Re: Wells Fargo Bank v. Alice Roseboro
Appellate Case No. 2017-002490

Dear Ms. Roseboro:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and must be corrected in their entirety within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- The copies of the orders you have included with your notice of appeal do not reflect the caption that you have used on your notice of appeal. You must provide a copy of any order that has been issued by the circuit court showing the complete caption for this matter.
- You must serve and file an amended notice of appeal that includes the date you received notice from the York County Clerk's Office that the orders you are appealing were filed with the clerk.
- You must serve and file an amended proof of service for the amended notice of appeal that clearly identifies which attorneys represent each party in the appeal and reflects that the notice of appeal and the amended notice of appeal have been filed with York County. The proof of service that you have already provided does not show who these attorneys actually represent and does not show that a copy of the notice of appeal was filed with York County Clerk's Office.

- You are advised that the service of the amended notice of appeal does not affect the deadline for ordering the transcript, as set forth in Rule 207, SCACR. Failure to timely order the transcript from the court reporter can result in the dismissal of the appeal.

Very truly yours,

V. Elaine Allen, Deputy

CLERK
