Re: Glenda Couram v Sherwood Tidwell
Case No.: 2017-002145

RECEIVED

DEC 28 2017

SC Court of Appeals

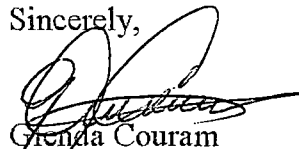

To Whom It Concerns:

Enclosed is the $100 filing fee as required to file an Appeal in this Court. The court denied my request and documentation of proof of indigence and allowed time to obtain the filing fee by January 2, 2017 with follow up Order dated December 14, 2017 I received on December 24, 2017.

I have filed a Rule 60 Motion to the Common Pleas Court. I have also sent a letter to the Administration and the court transcriber who has not responded to my request on court. I also asked the defense counsel if the transcript was necessary she maintain it is necessary to file an answer to the Appeal. I will keep the court updated as to when I will have the funds to file the appeal at this time I remain unemployed.

The money is sent in the form of a money order to the Court of Appeals.

Sincerely,

Glenda Couram
