RECEIVED
 2016 NOV 21 AM 11:32
 DAVID HAMILTON
 S.C.C.P. & SS
 YORK COUNTY, SC

Plaintiffs filed a Motion pursuant to Rule 56 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. This motion is without merit and should be denied as set forth for the following reasons:

Summary judgment is only appropriate when there is no genuine issue of material fact such that the moving party must prevail as a matter of law. See. S.C.R.C.P 56(c). Moreover, summary judgment should only be granted "if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Id. For summary judgment purposes, a court must view the facts in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party. George v. Fabri, 345 S.C. 440, 452, 548 S.E.2d 868, 874 (2001). Because summary judgment is such a drastic remedy, a court should cautiously invoke it so it will not improperly deprive a party of a trial of the disputed factual issues. Baughman v. Am. Tel. & Tel. Co., 306 S.C. 101, 112, 410 S.E.2d 537, 543 (1991).

When evaluating a summary judgment motion, "the evidence and all reasonable inferences must be viewed in a light most favorable to the non-moving party." Fleming v. Rose, 350 S.C. 488, 493, 567 S.E.2d 857, 860 (2002). Moreover, the Supreme Court has held in the Hancock case that the non-moving party is only required to submit a mere scintilla of evidence in order to withstand a motion for summary judgment. Hancock v. Mid-South Mgmt. Co., 381 S.C. 326, 329-30, 673 S.E.2d 801, 803 (2009).

“The general rule is that for a breach of contract the [breaching party] is liable for whatever damages follow as a natural consequence and a proximate result of such breach.” Fuller v. E. Fire & Cas. Inc. Co., 240 S.C. 75, 124 S.E.2d 602 (1962). “The purpose of an award for damages for breach of contract is to put the [non-breaching party] in as good a position as he would have been in if the contract had been performed.” Minter v. GOCT, Inc., 322 S.C. 525, 528 473 S.E.2d 67, 70 (Ct. App. 1996).

Plaintiffs assert in paragraph 10 of the Notice of Motion and Motion for Summary Judgment that Defendant has been paid in full and that funds held in trust should be released to the Plaintiffs. As detailed in the Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara, the Defendant asserts that it suffered damages of at least $304,956.30. The Defendant has not been paid in full for all damages pursuant to the contract at issue, attached as Exhibit A to the Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara.

Therefore, there are still material issues of fact to be heard by a jury and the total sum held in trust of $663,395.37 should not be distributed, as it is still in dispute. Furthermore, there are other causes of action and issues of material fact, including but not limited to breach of contract, alleged in the Plaintiffs' Complaint and Defendant's Counterclaim that must be heard by a jury before the funds in trust can be distributed. Moreover, Plaintiffs' Notice of Motion and Motion for Partial Summary Judgment does not specify or make clear which cause(s) of action Plaintiffs are seeking summary judgment.

Based upon the aforementioned facts, pleadings, affidavits and applicable statutory and common law, Defendant, Ferrara Buist, LLC respectfully requests this court deny the summary judgment motion as there are disputes of material facts and allow the case to proceed to a jury trial.

Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara

FILED-RECEIVED
 2016 NOV 21 AM 11:38
 DAVID HAMILTON
 C.C.S.P. & GS
 YORK COUNTY, SC

PERSONALLY appeared before me the undersigned who, being duly sworn, under oath says:

1. I am Michael Adam Ferrara, and I am one of the owners of Ferrara-Buist, LLC.
2. Ferrara-Buist, LLC is a limited liability company under the laws of the State of South Carolina with its principal place of business in York County, South Carolina.
3. The Plaintiffs and Defendant entered into an agreement on August 22, 2014, for the construction of a new home. The contract is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
4. The Defendant fully performed all obligations under the contract.
5. Defendant sent Plaintiffs an Application and Certificate for Payment in November 2015, attached as Exhibit B to Plaintiffs' Notice of Motion and Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.
6. The original contract sum was $741,095.00. Change Orders agreed to by Plaintiffs increased the sum due under the contract to $881,868.13.
7. Defendant has received payments from Plaintiffs totaling $643,760.70.
8. Defendant incurred incidental and consequential damages for property taxes ($832.74), interest on the lot closing ($6,078.10), HOA lot assessment fee ($630.00), HOA transfer fee ($125.00), interest on non-payment of balance due ($5,952.71), commission fee to Rinehart Realty ($25,500.00), commissions to Keller Williams ($21,250.00) and additional drainage installation fees ($1,800.00), for a total amount of $62,168.55.

9. The Closing Disclosure, attached hereto as Exhibit B, is the correct and accurate Closing Disclosure regarding the sale of the subject property, and not Exhibit A of Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Partial Motion for Summary Judgment. This Closing Disclosure evidences some of the damages in paragraph 8 above.
10. The damages in paragraph 8 above would not have been incurred by Ferrara -Buist, LLC if the Plaintiffs would have performed their obligations under the contract at issue and closed on the subject property last year.
11. As a result of this litigation, Defendant has incurred $4,680.32 in attorney's fees and costs.
12. Therefore, Plaintiffs owe a balance of $300,275.98, plus attorney's fees and costs of $4,680.32, for a total of $304,956.30, less proceeds of $140,954.29.
13. Ferrara-Buist, LLC is continuing to accrue attorney's fees and costs as a result of Plaintiffs' continued breach of contract.

Additional Information About This Loan

Loan Disclosures

Assumption

If you sell or transfer this property to another person, your lender

- will allow, under certain conditions, this person to assume this loan on the original terms.
- will not allow assumption of this loan on the original terms.

Demand Feature

Your loan

- has a demand feature, which permits your lender to require early repayment of the loan. You should review your note for details.
- does not have a demand feature.

Late Payment

If your payment is more than 15 days late, a charge of 5% of the overdue payment of principal and interest will be assessed.

Negative Amortization (Increase in Loan Amount)

Under your loan terms, you

- are scheduled to make monthly payments that do not pay all of the interest due that month. As a result, your loan amount will increase (negatively amortize), and your loan amount will likely become larger than your original loan amount. Increases in your loan amount lower the equity you have in this property.
- may have monthly payments that do not pay all of the interest due that month. If you do, your loan amount will increase (negatively amortize), and, as a result, your loan amount may become larger than your original loan amount. Increases in your loan amount lower the equity you have in this property.
- do not have a negative amortization feature.

Partial Payments

Your lender

- may accept payments that are less than the full amount due (partial payments) and apply them to your loan.
- may hold them in a separate account until you pay the rest of the payment, and then apply the full payment to your loan.
- does not accept any partial payments.

If this loan is sold, your new lender may have a different policy.

Security Interest

You are granting a security interest in
3022 Dream Catcher Cir, FORT MILL, SC 29716

You may lose this property if you do not make your payments or satisfy other obligations for this loan.

Escrow Account

For now, your loan

- will have an escrow account (also called an "impound" or "trust" account) to pay the property costs listed below. Without an escrow account, you would pay them directly, possibly in one or two large payments a year. Your lender may be liable for penalties and interest for failing to make a payment.

Escrow
Escrowed Property Costs over Year 1		Estimated total amount over year 1 for your escrowed property costs:
Non-Escrowed Property Costs over Year 1		Estimated total amount over year 1 for your non-escrowed property costs: You may have other property costs.
Initial Escrow Payment		A cushion for the escrow account you pay at closing. See Section G on page 2.
Monthly Escrow Payment		The amount included in your total monthly payment.

- will not have an escrow account because you declined it your lender does not require or offer one. You must directly pay your property costs, such as taxes and homeowner's insurance. Contact your lender to ask if your loan can have an escrow account.

No Escrow
Estimated Property Costs over Year 1	$3,112.12	Estimated total amount over year 1. You must pay these costs directly, possibly in one or two large payments a year.
Escrow Waiver Fee

In the future,

Your property costs may change and, as a result, your escrow payment may change. You may be able to cancel your escrow account, but if you do, you must pay your property costs directly. If you fail to pay your property taxes, your state or local government may (1) impose fines and penalties or (2) place a tax lien on this property. If you fail to pay any of your property costs, your lender may (1) add the amounts to your loan balance, (2) add an escrow account to your loan, or (3) require you to pay for property insurance that the lender buys on your behalf, which likely would cost more and provide fewer benefits than what you could buy on your own.

Memorandum in Support of Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration

FILED-RECEIVED
 2016 DEC - 8 PM 12:16
 DAVID HAMILTON
 C.C.P. & GS
 YORK COUNTY, SC

Defendant, Ferrara Buist, LLC, by and through undersigned counsel, submits the following in support of its Motion for Reconsideration under Rule 59 on the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure:

I. Procedural History

Plaintiffs filed this action April 1, 2016, for an equitable lien, restitution, and breach of contract. Defendant filed its Answer and Counterclaim on April 28, 2016, asserting breach of contract, slander of title, and cloud on title, and moving for injunctive relief. The motion for injunctive relief sought to remove a lis pendens filed on the subject property to allow the sale of the property to proceed forward without delay or a lien on title.

This Honorable Court entered an order on July 25, 2016, ordering the proceeds of the sale be deposited with the Clerk of Court pending further agreement of the parties or order of the court. Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on September 29, 2016, to which Defendant filed a response with an Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara.

On November 28, 2016, the Court entered an order releasing Ferrara Buist, LLC's proceeds from the sale of the subject property at the Clerk of Court, to the Plaintiffs, which is the subject of this motion.

II. Factual Background

Plaintiffs' and Defendant entered into a contract dated August 22, 2014, for the contract of a new home. The original contract sum was $741,095.00, and change orders signed by the Plaintiffs increased the sum due under the contract to $881,868.13. Defendant received payments from Plaintiffs totaling $643,760.70. However, the Plaintiffs breached the contract and refused to move forward under the agreed upon terms. As a result, Defendant suffered damages, as detailed in the Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara on file with this Honorable Court.

III. Argument

A. Rule 67

Rule 67 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure states in full:

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing, whether or not that party claims all or part of the sum or thing. Money paid into the court under this rule shall be deposited as directed by the court in any bank or institution authorized to receive public funds, and shall be withdrawn only upon the check of the clerk of court in favor of the party to whom the order of the court directs.

Pursuant to Rule 67, the parties agreed to, and your honor ordered, that the proceeds of $663,395.37 from the sale of the property from Ferrara-Buist, LLC to a third-party be held by the clerk of court. Defendant agreed to deposit the proceeds in its possession to the clerk of court.

However, Defendant did not and would not have agreed to release such proceeds to the Plaintiffs. Defendant intended for the money to be held in trust until the resolution of the case, but did not intend for the money to be released to Plaintiffs because Defendant has suffered damages as a result of Plaintiffs' breach, and therefore Defendant argues that Plaintiffs are not entitled to the full amount of funds deposited with the court. This material fact is clearly established by the Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara of Ferrara-Buist, LLC. Thus, Ferrara-

Buist, LLC respectfully requests the Court to hold that there are material questions of fact; specifically, that whether Plaintiffs or Defendant breached the contract at issue and the damages resulting from said breach.

However, if the money should be released from the clerk of court, Defendant asserts that the money should have been released back to the originating party, Ferrara-Buist, LLC. In order to release the funds to any party besides the originating party, would be to make findings of fact and legal conclusions with regard to breach of contract and damages in this case. Furthermore, by ordering money be paid to Plaintiffs and release of the funds on deposit, the judge has granted summary judgment and ruled on this case. This issues of breach and damages are questions of material fact for trial and should not have been determined at this juncture.

B. Sufficient Notice

“Procedural due process requires (1) adequate notice; (2) adequate opportunity for a hearing; (3) the right to introduce evidence; and (4) the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses.” Moore v. Moore, 376 S.C. 467, 657 S.E.2d 743 (2008).

Plaintiffs filed a Partial Motion for Summary Judgment and a hearing was set on said motion. Defendant filed a response to Plaintiffs’ motion as well as an Affidavit of Michael Adam Ferrara. In said response, Defendant stated “[m]oreover, Plaintiffs’ Notice of Motion and Motion for Partial Summary Judgment does not specify or make clear which cause(s) of action Plaintiffs are seeking summary judgment.” Despite the ambiguity, Defendant prepared for the hearing on summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, arguing that no such motion should be granted on the basis that issues of material fact existed to be tried by a jury.

Defendant essentially disguised its motion to release the proceeds held by the court as a motion for summary judgment, and the court moved forward on said grounds, despite Defendant's lack of notice. As a result, the judge's order violates Defendant's due process rights.

IV. Conclusion

Defendant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court reconsider its order entered November 28, 2016. Defendant asserts that the proceeds should either be released back to the originating party, Ferrara-Buist, LLC, or re-deposited with the clerk of court pending a trial on the merits.

1 THE COURT - All right, this is case number 2016-
2 1001, Alfred and Mary Jenkins against Ferrara Buist
3 Company, LLC. Present on behalf of plaintiff is Mr. Herb
4 Hamilton, and present on behalf of the defendant is Mr.
5 Paul Ferrara. This is the defendant's motion to alter or 6 amend my prior Order. So Mr. Ferrara?

7 MR. FERRARA - Yes, Your Honor. May it please the 8 Court. I appreciate Your Honor allowing me to address
9 this, and I don't want to waste the Court's time; I
10 understand the Court's Order ruling before, but just for 11 the record, Your Honor, I -- I wanted to just bring up the 12 procedural portion of this -- this motion that Your Honor
13 ruled upon and issued an Order on, and that Mr. Hamilton,
14 as you recall, Your Honor, filed a motion for partial 15 summary judgment in this case, ---

16 THE COURT - Yes.

17 MR. FERRARA - --- and I was prepared for that,
18 Your Honor, and, you know, filed and served a counter-
19 affidavit, which I think Your Honor even admitted created a 20 question of fact, but then Your Honor went on to rule in 21 this particular case to return the money that was held by 22 the clerk, and with all due respect, Your Honor, I just --
23 I felt as though -- I was surprised by the motion and the 24 Court's Order. I understand that Your Honor, you know, has

1 the inherent authority to make rulings on matters that are
2 before you, but I wasn't aware at the last hearing that
3 really, essentially, what I needed to be prepared for was 4 not a summary judgment argument, Your Honor, but really an
5 equitable argument and address Your Honor about whether my 6 client should be -- should be entitled to return of the 7 proceeds that were held by the clerk at that time or not,
8 and that it really was not a summary judgment motion. And 9 so ---

10 THE COURT - But the subject matter of what was 11 heard was always what -- was always their claim that the 12 money being held by the clerk should be paid out to them.
13 That was always the same subject matter.

14 MR. FERRARA - That was the same subject ---

15 THE COURT - I'm just the one who quibbled over
16 what is it called, what should we call this motion, I
17 guess, if you want to say it that way. Go ahead.

18 MR. FERRARA - And I could be wrong, Your Honor,
19 but I -- as I understand it and think about it
20 procedurally, you're -- the posture of the case is that 21 Your Honor had already signed a Consent Order by the 22 parties that the proceeds that were undisputed were to be
23 held by the clerk ---

24 THE COURT - That's right.

1 MR. FERRARA - ---, pending the outcome of the 2 case, and what Your Honor did was when you issued your
3 ruling in your Order, you determined the plaintiff's
4 outcome and that the money that was being held by the
5 clerk, the plaintiff now has and the plaintiff has no claim
6 --- the plaintiff's claims are no more. The plaintiff has 7 no claim now as a result of Your Honor's Order, and what
8 I'm asking your Court, respectfully, to do is to change
9 that, because I -- I believe, Your Honor, that the rules
10 would allow Your Honor either to tell the parties that you
11 do not want the clerk to hold the money and return the 12 money to where it originated or allow the clerk to hold the 13 money in trust until the matter is determined, and those 14 are the only two options. I think for Your Honor to rule
15 that the money goes to a party who did not deposit the 16 money with the Court was overstepping your bounds at that 17 point.

18 THE COURT - All the parties agreed to deposit the 19 money to the Court.

20 MR. FERRARA - And that was by agreement, but the 21 parties did not agree to return the money to some other
22 location than where it originated.

23 THE COURT - I agree with that.

24 MR. FERRARA - And that's -- that's where Your
25 Honor effectively -- as I understand that if Your Honor

1 makes a ruling that effectively ends in a summary judgment
 2 for plaintiff or defendant, then that is granting that,
 3 where, you know, granting a motion for summary judgment,
 4 basically, ending the plaintiff's case in this case. And
 5 so the plaintiff has no claim and now the defendant has a
 6 claim for a breach of contract.

7 THE COURT - Yeah, and I -- that's acknowledged in
 8 the Order. I'm not sure the plaintiffs don't have a claim.
 9 I didn't -- I didn't refresh my memory about the -- what's
 10 left in their complaint, so I just don't recall that right
 11 now, but, clearly, it eliminated any claim the plaintiffs 12 had to the money that was by consent deposited with the 13 clerk of court. And the -- that was always the basis of 14 the plaintiff's motion, that the money -- called a motion
 15 for partial summary judgment, that the money was to be 16 returned -- should -- should be paid out by the clerk to 17 them and then, you know, there was, obviously, as we know,
 18 there was a lot of argument about why, and that's where I
 19 ruled.

20
 21 MR. FERRARA - It - and, Your Honor, just um --
 22 and I understand the Court's ruling. What I was saying was 23 that, in effect, Your Honor, if you have a case where 24 plaintiff is suing the defendant for money in general and 25 that -- and the money is identified through whatever

1 vehicle, that money is deposited with the Court and then
2 the Court rules that the money that the plaintiff is suing
3 the defendant for be returned to plaintiff when it did not
4 originate by deposit from the Court from the plaintiff,
5 then effectively the Court has issued judgment in favor of 6 the plaintiff on those claims.

7 THE COURT - I granted -- if you want to say it
8 that way, I granted the plaintiff's motion for partial 9 summary judgment that -- that they had an undeniable claim
10 to the money as a matter of law. I further ruled that --
11 that to -- to hold the money or to -- there was no basis
12 upon which to pay the money to the defendant, because the 13 defendant will have then been paid the same money twice.

14 MR. FERRARA - Okay. Well, and I -- if that's the 15 Court's ruling, that's the Court's ruling, but I -- I just 16 am asking Your Honor to -- you know, this motion is to 17 reconsider because there's an affidavit disputing that 18 point, that the money -- that the plaintiffs asked Your 19 Honor to return to them, that you did Order, there's a
20 dispute about that as established in the affidavits that 21 are filed with the Court. There's a dispute about the 22 money ---

23 THE COURT - All right, well, let me hear Mr.
24 Hamilton.

25 MR. FERRARA - Okay.

1 MR. HAMILTON - Well, Your Honor, I'm -- there is
2 -- there is not a dispute in my view about the fact that
3 the plaintiffs paid the contractor through the course of 4 this construction project -- forgive me not knowing the 5 exact numbers -- but six hundred some thousand dollars ---

6 THE COURT - Six forty-one, I think, was the 7 number, something like that.

8 MR. HAMILTON - And that fact, I think, is 9 undisputed, and that's the point of the motion here. The 10 contractor, if allowed to have retained the money from the 11 sale of the house after he had already paid six hundred and 12 sixty -- been paid six hundred and sixty thousand dollars,
13 they terminated the contract, had a breach of -- had a
14 dispute, terminated the contract, he turns around and sells
15 the house for -- in my -- in our view ---

16 THE COURT - A profit.

17 MR. HAMILTON - --- arguably more than he would've
18 gotten had he continued the contract with my clients, but 19 at any rate, fully the amount that they had paid, so he has 20 that money in his possession twice. And if we are put on -
21 - once that closing started to occur, if we had not filed
22 the lis pendens that we filed, he would have it in his 23 hands and we have to go chase a judgment for that money.

24 THE COURT - Because he owned the property the 25 whole time.

1 MR. HAMILTON - Because he owns the property, he -
2 - there is no lien on behalf of the -- our clients, the
3 complaint in the case asserts an equitable lien for payment
4 in there (sic), so as we stand here today and as we stood
5 here when we argued this motion before, the contractor has 6 in his possession, even after the money is deposited in the 7 Court, still has that first six hundred and sixty thousand
8 dollars that Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins paid him. The six 9 hundred and thousand dollars (sic) that was put into the 10 clerk of court's office came from the closing the second
11 time the house sold. If -- I think -- I think the one
12 sentence that struck me, I think, strongly about this is 13 that the plaintiff does not have the right to a security
14 for his claim. If he's saying here today that he has no
15 more damages, then the case is over, because he's been paid
16 all the money he was entitled to under our contract, but 17 that's not true. I don't ---

18 THE COURT - I think - I think he's saying that 19 your client has no more damages.

20 MR. HAMILTON - No, I ---

21 THE COURT - But the -- I think that does not 22 comport with the allega - other allegations in the 23 complaint.

1 MR. HAMILTON - Exactly. There are consequential
2 damages, I think, alleged by both parties that go beyond
3 the contract balance itself.

4 THE COURT - Right.

5 MR. HAMILTON - But the contract balance itself is
6 undisputed. They've gotten their money back; Ferrara Buist
7 has gotten the money they were paid for the house. They're 8 all back where they started, and we're arguing now about 9 who caused what because of the breach of contract, but -
10 but I don't think there is a dispute about the fact that he 11 was paid, that the reasons the funds were placed with the 12 clerk of court is it had already been paid once for that
13 work. And to hold the Jenkins' money for that purpose
14 twice was completely inequitable in this circumstance.

15 THE COURT - Okay. I'm going to deny -- deny the 16 motion. I did not -- I did not recite in the Order that I
17 was granting the plaintiff's motion for summary judgment,
18 partial summary judgment, but that's effectively what I did
19 based on the balance -- of the -- of the rights and 20 equities of the parties. I can issue a Form 4 that says I
21 granted partial summary judgment but everybody knew what 22 the arguments were about. Everybody knew what was at 23 issue. The motion dealt, if I remember right, entirely and 24 only with these funds on deposit with the clerk, and I
25 stand by my findings and rulings in the Order with respect

1 to that money, and I, specifically, say that the Court is
2 not ruling upon or granting judgment of any kind as to the 3 claims of either party and makes no determination as to any
4 entitlement to damages due either party. I just -- I say
5 that -- if the money had been paid to the defendant from 6 the proceeds of that sale, it would've been paid twice to 7 that extent, because the loan balance was -- I don't have 8 the numbers in front of me, but the loan balance was six
9 hundred and ---

10 MR. HAMILTON - There was no loan. The Jenkins --

12 THE COURT - I mean the disbursements is what I'm 13 trying to say. The disbursements were six hundred and 14 forty-three thousand seven hundred and sixty dollars and 15 eighty cents, so I -- I deny your motion, and I'll do an 16 Order.

17 MR. FERRARA - Thank you, Your Honor.

18 MR. HAMILTON - Thank you, Judge.

I, Shirley Broom, Official Court Reporter for the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit for the State of South Carolina, do hereby certify that the foregoing 12 pages is a true, accurate and complete Transcript of Record of the proceedings had and the evidence introduced in the proceedings of Alfred Jenkins and Mary Jenkins vs. Ferrara Buist Company, LLC, d/b/a Custom Crafted Homes, as taken by me in The Court of Common Pleas for the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit on February 16, 2017, and provided by me this the 15th day of April, 2017.

I do further certify that I am neither of kin, counsel, nor interest to any party herein.

Shirley Broom, CVR-M
Official Court Reporter,
Certified Verbatim Reporter, In and for the State of South Carolina

1 THE COURT: All right. This is case number 2016-1001,
2 Alfred and Mary Jenkins against Ferrara Buist Construction,
3 LLC -- Company, rather, LLC. Plaintiffs' motion for partial
4 summary judgment. Mr. Hamilton?

5 MR. HAMILTON: May it please the Court. We're here
6 today on what I have called a partial summary judgment,
7 because what I'm asking the Court to deal with is a deposit,
8 a trust deposit, that is in the amount of $663,395.37 and
9 based on the history of this that I'm going to relay to you
10 that is reflected by the affidavits that counsel and I both
11 have filed, we contend that there is no question of fact
12 about what should be done with that trust deposit.

13 THE COURT: This is related to the sale of the house;
14 right?

15 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. HAMILTON: I represent Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins, who 18 signed a contract with Ferrara Buist Construction Company to 19 build a house for them and then sell them the house once it
20 was completed. The title to the property was in Ferrara
21 Buist and stays -- stayed in Ferrara Buist until the house
22 was recently sold.

23 Your Honor, the -- with the addition of change orders,
24 the final contract price for the house for Dr. and Mrs.
25 Jenkins was $881,868.13. There was no mortgage. Dr. and

1 Mrs. Jenkins paid cash out of other funds they had arranged.
2 So that from the time the contract was signed until the
3 issues began to arise between the two parties and the 4 contract was terminated, they paid every pay request that
5 was made on time until the last one that came without equity
6 when the parties ended up in a dispute.

7 They have paid -- the Jenkins have paid $643,760.70.
8 The difference between that number and the amount of the 9 deposit was that they provided some fixtures that they
10 bought and installed in the house, some fixtures and ceiling
11 fans, which would have stayed with the house, so those were 12 improvements to the home that they paid for. In addition,
13 --

14 THE COURT: Outside of what they paid?

15 MR. HAMILTON: Outside of the amount they paid for the 16 construction itself.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 MR. HAMILTON: Although the contract did not have in it
19 any provision for interim partial payments, in fact, that's 20 the way it was handled. They -- the contractor submitted to 21 the Jenkins partial pay requests and the Jenkins paid those 22 on a regular basis without any retention or question up
23 until the end. So when the contract was -- when the dispute
24 arose, --

25 THE COURT: Can I stop you a second?

1 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: I read through this yesterday and we've
3 already got -- we already have money on deposit with the 4 Clerk of Court?

5 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Right?

7 MR. HAMILTON: Right.

8 THE COURT: 663,395.37?

9 MR. HAMILTON: Right. Correct.

10 MR. FERRARA: Yes, Sir.

11 THE COURT: And that was for the release of the -- and 12 the Jenkins paid that in -- no.

13 MR. HAMILTON: No.

14 THE COURT: Yeah. Right. Buist paid that in-

15 MR. HAMILTON: Right.

16 THE COURT: ---to release the lis pendens. Is that 17 right, Mr. Ferrara?

18 MR. HAMILTON: That's correct.

19 MR. FERRARA: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. HAMILTON: We -- when I got involved in the case, I
22 found out that they had paid over $600,000-

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. HAMILTON: ---into this matter. The title was 25 still in the contractor's name. They didn't have a mortgage

1 or a lien. They had no security and were not protected at 2 all. I filed an action at that time to assert an equitable
3 lien on the property by reason of the payments for this
4 construction and filed a lis pendens.

5 THE COURT: Right.

6 MR. HAMILTON: As a result of that, both parties took 7 the position that the other one breached, as is---

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. HAMILTON: ---fairly common in these things, and
10 both agreed that the contract was terminated and Ferrara
11 Buist -- am I saying that right?

12 MR. FERRARA: Buist.

13 MR. HAMILTON: Buist. I should know that.

14 THE COURT: There was a Forrest Buist and it was 15 spelled the same way, once upon a time.

16 MR. HAMILTON: Well, I know -- I know Forrest Buist and

17 --

18 THE COURT: And he was a contractor.

19 MR. FERRARA: He's from Florida, so --

20 MR. HAMILTON: I know a Buist from -- never mind --
21 through my church, but -- where was I?

22 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

23 MR. HAMILTON: When -- oh. Yeah. The contractor, 24 after the contract was terminated, put the house on the 25 market.

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MR. HAMILTON: To their credit and to everybody's
3 advantage, the house sold-

4 THE COURT: Right, for 850,000.

5 MR. HAMILTON: ---for $850,000. So at that point in 6 time where we stood was the eight hundred -- the Jenkins had 7 a contract for $881,868.13. They had paid $643,760.70. As
8 of November of 2015, which was the last date of the last pay
9 application, the contractor indicated that there was 10 $59,260.50 left -- of work left to be done on the original
11 contract. So --

12 THE COURT: All right. Where is that in all this?

13 MR. HAMILTON: That's -- where is that number?

14 THE COURT: Yeah; uh-huh.

15 MR. HAMILTON: It should be -- it's on the pay request
16 that both parties have submitted, the application for the 17 final pay request, which I think was number 12 or something
18 like that. I can put my hand on it if -- it might take me a
19 minute.

20 THE COURT: Is it one of the exhibits attached to your 21 Answer and Counterclaim, Mr. Ferrara?

22 MR. FERRARA: I'm not sure if it is, Your Honor, but I
23 think it's attached to Herb's motion.

24 MR. HAMILTON: I think it's attached to my affidavit.

25 MR. FERRARA: It's attached to his affidavit that was

1 filed with the Court.

2 THE COURT: Bear with me.

3 MR. HAMILTON: It's not in what you just filed?

4 MR. FERRARA: Oh, no.

5 MR. HAMILTON: I'll find it.

6 THE COURT: Herb, I don't believe I have the affidavit.

7 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, if I may, --

8 THE COURT: I do think it's -- there's a sheet attached
9 to your Answer and Counterclaim that looks like what we 10 might be talking about.

11 (WHEREUPON, discussion was conducted off the record
12 between Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Ferrara.)

13 THE COURT: $59,260.50?

14 MR. FERRARA: Yes. Your Honor, may I approach?

15 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

16 MR. FERRARA: Okay. I think this is what Mr. Hamilton
17 was referring to.

18 MR. HAMILTON: That's correct.

19 THE COURT: Oh, that? Okay. I'm sorry.

20 MR. FERRARA: There's a --

21 THE COURT: That's the pay request. It's not --

22 MR. HAMILTON: That's the last pay request that they 23 submitted and what they chose is the state of -- and there's 24 no disagreement about that -- the state of progress at that 25 point in time was they had completed almost --

1 THE COURT: And that was submitted by the contractor?

2 MR. HAMILTON: Contractor. Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Right.

4 MR. HAMILTON: So there was $59,000, plus or minus,
5 left to be done to complete the contract, the original
6 contract for $881,000, at that point in time.

7 THE COURT: Well, let me stop you a second. I'm 8 looking at the pay request. Numbers confuse me. They had 9 -- at the time of this pay request, they had paid
10 643,760.70?

11 MR. FERRARA: Correct.

12 THE COURT: At that time there was -- the contractor
13 claimed an amount due of 178,846.93?

14 MR. FERRARA: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Was that -- that wasn't paid, though;
16 right?

17 MR. HAMILTON: That wasn't paid by--

18 THE COURT: But you're saying--

19 MR. HAMILTON: ---my clients.

20 THE COURT: ---it was covered by the --

21 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: -- the sale?

23 MR. HAMILTON: The sale -- the sale of the house, after 24 the termination of the Jenkins' contract, was for $850,000.

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MR. HAMILTON: The difference -- obviously, the
2 difference in that and the original contract price was
3 $30,000, thereabouts.

4 THE COURT: Uh-huh. So the --

5 MR. HAMILTON: In order to allow the sale to go through 6 and release the lis pendens, we agreed to place the entire
7 amount of payments that had been made by my clients into
8 trust with the Clerk of Court and we did that and the sale
9 went through.

10 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

11 MR. HAMILTON: So it is my position now that the amount
12 of the funds -- where we stood at that time was that the 13 Jenkins had paid everything they were asked up until the 14 point of termination, until that last pay request was filed.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MR. HAMILTON: They -- that covered all the pay
17 requests up until the termination of the contract when there
18 was only $59,000 left to be done, work that was required.

19 THE COURT: But a hundred and -- roughly 179,000 due?

20 MR. HAMILTON: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Claimed at least?

22 MR. HAMILTON: Correct. But that -- those funds, then,
23 were collected when they sold the house, so that the 24 contractor both -- had both the full payment of the amount,
25 of the $850,000, plus the amount that the Jenkins had paid

1 him for the same work. So it's our position that -- the
2 affidavit that counsel filed in opposition to this motion
3 asserts several consequential damage claims and it was just 4 filed recently, but --

5 THE COURT: I don't have either one of your affidavits.
6 Did you email me one? Did you email me one?

7 MR. HAMILTON: We filed these some time ago, ours.

8 THE COURT: I'm sorry. It doesn't matter. Go ahead.
9 I'm following you.

10 MR. HAMILTON: There are consequential damages that 11 both sides have claimed and that's why I called--

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MR. HAMILTON: ---this partial summary judgment. It's 14 our position that he has been paid for everything he was 15 entitled to be paid, had the contract been originally 16 performed, except for the difference between the two 17 contracts, but --

18 THE COURT: What do you mean by the difference between 19 the two contracts?

20 MR. HAMILTON: $881,000 versus 850.

21 THE COURT: The 881 and 850. Okay. All right.

22 MR. HAMILTON: But to get to the 881 - $881,000, they 23 would have to do the additional $59,000 worth of work that
24 was still outstanding that was left to be done.

25 THE COURT: Well, hold on. Let me stop you there. I'm

1 sorry. It looks like that the work done, based on the pay
2 requests, was roughly $822,000.

3 MR. HAMILTON: Correct.

4 THE COURT: So from 850, that'd leave 28.

5 MR. HAMILTON: That's right.

6 THE COURT: But that pre- -- that only assumes that --
7 that's good only if this $59,000 worth of work was not done,
8 'cause that would be added on onto the 822, roughly. Mr.
9 Ferrara, is that right?

10 MR. FERRARA: I --

11 MR. HAMILTON: You lost me.

12 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, if I may, and I didn't want
13 to cut off Mr. Hamilton, but the -- this pay request, just 14 to help clarify, was done back in November of 2015.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MR. FERRARA: And I agree, generally, with what Mr.
17 Hamilton said, however, after this submittal was requested,
18 the 822,607, there were some change orders, as I understand,
19 from my client and I can present this affidavit, Your Honor,
20 for the Court, if you don't have one in the file, that 21 basically made the contract go up to 881 and that's what 22 Herb was referring to.

23 THE COURT: Yeah. Don't confuse me now right yet. Go
24 ahead and let him finish.

25 MR. HAMILTON: I have -- I've talked myself around in

1 circles trying to deal with this math myself and I've tried
2 to simplify it for myself the best I could and I probably
3 just complicated it for everybody else, but it is my 4 position, based on the assertions that counsel has made in
5 the affidavits that were served is that what they are asking
6 the Court to do is to take the money that our -- that was 7 placed in escrow and the reason it was placed in escrow was 8 because they were -- they had already paid that amount of 9 money in to the contractor and those funds have now been 10 recovered by reason of the sale. So they have asserted in 11 their affidavits that there are consequential damages, just 12 like property taxes and various other things that are 13 independent of the completion of the contract itself,---

14 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

15 MR. HAMILTON: ---which we deny, but even assuming 16 that's true, we're not here asking about judgment on those 17 things. What we are saying is they don't have the right to 18 have that money held in trust to secure their claim going
19 forward. They have been paid in full for everything that --
20 for all the work that Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins paid for as it
21 was done and they don't get to recover those things twice.
22 That's what we contend is happening.

23 THE COURT: So what you want is to receive that money
24 that's been paid in?

25 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir, I do and that will not end the

1 case. We both have counterclaims.

2 THE COURT: And then leave the rest of it hanging?

3 MR. HAMILTON: As with any judgment with any case like
4 this that there is:

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Go ahead. Is that it?

6 MR. HAMILTON: I'll stop there before I confuse it any 7 further.

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Paul?

9 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir. May it please the Court. With 10 all due respect, Your Honor, summary judgment should be
11 denied on a breach of contract action and that the question
12 of the intent of the parties and who breached first and 13 that's what we're talking about, that plaintiff claims that 14 my client's breached, my client's claimed the plaintiff
15 breached is a question of fact.

16 THE COURT: I don't -- I don't have any dispute with 17 that.

18 MR. FERRARA: And in that regard, Your Honor, summary
19 judgment should be denied.

20 THE COURT: Well, I don't think that's what he's asking
21 for. I think -- I understand---

22 MR. FERRARA: Oh..

23 THE COURT: ---him to be asking for the release of the 24 money that was deposited with the Clerk to his clients.

25 MR. FERRARA: Right, but in order to do that, Your

1 Honor, respectfully, would require you to grant summary
2 judgment on his clients' claim, because from his clients'
3 perspective, he's saying that we -- we're owed the 643. My 4 client is saying you owe us some more money beside -- out of 5 that 643.

6 I agree with Mr. Hamilton that his clients paid the 7 643, but -- but there's -- associated with the breach of 8 contract is the question of fact about how much does the 9 plaintiff owe the defendant. If the plaintiff breached, how 10 much do they owe? That's a question of fact.

11 THE COURT: Correct. Correct.

12 MR. FERRARA: And that's why I, respectfully, think
13 that Your Honor should deny the motion.

14 THE COURT: Well, how much do you claim?

15 MR. FERRARA: That -- Your Honor, if I may just submit
16 the affidavit of Mr. Ferrara.

17 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm sorry.

18 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: I don't know why -- if I've misplaced it, I
20 apologize. I don't know why I don't have it.

21 MR. FERRARA: This is what he sent me (showing a 22 document to Mr. Hamilton).

23 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, may I approach?

24 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

25 MR. FERRARA: Just in a nutshell, if I could boil it

1 down, I think -- and I spoke -- and I'm speaking candidly,
2 Your Honor. I spoke to Mr. Hamilton to try to see if we
3 could come to an agreement on what the amount of money in 4 dispute is and I think to answer your question directly,
5 Your Honor, it's about $165,000, plus ongoing attorney's
6 fees if my client prevails, but -- and so what I proposed,
7 in order to resolve this, was that Mr. Hamilton and I come
8 up to some number that allows his client to get return of 9 some of those proceeds, even though I think summary judgment
10 should be denied, but just in the interest of justice, to 11 try to move the case along so that his clients can recover
12 some of that money.

13 THE COURT: Well, here -- what I'm thinking is that he 14 may have used -- that the term summary judgment isn't the 15 appropriate thing to apply to all this. You're not -- 16 'cause you're telling me everybody's preserving their 17 claims; right?

18 MR. HAMILTON: Correct.

19 THE COURT: You're not getting judgment on -- as to 20 liability?

21 MR. HAMILTON: No, sir. I'm not asking for that. I
22 mean, that's why I called it partial summary judgment and 23 maybe summary judgment was the--

24 THE COURT: I'm not sure it is.

25 MR. HAMILTON: ---inappropriate term. I don't know

1 what else it would be, but it would be an order of the Court
2 releasing those funds, because it's our position that they
3 have, in fact, been paid for those things which those funds
4 represent, for the work represented by that deposit.

5 THE COURT: And the difference between what has been 6 paid and the 850 is roughly $200,000? You sold the house at 7 850?

8 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: You claim --

10 MR. FERRARA: My client netted -- I did the closing,
11 Your Honor. My client -- I looked back at it today. My 12 client, I think, netted a hundred and forty -- forty-some -- 13 a little over $140,000 and the remaining money went to the 14 Clerk of Court to be in trust and just, if I may, Your 15 Honor, -- sorry, Herb.

16 MR. HAMILTON: Go ahead.

17 MR. FERRARA: In order to accomplish a sale, you know,
18 I called Mr. Hamilton and I proposed the amount of money
19 that his client was claiming to be deposited in trust,
20 because that would be the damages that I thought they would
21 be happy with, you know, in the event that they prevail,
22 they get the 643. Obviously, my client has damages
23 associated with the same breach of contract and they're less
24 than that and so I took the position that it would be less
25 and just for today's purposes, Your Honor, I'll represent to

1 you that my client would be amenable to -- and I need to
2 double-check the math, but I believe around $210,000 -- all
3 but $210,000 my client would be amenable to. The difference
4 between the six -- the money in -- with the Court and two --
5 $210,000 could be returned to -- because that would give my
6 client -- my client's seeking about $160,000 of damages
7 associated with the breach, plus, I thought, the $50,000
8 buffer is more than enough for attorney's fees and there --
9 I agree with Mr. Hamilton, there's not a dispute about 10 anything over and above that, but I do think that,
11 obviously, with the consent, the Court can do it, but I
12 think without consent the issue is effectively granting 13 summary judgment for one party or another in one way, shape
14 or form and I, respectfully, think that that would be 15 inappropriate.

16 THE COURT: I think that -- have a seat.

17 MR. FERRARA: Okay.

18 THE COURT: I think that, if I understand what Mr.
19 Hamilton's asking for, the term summary judgment is not
20 appropriate. It's more to me -- it sounds more to me like a
21 request that in -- and this sounds like Charleston -- in 22 equity. It's no longer appropriate that the 643,000 be held
23 in escrow, because in a typical case, -- in a typical case,
24 you folks would be here and neither of you would have a fund
25 set aside from which to collect and I don't know that it --

1 given the way this developed and given that Mr. -- that the
2 defendant has realized a significant portion of the 3 difference between what they've paid in and what the 4 property was sold for, as being roughly $200,000, 208,000 --
5 no -- $207,000, I guess. It doesn't seem to me like it is 6 equitable for -- to sustain a fund from which somebody could
7 collect. I do not think he's entitled to summary judgment.
8 That's not what we're talking about.

9 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: We got a fund that, by agreement, was set
11 aside in order that the property could be sold. There isn't 12 any dispute that the plaintiffs paid in this money that's in 13 escrow in order -- and it seems to me that, certainly, if 14 they are -- if that money is released to them, that doesn't 15 impair -- it doesn't impair the defendant's ability to 16 collect a judgment against them and there is -- and the 17 plaintiffs -- I don't remember the rest of your claim. I
18 don't know what else is -- I haven't read the contract.
19 Does the contract provide attorney's fees to the winner?

20 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir.

21 MR. HAMILTON: Well, and that, of course, is a matter
22 of contention, too, whether they get attorney's fees or we 23 get them, but--

24 THE COURT: That's right. That's right. Sure.

25 MR. HAMILTON: ---our position about the return of this

1 fund of money is based -- I can make the argument -- based
2 on the assumption that they get all their consequential
3 damages. They still have to prove their damages--

4 THE COURT: Sure.

5 MR. HAMILTON: ---and I'm going to -- if you include
6 the $643,000 that we paid in with the sale proceeds, they've
7 collected over a million dollars worth of money for a
8 $881,000 contract.

9 THE COURT: Now, that math I don't understand.

10 MR. HAMILTON: $881,000 plus--

11 MR. FERRARA: The 643?

12 MR. HAMILTON: ---643, which we paid.

13 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, if I might --

14 THE COURT: Which he doesn't have, though. They hadn't
15 collected it. It's set aside.

16 MR. HAMILTON: No. They -- no. They had --

17 THE COURT: Well, they had it and put it back.

18 MR. HAMILTON: They had it and that's why it was set
19 aside, because they already had it.

20 THE COURT: And coughed it up. Yeah. Okay. Yes, sir?

21 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, I do have the settlement
22 statement from the closing. It has the net number, which is 23 different.

24 THE COURT: That is attached to -- it is attached.

25 MR. FERRARA: Oh, it is? Okay.

1 THE COURT: Yeah. Well, at least part of it. The
2 front page -- yeah, it is. The whole thing is.

3 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, as a testament to your age
4 and wisdom, the settlement -- the Real Estate Settlement
5 Procedure Act changed and now the settlement statement's
6 even more confusing than when you were, you know, assisting
7 with transactions, but this Exhibit A, I think, Your Honor,
8 the Seller Transaction--

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 MR. FERRARA: ---shows Ferrara Buist gets 798.

11 THE COURT: Seven hundred --

12 MR. FERRARA: Right.

13 THE COURT: Uh-huh. Uh-huh.

14 MR. FERRARA: And so, Your Honor, the affidavit that's 15 filed and we haven't fully conducted discovery and my client
16 has filed an affidavit with the Court claiming $881,000 of 17 damage or, excuse me, contract damages, plus those 18 additional damages and I haven't done the math, but I just 19 wanted to be clear that Ferrara Buist did not receive the 20 full amount of -- Ferrara Buist still today, this day, has 21 not received all proceeds that would be due and owing under 22 the contract, because the amounts of money that were 23 disbursed, as I represented to you, Your Honor, after 24 closing costs were a hundred -- a little over $140,000 to 25 Ferrara Buist and so Ferrara Buist, just to be clear,

1 received 140,000 out of this 800.

2 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

3 MR. FERRARA: The Clerk of Court received the 4 remainder.

5 THE COURT: I understand.

6 MR. FERRARA: Okay. And then so Ferrara Buist, if
7 we're adding those numbers, Your Honor, has received 140
8 plus the 643. Is that right? Yeah. That's close.

9 THE COURT: The payouts,---

10 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: ---the one I'm looking -- the last one was 12 payout number 6, looks like, each of those, I assume, based 13 on the contract, included an amount of profit. Does the 14 contract say what the payouts include?

15 MR. FERRARA: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: So what are the payouts based on?

17 MR. FERRARA: It shows -- well, I --

18 THE COURT: Would this have had documents attached to 19 it or not?

20 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir, and I apologize. I wasn't
21 trying to mislead the Court. I was just saying I don't 22 know--

23 THE COURT: You're not.

24 MR. FERRARA: ---that the profit is delineated, but the 25 line items, yes, are delineated in the contract on all those

1 different -- and I have it, Your Honor, it's real hard to
2 read, but all of the different -- in fact, Your Honor, I
3 think this is a page that would be attached that details the 4 881.

5 THE COURT: I know I'm thinking too hard,---

6 MR. FERRARA: It's hard to read.

7 THE COURT: ---but numbers confuse me.

8 MR. FERRARA: Oh, yeah. Very briefly, --

9 THE COURT: It's based on scheduled value?

10 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir. Just, if I might, very 11 quickly, Your Honor, speak to fairness. If we're -- if Mr.
12 Hamilton's motion is in the interest of equity or fairness
13 or justice, maybe ex parte Dibble, I think that the amount
14 of money, if the Court's so inclined to grant that relief,
15 the calculation should be the 881,868 minus the monies
16 received, because I don't believe, Your Honor, that -- I
17 believe what these two amounts -- the 178 and the 59, Your 18 Honor, I think that would be, like a total of two hundred 19 and --

20 THE COURT: Well, --

21 MR. FERRARA: -- two hundred and some odd thousand that 22 Ferrara Buist was expecting to get through -- and they only 23 received 140 out of the closing and the remaining went to 24 the Clerk.

25 THE COURT: That -- the problem is that the defendant,

1 up to the point of these folks parting ways, up to the point
2 of payout number 6, had presumably recouped everything they
3 had paid to build this house to that point, except for the 4 178,000 that was the pay request.

5 MR. FERRARA: And, additionally, Your Honor, there was 6 ten percent retainage at the end, which is that 59,000 on 7 Exhibit B that is standard in the industry that the 8 contractor --

9 THE COURT: Oh. That says balance to finish, plus 10 retainage.

11 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: So that is entirely retainage?

13 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir. That -- no, that's the amount
14 of money that the Jenkins would owe. So to be clear, Your 15 Honor, in this situation when the Jenkins said we don't want
16 you to finish or we're done, they actually had two hundred 17 and thirty-some odd thousand dollars left under that 18 contract.

19 THE COURT: To pay?

20 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Of which the defendant has, in terms of 22 just the contract, of which the defendant has recouped all
23 but $31,868?

24 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, I haven't done the math, but
25 I think that it's a little more than that, because I know

1 that the defendant received, and I can get the exact
2 numbers, Your Honor, around $140,000.

3 THE COURT: No. That's not what I'm saying.

4 MR. FERRARA: No? Okay. I apologize.

5 THE COURT: What I'm saying is from the -- just based 6 on the construction contract, the --

7 MR. FERRARA: Oh. Yes, sir. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: -- the defendant recouped all but 9 $31,868.13 of what it claimed it had in the house.

10 MR. FERRARA: It did, Your Honor, but I --

11 THE COURT: Now, I understand -- I understand the real
12 estate commission now and all that kind of stuff as lying 13 out there, but the defendant recouped all but $31,686.13.

14 Now, if the defendant's entitled to some more -- some 15 consequential damages, that may or may not ultimately be 16 added to that, but they recouped all but roughly $32,000.

17 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, respectfully, if my client
18 wanted me to file -- asked me to file a motion to recover
19 the 643, because now the Jenkins -- because it's not fair
20 that the Jenkins hold the money, I don't think that would be 21 fair and in the interest of justice, just like I don't think
22 -- I think, in all due -- with all due respect, it's better
23 that the Clerk hold the money unless we can agree to some 24 amount of money that's not in dispute. Otherwise, any 25 ruling by Your Honor is effective -- I know that it's

1 subject to change, but in the short -- in the short run,
2 Your Honor, it appears to be a judgment.

3 THE COURT: I'm not going to grant a judgment. What
4 I'm going to do is, the contract as recouped, contract --
5 comparing the contracts, all but 31,868.13 of the money the 6 contractor claims, Ferrara Buist -- how did you say it?

7 MR. FERRARA: Buist.

8 MR. HAMILTON: Buist.

9 THE COURT: Buist.

10 MR. FERRARA: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Okay. They recovered all but that. I'm 12 going to order the Clerk of Court to release to the 13 plaintiffs 643,760.70 minus 31,868.13 and that 31,000 can 14 remain in escrow, pending the outcome of the rest of the 15 case. The contractors have been paid.

16 It isn't summary judgment, because I'm not deciding the 17 liability issues that both of you still have, but the 18 contractor has been paid, except for $31,868.

19 MR. FERRARA: Your Honor, with all due respect, may I
20 respond to that?

21 THE COURT: Well, you can, but that's going to be my
22 order.

23 MR. FERRARA: Sure. I understand, but in order to make
24 that order, Your Honor, you're presupposing that the damage
25 -- that the contract terms that say that if one party

1 breaches or another party breaches, there's damages that
2 flow from that,---

3 THE COURT: Yeah.

4 MR. FERRARA: ---you're presupposing those damages.

5 THE COURT: No.

6 MR. FERRARA: You're leaving those open to be decided?

7 THE COURT: Your client has been paid all but $32,000.
8 The rest of it is -- while there may be some -- while the 9 claim may be based on contract law, it's got nothing to do
10 with what these people -- your guy's been paid everything 11 he's due except $32,000, subject to your claims and his 12 claims, their claims. That's my order.

13 MR. FERRARA: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: So you need to do me an order in Word
15 format and email it with a copy to Mr. Ferrara and we'll go
16 from there.

17 Now, you need this back, Paul?

18 MR. FERRARA: I may, Sir.

19 THE COURT: And, well, let's -- back on. Don't couch
20 it in terms -- I'm not granting anybody summary judgment,
21 but --

22 MR. HAMILTON: Right.

23 THE COURT: Literally, it's based upon the equities of 24 the parties.

25 MR. HAMILTON: I know, Sir.

1 THE COURT: It isn't fair to -- yeah, the equities of
2 the parties. I don't know how to express that. When you
3 send an order, I'll figure it out.

4 MR. HAMILTON: Well, they've had the use of this money
5 since our people paid it and we have not had the use of any 6 of it.

7 THE COURT: Well, I understand, but you do the order
8 and I'll tweak it, as I always do, like I need -- when I
9 think I need to.

10 MR. HAMILTON: Okay. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

RE: Alfred and Mary Jenkins
Our File No.: 11848-001

Dear Paul:

Now that the house has been sold, we need to consider whether it makes sense for either party to continue this litigation. Both parties contend that the contract was breached by the other party. From my review of the file material, including emails and other communication from the contractor, I believe we will be able to show that Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins did everything that was required of them and that the contractor failed to build the home as required by the plans and specifications, building codes and accepted industry practice.

Now that Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins have received reimbursement of the payments to the contractor, they will be able to show consequential damages exceeding $30,000, not including attorneys' fees. The successful party is entitled to recover attorneys' fees which will surely exceed $50,000 if the litigation continues.

While Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins are confident in their legal position, they understand the time and effort involved in pursuing their claim. In order to put this behind them and in the spirit of cooperation and compromise, they are prepared to drop their claim against Ferrara Buist if Ferrara Buist will drop any claim they may have against them.

Please let me know as soon as possible if Ferrara Buist is willing to drop their claim. While we are considering this proposal, I would like to request a 30-day extension of time to respond to discovery.

Yours very truly,
