MOTION TO COMPEL
DISCOVERY REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS AND VIDEO TAPE. FED RULE 37 (A)
(3) SC.

I Hereby state the specific grounds; I certify that a good faith effort has been made to resolve the dispute before coming to court. And the documents and tangible things fall within the general scope of discovery. SC. FED, RULE 37 (A) (3) The federal rule provides that a motion to compel discovery or for sanction may be brought either in the court where the action is pending or on matters relating to a deposition in progress. As ground joseph Dunbar Attorney Mr. Brunson was asked to produce deposition and recorded statements of the alleged victims and witness that testify in his trial. Mr. Brunson came to court and testified that he investigated. Cobbs v. state Defense counsel testified that he never attempted to contact the prosecuting witness. (PCR) The convictions were vacated and a new trial granted. We affirm the findings of the PCR court. I am asking the court to compel MR. Brunson produce the documents of victim and witness deposition, or give joseph Dunbar a new hearing.

Respectfully submitted joseph W. Dunbar Jr.
