Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I write in response to your November 29, 2017 letter requesting an update on the transcripts in this proceeding. I wrote on September 21, 2017, within ten (10) days of the filing of the Notice of Appeal herein, to confirm that two of the three transcripts had been previously received, and that we had been previously advised by Court Administration that the third transcript could no longer be produced. Copies of my letters confirming that are enclosed.

Both of these letters were copied to all parties, Court Administration and the Court of Appeals, but do not appear to have been made a part of the file available through C-track.

Because all available transcripts have been received prior the Court's deciding that the appeal would proceed, and all deadlines were stayed during the time the Court had that matter under consideration, it appears that our initial brief should be filed within thirty (30) days of your letter, or December 29, 2017. Please advise if that is incorrect.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Adam T. Silvernail

Dear Ms. Holmes:

I represent Appellant Adele J. Pope in the above-referenced appeal. I understand that you were the Court Reporter for the following hearings held in Richland County before the Honorable L. Casey Manning:

1. August 30, 2010 and
2. April 12, 2012.

We have previously ordered and received the August 30, 2010 transcript, and I understand from Court Administration that the April 12, 2012 transcript cannot now be produced because of the passage of time. If that is the case, we do not require any further transcripts from you.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. Note that you received a similar letter from me in July, but this subsequent appeal requires us to make the same record. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Adam T. Silvernail
