SC Court of Appeals

Dear To Whom this May Concern,

I received a letter from my lawyer informing me that my appeal had been filed. The case number "Appellate Case No. 2012-21262". That has been almost 3 months ago & I'm very curious & a little worried about why I haven't heard anything about this case since then.

From what I was told by my lawyer then, that I would be assigned an appellate lawyer who should be contacting me 30-60 days from the time the appeal was filed. As I stated it's been over 3 months since the appeal was filed & I haven't heard anything. Can someone please tell me what is going on? If I have been assigned an appellate lawyer already & if so how to contact him/her & who the lawyer is? Thank you in advance for your time & help.

Respectfully,
Noel J. [Signature]
