Re: Seeahray Brailsford v. Piggly Wiggly
Appellate Case No. 2017-001027

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your "brief of appellant," which the Court has construed as an attempted record on appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed. The deficiencies listed relate only to the format of the record on appeal. The deficiencies are as follows:

- The binding does not comply with Rule 267(d), SCACR. Specifically, the cover "shall be of material not less than 50 pound weight and not glassine."
- The document is improperly paginated. Specifically, the pages of the record on appeal are not consecutively numbered.
- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the document is incorrectly titled, "Brief of Appellant." Also, the caption must match that given in the Court's letter of April 27, 2017. Please see the attached copy of that letter.
- The document is not accompanied by the required certificate of counsel.

- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- The document does not include an index required by Rule 210, SCACR.
- The document includes the designation of matter, which cannot be accepted as part of your record on appeal.
- You must serve and file an amended record on appeal within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
