Dear Ms. Allen,

I am in receipt of your letter of January 10, 2018. I believe you are in error about my neglecting to enclose a $25.00 filing fee, but I fear I may have created the confusion in an effort to avoid confusion. On January 7th, I mailed two pleadings to the Court in separate envelopes:

- 1) A Motion for leave to file the Record on Appeal five days out of time, and
- 2) A Return to the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss.

I put each pleading in a separate envelope, and I enclosed our firm's check, #18150, dated January 2, 2018, in the amount of $25.00 with the motion for leave to file out-of-time (copy of this check enclosed). Your office has already provided me with a clocked copy of the Return to Respondent's Motion to Dismiss (clocked in January 9th), but not a copy of the Motion to file out of time. I suspect, therefore, that the second envelope is lagging behind the first in your mail room. In an abundance of caution, I am enclosing another check, but I suspect that by the time this letter reaches you, your office will have opened the second envelope and found the original check, #18150. If I am wrong, then the enclosed check cures the deficiency, but if I am right, you can return this check to me in the envelope provided. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Belk, Cobb, Infinger & Goldstein, P.A.

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I enclose an original and seven copies of a Motion for Leave to File the Record on Appeal Out of Time and a Return to respondent's Motion to Dismiss. I also enclose a certificate of service and our firm's check in the amount of $25.00 to cover the filing fee for the Motion. Would you be so kind as to file the original and return one copy of each marked filed in the envelope provided? By copy of this letter I am providing a copy to opposing counsel. With kind regards, I am
