Now comes counsel for the Women's and Children's Advocacy Project (WCAP) pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 404, and hereby moves for admission to practice law in South Carolina for the limited purpose of seeking leave to file an amicus brief in this matter. Under Rule 404(3), Movant has previously submitted an application for admission, along with the requisite fee, to the South Carolina Supreme Court Office of Bar Admissions.

In support thereof, WCAP submits that this request for admission is limited and that WCAP will not be compensated in any manner. WCAP prepares and submits amicus briefs around the country, without compensation, in cases where the interests of abused women and children are at issue.

Movant further states that said amicus brief is being filed this day with this Court, along with a motion for leave to file.

Counsel of record in this matter are: McLeod Law Group, LLC, W. Mullins McLeod, Jr., Jacqueline LaPan Edgerton, P.O. Box 21624, Charleston, South Carolina 29413, and M. Dawes Cooke, Jr., Randall C. Stoney, John Fletcher, Barnwell Whaley Patterson & Helms, LLC, 288 Meeting Street, Charleston, SC 29401.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, counsel for the WCAP respectfully requests that this Court grant her motion for admission pro hac vice

Respectfully submitted,

Counsel for amicus,
