

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Allen Spearman, Appellant,

v.

The Estate of Pearl McClam, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2016-001876

ORDER

Appellant filed a pro se notice of appeal on September 12, 2016. Appellant's trial counsel indicated he received written notice of the underlying orders on February 19, 2015, and April 16, 2015. Although this court has required Appellant to provide proof that he timely served Respondent with the notice of appeal, Appellant has failed to do so. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. See Rule 203(a), SCACR (providing in an appeal from the court of common pleas the notice of appeal must be served on all parties within thirty days of receipt of written notice of entry of the underlying order); Rule 203(d), SCACR (providing the notice of appeal must be filed within ten days of the date the notice of appeal is served); Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 337 S.E.2d 206 (1985) (explaining timely service of the notice of appeal is a jurisdictional requirement, and the appellate courts have no authority to extend the time for serving the notice of appeal).
