Also, don't forget, Judge Miller never ruled on my first 59(e) motion. So, there's that.

I received a notice of appeal today undated and with no cover letter. In any event it is untimely. Blackwell had 10 days to file his motion to reconsider to stay his appeal. He filed it way later than that. The court ruled on it, but I don't think the time to appeal is stayed based on an untimely motion.

When we receive verification this has been filed with the court of appeals we will move to dismiss and try to short circuit the cumbersome and lengthy appellate process we operate under.

Thanks and Merry Christmas,

Amy
