Dear Mr. Mollins:

We are in receipt of the notice of appeal filing fee which you have provided this office in the form of a one-hundred dollar ($100.00) money order. This money order has been made out to the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services. Therefore, we are unable to deposit this money order, and it is being returned to you along with this letter. If a check or money order is provided for a filing fee, it must be made payable to the South Carolina Court of Appeals. Very truly yours,
