RE: Athan Fokas v. Phillip Ferderigos, Jacob Ferderigos and Spiros Ferderigos
 Case No. 2015-CP-10-3919
 Appellate Case Nos. 2017-002370
 2017-002032
 2017-002034

Dear Ms Kitchings:

Please allow this correspondence to serve as Appellant, Athan Fokas' Second Request for an Extension of Time in Which to File the Initial Brief of Appellant in Appeal No. 2017-002370 pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, which is currently due on February 2, 2018. By this request, Appellant is asking for an addition 30 day extension. A grant of this request would require service of the Initial Brief of Appellant on or before March 5, 2018. This request is a companion request to that shortly to be filed by the opposing parties, who are pursuing appeals arising in the same case, Appellate Case No. 2017-002032 and 000234. Attached is a copy of opposing counsel's email confirming their request and consent to having the due dates for initial briefs in both appeals extended for 30 days. This should smooth consolidation of all the appeals which involve essentially the same record and transcript. Please find enclosed my check in the amount of Twenty-five and No/100 ($25.00) Dollars representing the fee for this request.

By copy of this letter, I am notifying all counsel of record of this request. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

With kindest regards, I remain

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Stan Barnett", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

They are good with it being by letter so long as they get their $25. Make sure to mention that everyone consents.

Someone shoot me the appeal tracking number and I'll do it. It's better coming from an attorney than an assistant.

Would one of you please call whichever deputy clerk is assigned to this case and ask very nicely if we can just request it via letters with $25 each or whether we have to actually file a motion?

Thanks.

Andy,

I would be appreciative of the same extension on behalf of Phillip.

Thank you,

I'm fine with that so long as everyone is asking for the same extension. Otherwise it gets too complicated trying to respond.

I have no problem with that but will defer to Andy Haselden who will be handling the appeals for Athan. I will follow up with a call to Andy also.

Stan, I hope this e-mail finds you doing well, and I hope 2018 has been off to a great start for you. I'm writing to you regarding the initial briefs coming due in the breach of contract appeal. Our briefs are currently due February 2, 2018. Dawes started a multi-week federal court trial today that is expected to go through the end of January and then has a bar convention to start February. Additionally, my wife is due with our first child at the end of February, but due to some complications, the specialists anticipate she will likely be induced at the end of this month or beginning of February depending on how her visits go over the next couple weeks. For these reasons, I'm writing you to see if you will consent to a 30 day extension of time to file our initial brief and designation of matters to be included on the record on appeal, which would make our initial brief due on or before March 5, 2018. As always, we would consent to the same extension to serve your initial brief and designation of matters in Mr. Fokas' appeal. We appreciate your consideration. Thanks, and best wishes...

Jeremy
