Billy Fee #111433

Case no: 2017-002144

v.
V. Claire Allen Deputy Clerk

Notice Of Motion And Motion For
Reinstatement Of The Appeal SCRAP
260(a) / Petition For Rehearing 221(b)

The Petitioner respectfully requests the above stated Motion. Based upon the Deputy Clerks action of Dismissal. Being in clear conflict with the unambiguous language of the SCRAP Rule 203(b)(6). Which states "a party need not appeal until receipt of the more complete decision." The Deputy Clerk is penalizing inmates from the date of signature and filing in lieu of the date the inmate is in actual written receipt of the document at his institution. Which translates to the Deputy Clerk impeding upon there due process rights pursuant to the XIV USC, the SC const. Art I § III by denying redress and access to the courts. The Clerk permitted the Appellant to correct his deficiencies, albeit the appellant has been in compliance with the deputy clerk request since October 19, 2017. A proof of service was originally sent to all parties albeit it was labeled as an affidavit of service antecedent to the November 2, 2017 request and dismissed

Wherefore the antecedent considered and as a matter of law the Appellant requests the remedy and relief of a stay of the remittitur and the granting of the above stated motion.
