Dear Ms. Welzig,

In answer to your question, Mr. McCarty's request does not affect the date Mr. Lyles' initial brief is due. The appeals are two separate documents. Mr. Lyles may file a motion for extension of time if he would like to do so.

Thank you very much ,

Diane Greene

Subject: Fwd: Jeffords Appeal - Case No. 2012-213351

Dear Ms. Greene,

Attached is the December 3rd letter regarding the time for service, along with Mr. McCarty's Motion for Extension of Time. Mr. McCarty filed his appeal after Mr. Lyles. My question is: Does Mr. McCarty's request for extension also effect the date Mr. Lyles' initial brief is due? Thank you for your assistance. I do hope you feel better soon.

Sincerely,

--
