AFFIDAVIT

VS

Rickey Waddell Wilson

On Sunday May 22, 2016, shortly before noon officers of the Myrtle Beach Police Department were dispatched to 1401 S. Ocean Blvd (The Rodeway Inn) room 211, within the city limits of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina in reference to a report of a deceased person. At the time of arrival, through preliminary investigation police determined that the deceased had severe blunt force trauma and there were signs of a struggle within the room. Subsequent examination of the deceased confirmed blunt force injuries and it has been determined that the decedent died as a result of these injuries sustained and is hereby a murdered victim. Through investigation police were able to develop a person of interest who is identified as a defendant, Ricky Waddell Wilson. It has been learned that the defendant was with the victim at the time she checked into the motel 2 days prior (05/20/2016) to her being discovered and he has been the only visitor noted to visit the victim. The defendant was interviewed by police detectives and he gave misinformation about his presence at the victim's room. The defendant's statement is disputed by video surveillance evidence, as well as eyewitness statements. Through investigation and video surveillance police were able to track the defendant before he arrived at the victim's room, as well as his suspicious behavior after having left the victim's room. Police detectives also noted that while talking with the defendant, they could see physical evidence that is believed to be linked back to the crime scene. This evidence was seized, pursuant to a search warrant, and a presumptive test, conducted by The Myrtle Beach Police Department Crime Scene Unit, was positive for the presence of blood. An interview of evidence from the murder scene noted a personal article that was in possession of the defendant prior to his arrival at the victim's room, and it was left behind after the victim was murdered. Based on the aforementioned facts, there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has, with malice aforethought, committed the offense of Murder, §16-3-10.
