Re: The State v. Kevin McDaniels – Appellate Case No. 2018-000070

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

We have received notification of the notice of intent to appeal for the above-captioned case. This is an appeal from an order denying credit for jail time. The order states that “due to the circumstances surrounding the reduced plea and lack of information or explanation of the negotiations, the Court lacks confidence to not interfere with the original intent of the parties.” This is not an appeal that can be handled by our office. If Mr. McDaniels alleges he is illegal incarcerated his remedy would be an action for a writ of habeas corpus in the Seventh Circuit.

Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender
