SC Court of Appeals

RE: Clarence Sampson v. SCDC
Case # 2012-206766

I Received a Copy of a Correspondence written by General Counsel Attorney for defendants IN THE ABOVE Case Requesting a Copy of The Records Regarding The ABOVE Case so That They may file a ~~Final~~ Final Brief. This Request was made due to The Fact That Appellant's Appeal was Reinstated by order Dated 11-9-12. The Clerk also advised both parties That There were a 20 day deadline To have our Final Briefs submitted. [SEE Correspondence by clerk Attached] I would like it To be known ON Record That I've made several Attempts To Get Copies of The Record but was Told by The Clerk That I would have To Pay a fee [See Attached document Labeled "Document Two"]

I have sent a Request for the documents (Case files) under the Freedom of Information Act to the Clerk along with financial statement from SCDC verifying that I am indigent and can not pay a fee. Therefore by submitting this memorandum I am seeking fundamental fairness and to be ensured that I am given the same opportunity to file a proper final brief as General Counsel Attorney for defendants. I should be sent a copy of case file # 2018-206766 so that I may file my final brief.

Thank you

Respectfully

Submitted.
