Re: The State vs. Monroe Kenneth Jackson
Appellate Case No.: 2017-002400

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I am in receipt of your letter dated November 28, 2017 in connection with the above-referenced case. Pursuant to Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, Appellant contends under this Appeal that the State of South Carolina did not set forth a sufficient factual basis to support his plea agreement in that the elements of the underlying charge were not adequately established and thus did not rise to the judicial standard required. Also, Appellant believes that the Court did not sufficiently articulate all the rights afforded him by the United State Constitution prior to entering the guilty plea in that there was merely a cursory survey of said rights rather than an exhaustive discussion thereof. Accordingly, Appellant appeals his convictions from the sentence imposed thereafter.

This timely letter is being forwarded to you within the ten (10) day set forth. Please call if this is not sufficient or if you have any questions.

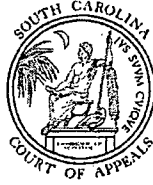

Yours very truly,

Kenneth B. Massey
