Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter responds to a number of letters I received from the Clerk's office via email on November 21, 2017 after my client Christopher Holcombe filed a pro se appeal. You asked for a proof of service that Mr. Holcombe's November 16, 2017 letter, which was construed as a petition for writ of supersedeas, was served on Windy Hill's attorney. That proof of service is enclosed for filing. Next, I did not notice a proof of service for Mr. Holcombe's notice of appeal. He had prepared one and I have enclosed it for filing along with a copy of the certified mail receipt showing that he sent it. Finally, enclosed is a letter that Mr. Holcombe is sending to the court reporter to request a transcript of the circuit court hearing that resulted in the order being appealed.

Sincerely,

Mark Fessler
Staff Attorney
