VS. Defendant
Alice L. P. Sedor

Subject: Obstruction of Justice ON CASE NO: 2012-CP-461328 / DOJ NO: 2971532
Motion previously sent to Appeals

Writ of Assistance from Oct 19, 2017 and Underfiled court entry on Nov 9, 2017 for unjust eviction.

To The Courts
DEAF Clerk OF County Do to A Hindrance

Created in filing my Appeals from Feb 20, 2014 to the Appeals Court, and being signed case No: 2014-000346 on this Same foreclosure matter for Writ of Assistance filed on Case No: 2012-CP-461328

I will not be able to pursue this writ of Assistance Order at the Appeals level, as I j. Date and Obstruction of Justice was Blocked out of my Account in 2014 AFTER I proved in the filing of my Initial Brief <sup>Exhibits</sup> on 3/28/14 on my next Day in the

SC Appeals Court proving with the Support of Amanda Weatherly's Affidavit

under her sworn Oath taken 07/29/13 for Court entry 8/15/13 with the New

Order of Reference and a Summary

Judgment for Court entry as well

 only Attorney assigned name THOMAS

 Andrew A Powell and a later consent signing with Robert P. Davis that took place Dec 28, 2012 for consent on JAN 02, 2013 approved by Judge Lee A. Ford to the courts After all of this with No Reply to me. Even on my 1st Appeal I sent on Feb 23, 2014, I then remember I was blocked out of my Account at the Appeals level on 4/15/14. I discovered on 04/28/14 at the Local Library, to continue I had to 2007" on the Library side, but later was given proof sent that the Disclaimer was True but Dated April 15, 2014 on the Appeals Court side as and Inactive 12-13-16 court records show

On Dec 6, 2017 I was unjustly evicted and my belongings thrown outside for all to see on the ground from a March, 2017 sale back to Wells Fargo Bank at the courthouse, despite making my objections known to the court and all in attendance on 3/6/17, voicing my right to free speech and filing and objection with the Sheriff

Office of Kelvin Tokans as required by the

SC Foreclosure Laws, I read on 3/11/17

Then filing afterwards my objections was not accepted by the Sheriff Office either creating another hindrance, as his office and General Council Heather Marzon returns my files by mail back to me, violating the

Visions Mission Statement the Sheriff Office are supposed to live by and honor in regards to all citizens they claim to protect (I am a citizen too)

In Conclusion,

Dear Alice Roseboro:

We received your submission and will review it as soon as possible to determine if it involves a Federal consumer financial law within our authority.

Depending on what we find, we will either:

- Send your complaint to the company for a response; or
- Send your complaint to the appropriate regulator or help you get in touch with your state and local consumer protection office if your complaint is not within our authority; or
- Let you know if we need more information to continue our work.

While we can't give legal advice or represent individuals in legal matters, if you want more help you can contact a private attorney or your local legal aid office for free or low-cost legal resources at www.lsc.gov.

You can register to track the status of your submission at:
<https://help.consumerfinance.gov/app/account/complaints/list>.

New CFPB mortgage rules protect borrowers and make it easier for them to get the help they need. Submitting a complaint won't automatically stop or delay foreclosure, but if you're behind on your mortgage, or having a hard time making payments, call us at (855) 411-CFPB (2372). We can help you find a housing counselor in your area who can develop a plan of action for your situation and help you work with your mortgage company. Foreclosure prevention help is free and special assistance may be available to military members or veterans. You can find more information on mortgages at:
