

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Tyrone Lorenzo Robinson, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2017-002233

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to appoint counsel and the Division of Appellate Defense has filed a response, consenting to representing Appellant so long as this court finds the notice of appeal was timely served. This court finds the notice was timely and grants the motion to appoint Appellate Defense to represent Appellant. This court notes James Kristian Falk is not representing Appellant in this direct appeal, and any reference by this court regarding Mr. Falk serving as counsel for Appellant in this direct appeal is vacated.
