Re: The State v. Keenan J. Miller
Appellate Case No. 2017-002427

Dear Mr. Miller:

Upon reviewing your correspondence attempting to correct the deficiencies listed in the Court's letter dated December 8, 2017, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or this appeal will be dismissed. :

- The accompanying proof of service is not in compliance with the SCACR. Your proof of service should be substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Specifically, the proof of service does not list the date that the notice of appeal was served upon all parties.
- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by a copy of the correct order(s) and/or sentencing sheet(s) challenged on appeal. The document filed includes a sentencing sheet with an indictment number that was not listed on the notice of appeal. Please provide orders and/or sentencing sheets that reflect the correct indictments you are attempting to appeal.
- You must include an explanation as to why you are attempting to appeal indictment number 2016-GS-46-03770, as this indictment number as listed as "not guilty" in the public index search for York County.

Very truly yours,
