

My name is Brandon Harris I pled guilty to an attempted Armed Robbery on August 22, 2017. I didnt know about the law I only pled guilty because I was told I would get on probation. Im not guilty of this charge the evidence even show that, thats why Im asking for an appeal.

The camera video doesnt show me with any gun or show us trying to rob anybody. I walked to one side of the car and my co-defendant went to the other side where the girl was, I heard her scream and I ran the video shows all that. Having time to sit and think about all that happened that night I shouldnt of ran.

The other evidence was he had on a mask and I didnt have one on. Also the phone that was used to contact the victims was his phone he lied and said it was mines. He also said the car was mines and also lied about that.

I was 19 years old when it happened I turned myself in and got out on Bond. I was out for a year and 6 months, I had found a job and got into college. I feel like Honorable Early gave me too much time thats why Im putting in for this appeal to get this 7 years down or get put on probation so I can stay in college I'll be glad if yall look into my case and try to change my sentence because I didnt know he was going to rob them. I feel like Judge Early gave me this time without looking into all the evidence he said hands of one hands of all I know thats a law but thats not right in my case because I didnt know he was going to do that. It would be a blessing if yall could change my 7 years sentence to 0-5 years or I get time served and get put on probation. If yall dont see that Im innocent can yall change it so I can go up for parole in 2 years or change 7 years violent to non-violent.

Sincerely,
Brandon T. Harris
