Re: Letter rec'd about Order
WCC File No. 1116275 John McDaniel

Dear Atty. Nussbaum:

The Order dated 5/20/13 is solely based on the prior Judicial Conference Order that granted the Claimant's Motion for Additional Evidence. The Clt. pursued his right to the Regulation that allows this Motion to be addressed by the hearing Commissioner, which is Comm. James. So, the Order dated 5/20/13, is what was needed to get it back to the hearing Commissioner. Comm. James has been given the file/Motion back to address.

The latest Motions are not proper yet. The Form 32 has not come back from Comm. Beck for the latest Motions. Once received, if approved, I'll be serving the Motions. If not approved, I will be sending a letter to the clt. to give ten (10) days to send the fee. So, until that process is done, the Motions are not ready to be addressed. The Commission is responsible for serving all Pro Se party actions.

Also, the objection to the packet received for the Motion of Additional evidence will be sent to Commissioner James for processing. I'll be serving the packet today. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Valerie D. Deller/Analyst

I already spoke with someone in your office, Atty. Nussbaum, about this Order. However, this Order is solely based on the prior Judicial Conference Order that granted his Motion for Additional Evidence. He pursued his right to the Regulation that allows this Motion to be addressed by the hearing Commissioner, which is Comm. James. So, the Order dated 5/20/13, is what was needed to get it back to the hearing Commissioner. Comm. James has been given the file/Motion back to address.

The latest Motions are not proper yet. The Form 32 has not come back from Comm. Beck for the latest Motions. Once I receive that, if approved, I will be serving the Motions. If it is not approved, a letter will go out asking that the fee be paid in ten (10) days. So, until that is done, the Motions are not actually proper. Being that he is a Pro'se Claimant, we serve all the Motions. That's the proper service of them.

I am in receipt of your letter dated 5/24/13 also, your Objection will be attached to the packet submission. I will be serving that today. Thank you.

Mr. Roberts,

I received the attached order instructions, which state, that the staff attorney will be drafting the order and that proposed findings of fact may be submitted. In accordance with 1-23-350 if proposed findings of fact are submitted, the decision "shall include a ruling upon each proposed finding". I have clarified with the executive director, Mr. Gary Cannon, to whom I submit these proposed findings of fact.

Further, I would object to Defendants drafting the order and would request that I be copied on all communications between Commissioner James and Defendants' attorney as I feel there may have been ex parte communications regarding this matter.

Please contact me if you have any further questions.

Thanks

Tamara,

Attached please find the proposed Decision and Order of the Single Commissioner in WCC File No. 1116275 McDaniel v. Career Employment Professional. Please review and let me know if Commissioner James has any questions or requires any changes.

Claimant pro se has requested ten days in which to comment on the proposed Order before the Decision and Order is filed. By copy of this email to John McDaniel, Claimant pro se, and Allison Nussbaum, Attorney for Defendants, I am providing them with a copy of the proposed Decision and Order and offering them an opportunity to submit any questions or comments to me for consideration by Commissioner James. The parties should be reminded that the purpose of any comments or questions should be limited to ensuring that the directives of Commissioner James are accurately reflected in the proposed Decision and Order and that this is not an opportunity to re-litigate the merits of the issues decided by Commissioner James. Commissioner James has the final decision regarding the contents of the Decision and Order.

Thank you!

Mr. Roberts,

The purpose of this letter is to confirm the reason for our previous miscommunication. We had a phone conversation in response to my previous email exchange with you. Will you please answer the following:

Why would my previously submitted findings of fact not be contained in the proposed decision and order submitted by you on Sept. 10 to Commissioner James?

Did you tell me on the phone that my proposed findings of fact would be included in the proposed decision and order when we spoke at 2:47 P.M. on Fri. Sept 6, 2013?

Thank you,

Dear Mr. McDaniel,

Commissioner James directed me to prepare a Proposed Decision and Order consistent with her directives issued on or about August 5th, 2013. I drafted the Proposed Decision and Order consistent with Commissioner James' instructions, and submitted it to Commissioner James on Tuesday, September 10th, 2013.

Prior to my completion of the Proposed Decision and Order, on or about Friday, August 30th, 2013, you submitted proposed findings of fact of your own. That same day, Allison Nussbaum, attorney for Defendants, noted her objection to your proposed findings. Since that time, you requested that you be permitted ten days after the Proposed Decision and Order was submitted by me to Commissioner James to offer your comments.

All requests, proposals, and other correspondence have been made part of the file and can be considered by Commissioner James if she finds it prudent to do so. The language that will ultimately be contained in the final Decision and Order is solely up to the discretion of Commissioner James. You have been given the opportunity to present your case at the Hearing, and you have been given the opportunity to comment on the proposed Decision and Order prepared by the Commission's staff and offer proposed findings of your own.

At this time the parties must wait for Commissioner James to complete the Decision and Order. Once Commissioner James has completed the Decision and Order, you will be served with a copy of it at your address on file with the Commission.

Mr. Roberts,

" Prior to my completion of the Proposed Decision and Order, on or about Friday, August 30th, 2013, you submitted proposed findings of fact of your own. That same day, Allison Nussbaum, attorney for Defendants, noted her objection to your proposed findings. Since that time, you requested that you be permitted ten days after the Proposed Decision and Order was submitted by me to Commissioner James to offer your comments."

Was Allison Nussbaum's objection the reason for not including my submitted proposed findings of fact?

According to 1-23-350, "If, in accordance with agency rules, a party submitted proposed findings of fact, the decision shall include a ruling upon each proposed finding."

The directive for the proposed decision and order included directions pertaining to the submitting of proposed findings of fact.

These proposed findings are not a strategy to re-litigate any issues, these findings are very specific, based on submitted evidence and testimony, and to the very best of my ability, stated to be consistent with Commissioner James' directives.

Also, could you please clarify, did you tell me during our phone conversation on Sept. 6th, 2013 at 2:47 P.M. that my proposed language would be included in the proposed decision and order to be submitted to Commissioner James?

I would also clarify that I did not request a 10 day comment period but simply that the directives for the order be followed since one provision in them was that any proposed order should be given to pro se claimants 10 days prior to the proposed decision and order being submitted to the hearing Commissioner.

Sincerely,

Ms. Hollmon,

I am in receipt of the notice of appellate hearing set for 10/14/13. This would be premature as i have not received the commissioner's order yet.

Pursuant to 67-707(C)(2)(e) "The original Hearing Commissioner will issue his or her findings and recommendations in the form of an order to the Commission and the parties."

I would just restate, I have not received the order from which appeal may be taken. This cannot be docketed without me knowing the subject matter. Being forced to proceed without the most recent order, or a chance to review it, would be highly prejudicial to my case and in violation of the Regulations that govern the commission.

Please contact me as soon as possible via email.

According to our records, Comm. James has just served you with her order dated September 30, 2013. This order should have addressed all the motions that you filed and also the remand issue from Judicial Conference. We are now setting this case based on your original appeal filed on January 17, 2013.

Ms. Hollmon,

Please let me know how this was served. I just returned from my honeymoon in Florida which lasted from 9-29 till 10-3. How was i served? I have not recieved the order. I HAVE NOT RECIEVED ANY ORDER. Please provide me with a scanned copy of the addressee only signed receipt for the certified mail through which service of the order would be proper. I would like to say that this is not in the best interest of the injured worker, which you are supposed to protect, to procede with an appeal without ever providing the order.

Further, I would just point out that I will appeal additional violations of law, violations of procedure, errors of fact, errors of law and utter abuse of discretion, from both the first and second orders, once I recieve the order. I will clarify once again, I DO NOT HAVE THE SIGNED ORDER.

Will this move forward on the 14th?

Everyone

It is difficult to understand how someone who was not served an order would be able to call and tell us about it. In order for him to know there was an order, he would have had to be served.

The hearing on October 14th is the hearing on his original appeal from the order served in January of this year. His appeal time for the September order is still running and he has been so advised by our staff.

Dear Mr. McDaniel,

Please allow this email to serve as a response to the questions you posed yesterday morning.

The purpose of Appellate Hearing set for October 14th, 2013 is to determine the issues your former attorney raised on the Form 30 filed on January 14th, 2013, which appealed the Decision and Order of Commissioner James dated January 4th, 2013. You were served with a copy of the Brief Request notifying you that the matter was on the appellate docket on June 19th, 2013. You were served with a notice of the time and date of the Oral Arguments on October 1st, 2013.

The most recent Decision and Order issued by Commissioner James following the Hearing on July 8th, 2013 is not subject to the pending appeal. On March 8th, 2013, your former attorney filed a motion to consider additional evidence. On April 15th, 2013 the Full Commission at Judicial Conference granted the motion to consider the additional evidence and set the additional evidence to be considered by the Appellate Panel at the same time it considered the issues you raised on appeal in your Form 30 dated January 14th, 2013.

However, you wrote an email on April 15th, 2013 demanding that the review hearing by the appellate panel be stayed and that the additional evidence be considered by the single Commissioner. Pursuant to your request, the review hearing was stayed, and a Hearing was held by Commissioner James on July 8th, 2013 to consider the additional evidence.

Commissioner James issued her Order on September 30th, 2013. A copy of the September 30th, 2013 Decision and Order was sent to your address via U.S. Certified Mail.

The Decision and Order of Commissioner James filed September 30th, 2013 is not under review at the Hearing set for October 14th, 2013. If you wish to appeal the Decision and Order of Commissioner James filed September 30th, 2013 you must do so in accordance with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Act.

Was the hearing notice for October 14, 2013 set prior to 3:52 p.m. October 4, 2013?

Dear Mr. McDaniel,

The appellate hearing was scheduled following the Hearing held by Commissioner James on July 8th, 2013 in accordance with the May 20th, 2013 judicial conference order. You should have been aware that the stay was lifted once the remanded issue was heard by Commissioner James on July 8th, 2013. Your case has not been "bifurcated" in the legal sense of the term. Bifurcation is a process that is sometimes used in Circuit Court that is inapplicable to workers' compensation. When a member of our staff informed you that your case had been "bifurcated", what they were trying to communicate to you was that, pursuant to your request on April 15th, 2013, the hearing by the appellate panel had been stayed and the issue of after discovered evidence had been separated from the remaining issues on appeal and remanded to the single Commissioner. As you are aware, the person who told you your case had been "bifurcated" is not an attorney and was merely trying to help you understand the status of your case. That person was wholly unaware that the verb "bifurcated" could be confused with a legal process that is used in civil and criminal trials that is unrelated to workers' compensation. Misunderstanding legal terms is a risk that you run by choosing to remain pro se. If you are having trouble understanding any aspect of your case, you are permitted to retain a private attorney to represent you in all proceedings before the Workers' Compensation Commission.

Since your case has not been "bifurcated" I am unable to forward you any records of the "bifurcation" of your case. However, if you would like a copy of your workers' compensation file, you may request it. There will be a base charge of $20.00, plus $0.50 for each page over twenty pages, plus the actual cost of postage.

I noticed that in your email below you did not send a copy to a representative of the Defendants. I am forwarding a copy of your email to Allison Nussbaum. In the future, you should Cc Ms. Nussbaum with any correspondence to the Commission, in order to avoid ex parte communication.

Since you made the decision to proceed with your claim pro se, you have relied heavily on the Commission's staff to assist you in understanding and pursuing your claim. We have made every effort to respond to your questions promptly and accurately. Various members of our staff have dedicated an inordinate amount of time to assisting you with your numerous inquiries. In order to best serve everyone involved and avoid future confusion, you are to direct all future correspondence with the Commission, other than official pleadings and motions, to my and Mr. Cannon's attention only.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation with our request.

Read 67-707 in full then please answer the following questions please:

Was a remand order to the original hearing commissioner issued?

Did commissioner James reconvene the hearing?

When was notice sent that my claim had been reset on the docket?

Dear Mr. McDaniel,

Please allow this email to serve as a response to the questions you posed yesterday morning.

The purpose of Appellate Hearing set for October 14th, 2013 is to determine the issues your former attorney raised on the Form 30 filed on January 14th, 2013, which appealed the Decision and Order of Commissioner James dated January 4th, 2013. The most recent Decision and Order issued by Commissioner James following the Hearing on July 8th, 2013 is not subject to the pending appeal. On March 8th, 2013, your former attorney filed a motion to consider additional evidence. On April 15th, 2013 the Full Commission at Judicial Conference granted the motion to consider the additional evidence and set the additional evidence to be considered by the Appellate Panel at the same time it considered the issues you raised on appeal in your Form 30 dated January 14th, 2013.

This email does not address four concerns.

1. Was the appeal hearing scheduled prior to me receiving the 2nd order from Ms. James on October 4, at 3:52 pm?
2. When did I receive notice that the stay had been lifted?
3. When was I notified that my case had been bifurcated?
4. Can you forward any records of the bifurcation of my case?

Sincerely, John McDaniel

Dear Mr. McDaniel,

The appellate hearing was scheduled following the Hearing held by Commissioner James on July 8th, 2013 in accordance with the May 20th, 2013 judicial conference order. You should have been aware that the stay was lifted once the remanded issue was heard by Commissioner James on July 8th, 2013. Your case has not been "bifurcated" in the legal sense of the term. Bifurcation is a process that is sometimes used in Circuit Court that is inapplicable to workers' compensation. When a member of our staff informed you that your case had been "bifurcated", what they were trying to communicate to you was that, pursuant to your request on April 15th, 2013, the hearing by the appellate panel had been stayed and the issue of after discovered evidence had been separated from the remaining issues on appeal and remanded to the single Commissioner. As you are aware, the person who told you your case had been "bifurcated" is not an attorney and was merely trying to help you understand the status of your case. That person was wholly unaware that the verb "bifurcated" could be confused with a legal process that is used in civil and criminal trials that is unrelated to workers' compensation. Misunderstanding legal terms is a risk that you run by choosing to remain pro se. If you are having trouble understanding any aspect of your case, you are permitted to retain a private attorney to represent you in all proceedings before the Workers' Compensation Commission.

Since your case has not been "bifurcated" I am unable to forward you any records of the "bifurcation" of your case. However, if you would like a copy of your workers' compensation file, you may request it. There will be a base charge of $20.00, plus $0.50 for each page over twenty pages, plus the actual cost of postage.

I noticed that in your email below you did not send a copy to a representative of the Defendants. I am forwarding a copy of your email to Allison Nussbaum. In the future, you should Cc Ms. Nussbaum with any correspondence to the Commission, in order to avoid ex parte communication.

Since you made the decision to proceed with your claim pro se, you have relied heavily on the Commission's staff to assist you in understanding and pursuing your claim. We have made every effort to respond to your questions promptly and accurately. Various members of our staff have dedicated an inordinate amount of time to assisting you with your numerous inquiries. In order to best serve everyone involved and avoid future confusion, you are to direct all future correspondence with the Commission, other than official pleadings and motions, to my and Mr. Cannon's attention only.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation with our request.

Sincerely,

Mr. Roberts,

I am not in receipt of the notice for briefs, that you claim was served June 19. Could you forward a copy of this along with the return receipt? Also, this is odd that I would receive notice while the remand hearing had not yet been heard. There are other issues to be addressed from your most recent email, however I am away from the office and will get back to you soon.

To whom it may concern,

I object to the respondents authoring the decision and order in this case. The proposed order by the respondents is objectionable on many grounds. I do not consent to having my legal arguments summarized by my legal adversary. I do not consent to having the defendants draft the decision and order. It is also highly objectionable that the respondents would be so cavalier as to make judicial determinations on behalf of the commission, by changing the expressly written amendment proposed by the commission.

I have attached my proposed findings of fact. Under title I if a party submits proposed findings of fact each proposed findings of fact shall be ruled upon. I have the utmost faith that the commission will defend the injured worker, and apply the laws liberally as their construction requires, in ruling upon each and every one of my 97 proposed findings of fact.

As a side note, it is laughable that the respondents completely omitted any reference to the remand hearing held before Commissioner James in the proposed order.

However, on a more serious note, the respondents are currently refusing to answer my emails regarding the denial of my pain medication. A motion to enforce medical treatment will be filed forthwith.

Sincerely,

2017-ROA-550

Ms. Bracy,

In reviewing Mr. McDaniel's "Appellant's proposed findings of fact," we note that he raises the issue of his request for extended oral argument. Although Mr. McDaniel raised this issue at the March 12, 2017 Appellate Panel hearing, Respondents were not copied on or served with Mr. McDaniel's request for extended argument. Would you be so kind as to provide us with a copy of his request?

Helen,

Requests for extension of oral argument are located on wcc form 30. Now that you know, can i get my pain meds? (This is attempt #3 to get my meds approved by the respondents. It makes me sick that MGC can produce a proposed order in 2 days but cant get my meds approved in more than two weeks)

Ms Hiser,

To be painfully clear, when I send you an email I am not sending you personally an email. I am sending the legal firm which represents Snelling staffing and United heartland correspondence. It does not concern me to whom the responsibility falls at your firm to communicate to your clients that they are not being compliant with an outstanding legal order. (Of note, I have sent repeated unanswered emails directly to United heartland's current claims manager regarding the failure to approve ordered and prescribed medications.)

However, I do not believe that this particular email thread is the place to resolve issues unrelated to the issuance of the proposed decision and order.

If you wish to continue this conversation feel free to email me at any time or even give me a call at 843 - 425 - 3000.

To whom it may concern,

I object to the respondents authoring the decision and order in this case. The proposed order by the respondents is objectionable on many grounds. I do not consent to having my legal arguments summarized by my legal adversary. I do not consent to having the defendants draft the decision and order. It is also highly objectionable that the respondents would be so cavalier as to make judicial determinations on behalf of the commission, by changing the expressly written amendment proposed by the commission.

I have attached my proposed findings of fact. Under title I if a party submits proposed findings of fact each proposed findings of fact shall be ruled upon. I have the utmost faith that the commission will defend the injured worker, and apply the laws liberally as their construction requires, in ruling upon each and every one of my 97 proposed findings of fact.

As a side note, it is laughable that the respondents completely omitted any reference to the remand hearing held before Commissioner James in the proposed order.

However, on a more serious note, the respondents are currently refusing to answer my emails regarding the denial of my pain medication. A motion to enforce medical treatment will be filed forthwith.

Sincerely,
John C McDaniel

6. Jim Pascutti did not attend the hearing.
7. Angela Baldwin did not attend the hearing.
8. Dan Cobb's testimony was incorrect in such that average overtime worked by Jarod Lampkin was not between 2 and 10 hours per week (as testified) but rather 5 to 21 hours per week (Lampkin's Pay records).
9. There is evidence of late payments of TTD and TPD by the defendants.
10. The first check paid to Appellant has a received date stamp on it reflecting it was received 12/27/11, this is over one month after Appellants injury 11/21/11.
11. There is no record of payment of the mandatory increase in compensation of 10% for the period of benefits from 11/22/11 till 12/02/11.
12. Alside Revere's hours of operation are from 7 a.m. till 4 p.m. Monday through Friday (45 hours).
13. $13 an hour, paid for a 40 hour work week equals $520.
14. During the 20 weeks reflected on the Form 20 Appellant worked on average 3.086 hours of overtime.
15. $43.086 \text{ (hours paid at 11.50 an hour would equal } (40 \times 11.5 = 460) + (3.086 \times 17.25 = 53.23) = $513.23.$
16. Check dated 10/7/11 shows Appellant had earned $10,450.65 through the period ending 9/30/11.
17. Appellant's wages of $10,450.65 was paid with 21 checks.
18. 20 of 21 checks reflect an "hourly pay" rate of $11.50 an hour with the exception being check dated 8/5/2011, this reflects an "hourly pay" rate of $0.00 an hour. (APA p.72)
19. The check that reflects an "hourly pay" rate of $0.00 also includes ten hours paid at an "overtime pay" rate of $17.25 an hour. (APA p.72)
20. Two checks reflect a pay date of 8/5/2011. (APA p.72-73)

21. The Two checks dated 8/5/2011 indicate wages for two different periods of time. (APA p.72-73)
22. The wages earned for the week of 7/15/11 through 7/22/11 were distributed in two different checks.(APA p.71-72)
23. Appellant did not work the period of 8/29/11 through 9/02/11. (APA p.118)
24. $10450.65 divided by 21 weeks equals $497.65.
25. $10450.65 divided by 20 weeks equals $522.53.
26. The current Form 20 indicates Appellant earned through 9/30/11 $9,856.96 over a 20 week period equaling an average of $492.85.
27. The Form 20 and the pay records do not match.
28. The hearing commissioner determined the Form 20 is applicable and its math is correct.
29. Wages earned at Alside Revere are not included in the determination of Appellants AWW.
30. Appellant was injured at Alside Revere.
31. The "Employee Pay Summary" for Wayne Atkins indicates week ending 4/8/11 the wages paid were for 8 hours.
32. The above referenced check (check # 186808) was calculated as a full week in the determination of Atkins average wage.
33. The "Employee Pay Summary" for Wayne Atkins indicates a pay rate of $8 an hour the last week of his employment (week ending 7/15/11).
34. During the above referenced week Wayne Atkins worked 45 hours (check # 192500).
35. Wayne Atkins average wage determination in regards to the above week relies on gross earnings and not on hours worked multiplied by his normal wage.
36. The result of the above equate to wages his last week of employment equal to $344.35 ($8 an hour x 45 hours) instead of $606.25 ($13 an hour x 45 hours).

37. The "Employee Pay Summary" for Wayne Atkins reflects three additional weeks in which hours worked were less than 40 hours.
38. The above weeks are accounted for in the determination of Wayne Atkins average wage as full weeks.
39. Wayne Atkins average wage was determined by dividing his gross pay ($7,603.24) by paychecks received (15 checks) resulting in an average wage of $506.88 (which is equal to less than 40 hours a week at $13 an hour).
40. Over the period Atkins worked for Alside Revere he earned 35.25 hours of overtime.
41. 35.25 hours of overtime over a 15 week period results an average overtime worked of 2.35 hours per week.
42. No partial weeks or wage reductions are accounted for in the determination of Wayne Atkins average wage.
43. Alvin Clarke worked a partial week the week ending 7/29/11 (32 hours worked).
44. Alvin Clark worked a partial week ending 11/11/11 (8 hours worked).
45. Alvin Clark's average wage accounts both of the above weeks as full weeks.
46. Alvin Clark worked less than 40 hours on five other checks (check numbers 195610, 197218, 197725, 199271, 200533).
47. Alvin Clark's average wage was determined by dividing gross pay ($8,534.51) by number of checks (16) and equates to $533.41 (which is equal to less than 2 hours of overtime).
48. Alvin Clark worked 50.50 hours of overtime over a 16 week period, this results in an average overtime per week of 3.16 hours.
49. Alvin Clark's wage determination does not take into account any partial weeks.
50. Jarod Lampkin's average wage was determined by dividing gross pay ($8,040.52) by number of checks received (13) which equates to $618.50 (which is equal to approx. 5 hours of overtime per week.)

51. Jarod Lampkin worked 78 hours of overtime over 13 weeks resulting in 6 hours of overtime per week on average.
52. Jarod Lampkin worked a partial week the week ending 11/25/11 (32 hours).
53. Jarod Lampkin worked a partial week the week ending 2/17/12 (31 hours).
54. Jarod Lampkin's wage determination does not take into account any partial weeks.

68. There is no evidence that suggests the jobs provided to Appellant, after injury, by Snelling staffing were available to the public.
69. The job provided for the Appellant at Snelling's Office was benevolent in nature.
70. The job provided for the Appellant at Barnwell, Whaley, Patterson and Helms was benevolent in nature.
71. Twice in the month of November, 2012 defendants delayed the first hearing.

72. Defendants did not file the application to suspend benefits until 9/17/12; this is over one month after Dr. Ohlson's MMI report dated 8/13/12.
73. Dr. Olson initially recommended and prescribed Physical Therapy on 1/9/12.
74. Appellant's first visit to Physical Therapy was on 2/27/13.
75. Dr. Olson initially recommended and prescribed wound debridement/therapy on 1/27/12.
76. The Form 20 used in calculating Appellants AWW reflects a wage lower than Lampkin, Clark or Atkins.
77. The Appellant attempted to facilitate wound treatment and physical therapy.
78. The Appellant's recovery was hindered due to the gross delay in approving physical therapy.
"Potential barriers to patient's ability to reach maximum rehab potential: delayed attendance to PT" (RCC report dated 2/27/12)
79. Physical therapy was delayed for a second period from 4/10/12 till 5/1/12.
80. The Appellant informed Dr. Olson of his continuing attempt to facilitate wound therapy during and prior to the follow up visit 4/2/12.
81. The wound therapy, as recommended and prescribed by Dr. Olson, was never approved and/or denied by United Heartland.
82. Appellant walks with a severe limp.
83. Appellant's physical work restrictions diminish his employment options.
84. Appellant has a limited skill set.
85. The Appellant discussed the decision to not proceed with surgery with Dr. Olson on 5/14/12.
86. Dr. Olson explained that surgery was not feasible if his wound was open. (See attached report dated 5/14/12)
87. Dr. Olson's reported dated 4/2/2012 states that there is no longer need for wound therapy.
88. Rehabilitation Centers of Charleston's physical therapy notes from 6/26/12 state that the wound is nearly healed.

89. The Appellant's wound remained open at least until 6/26/12 resulting in Dr. Olson not proceeding with surgery as stated in RCC records and Dr. Olson's medical reports.
90. Dr. Olson's report dated 5/14/12 recommends and prescribes Chronic Pain Management.
91. The Appellant attempted to facilitate and receive Chronic Pain Management as prescribed by Dr. Olson.
92. The Appellant first received Chronic Pain Management on 10/30/12.
93. Dr. Ohlson first recommended and prescribed orthotics on 7/2/12, United Heartland delayed approval of this until, on or after, 11/1/12.
94. The record contains evidence that the carrier has failed to provide medical care as directed.
95. The Department of Insurance has not been notified of the defendants' failure to authorize and pay benefits for medical treatment, specifically wound care treatment prescribed by Dr. Ohlson on 1/27/12.
96. Although accusations of insurance fraud were made by the Appellant, this has not been reported to the Attorney General's office or the Department of Insurance.
97. The appellant's motion for extended oral argument was denied at the full commission hearing. The reason that was given was that the commission holds appellant hearings in the allotted 23 minutes "all the time", with the appellant allotted 10 minutes oral argument and 3 minutes oral rebuttal. The appellant pointed out that with 27 legal points to cover 10 minutes would allow for less than 30 seconds each, and the commission advised him to cover as much as possible, and once again denied his motion for extended oral argument.

YOU agree to honestly, completely, and correctly provide all requested information and permit the HOSPITAL to share your medical record as applicable under the law with your physician, your insurers, Medicare, Medicaid or their designated agents. They may review your record, copy it in full or in part in order to obtain billing and payment information and for insurers (private or government) to determine whether your services are covered by them. YOU agree to allow the HOSPITAL to use your record made during this visit at this time or later to meet its required reporting duties regarding your care and to collect payment for the services YOU received. YOU agree for your doctor to direct copies of your medical records to other physicians, hospitals, and other healthcare facilities as they deem necessary for continuity of care. - And a tool for routine healthcare operations such as assessing quality and reviewing the competence of healthcare professionals

Your signature below acknowledges that YOU received the Roper St. Francis Healthcare Notice of Information Practices that provides a description of information uses and disclosure practices. YOU accept and understand that YOU:

- Have the right to review the NOTICE prior to signing this consent.
- Accept that the HOSPITAL reserves the right to change the NOTICE and its information practices, for past, current, or future information. The new notice will contain the effective date on its first page and be made available on our Web site.
- Have the right to object to the use of your health information for the HOSPITAL's patient directory.
- Have the right to request restrictions on the use or disclosure of your health information to carry out treatment, payment, or healthcare operations and to correct error(s) in your record. The HOSPITAL, however, is not required to agree to the restrictions requested.

- May revoke this consent in writing that YOU provide to the HOSPITAL. The revocation does not apply to any uses of your information made by the HOSPITAL in reliance upon this consent form and on the belief that your consent was still effective.

To the Patient [or parent, guardian, or legal representative] (YOU) _____

Please print patient's name above if no label used.

Before Roper Hospital and any of its departments (the HOSPITAL) may provide you inpatient or outpatient services YOU must know what services YOU will receive, consent to them, agree to how to pay for them, and accept how the HOSPITAL will use your medical record. The HOSPITAL requests your consent to TWO (2) different parts of this form. Please carefully read Part I on treatment and other important matters AND Part II on the use of your patient information. YOU may request that this form be read to YOU. Be sure to ask any questions YOU may have about it. When YOU fully understand the form's content, please sign it in the place indicated on the back of the form. In advance, THANK YOU very much for your cooperation in meeting the HOSPITAL'S responsibility to YOU and to the community it serves.

PART I

CONSENT TO TREATMENT

YOU authorize your physician or a designated qualified assistant to provide YOU medical treatment. YOU consent to all HOSPITAL medical or diagnostic care ordered for YOU during this visit as an outpatient or stay in the HOSPITAL. This consent includes testing for infectious such as hepatitis B and HIV and providing blood or body fluids for such tests in order to protect YOU and/or those who provide YOU services.

PAYMENT FOR SERVICES AND INSURANCE

YOU are directly responsible for paying for all provided services. The HOSPITAL will accept assignment of your payment responsibility to others. This includes health insurers, Medicare, Medicaid, workers' comp, and different types of liability, accident, and disability insurance policies. YOU agree that the assigned payment responsibility is covered by current, valid and in effect insurance arrangements and that YOU will promptly pay any required co-pay amounts and unpaid deductibles. If YOU are receiving Medicare benefits for the services provided, an assignment of benefits includes those for physician services that were part of the HOSPITAL's services to YOU.

YOU (patient or agent accepting financial responsibility) guarantee payment to the HOSPITAL for ALL NONCOVERED SERVICES and any unpaid, billed amounts not covered by insurance if the applicable benefit plan allows collection of the unpaid balance. YOU understand and accept that your physician's orders may include services not paid by benefit plans but will be provided to you by the HOSPITAL. Also, YOU accept that benefit plans may deny payment for what YOU believed were covered services resulting in your responsibility for paying for these services. YOU may be billed for the professional component of any hospital services, such as the professional component for clinical laboratory tests. If it becomes necessary, the Hospital can assist you in applying for financial assistance through Federal, State and Local Programs.

Should any remaining account balance produce a financial burden to YOU, please inform the HOSPITAL of your hardship. The HOSPITAL will then give YOU the opportunity to apply for financial assistance.

VALUABLES

YOU accept full responsibility for your valuables especially money or jewelry. The HOSPITAL does not accept any liability for your valuables. The HOSPITAL expects YOU will entrust any valuables to family or friends for safekeeping or deposit them in the HOSPITAL safe provided for that purpose. This is especially important when you are an inpatient, but this responsibility also extends to when YOU are an outpatient and must change into a HOSPITAL gown, remove jewelry or be sedated for a procedure.

SPECIAL NOTE FOR MEDICARE OR CHAMPUS PATIENTS

YOU acknowledge and certify by your signature that all your information provided to the HOSPITAL for Medicare or Champus benefits is correct and YOU agree to allow the HOSPITAL OR OTHERS that have information on your Medicare or Champus benefits claim to provide the information to Medicare, Champus, or their agents in order for them to determine your eligibility for benefits. To carry out this activity, the HOSPITAL may use a copy rather than the original of this consent form. YOU also, acknowledge receipt of the "Important Message from Medicare" or "Important Message from Champus" forms, which does not waive any of your rights for a review or make YOU liable for any payment.

Discharge Instructions

Metatarsal Fracture(s), Undisplaced

Metatarsal Fracture(s), Undisplaced

A metatarsal fracture is a break in the bone(s) of the foot. These are the bones of the foot that connect your toes to the bones of the ankle.

DIAGNOSIS

The diagnoses of these fractures are usually made with X-rays. If there are problems in the forefoot and x-rays are normal a later bone scan will usually make the diagnosis.

TREATMENT & HOME CARE INSTRUCTIONS

Treatment may or may not include a cast or walking shoe. When casts are needed the use is usually for short periods of time so as not to slow down healing with muscle wasting (atrophy).

Activities should be stopped until further advised by your caregiver.

Wear shoes with adequate shock absorbing capabilities and stiff soles.

Alternative exercise may be undertaken while waiting for healing. These may include bicycling and swimming, or as your caregiver suggests.

It is important to keep all follow-up visits or specialty referrals. The failure to keep these appointments could result in improper bone healing and chronic pain or disability.

Warning: Do not drive a car or operate a motor vehicle until your caregiver specifically tells you it is safe to do so.

IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A CAST OR SPLINT:

You may walk on your injured foot as tolerated or advised.

Do not put any weight on your injured foot for the first 1-2 weeks or as directed by your caregiver. Slowly increase the amount of time you walk on the foot as the pain allows or as advised.

Use crutches until you can bear weight without pain. A gradual increase in weight bearing may help.

Apply ice to the injury for 15 to 20 minutes each hour while awake for the first 2 days. Put the ice in a plastic bag and place a towel between the bag of ice and your skin.

Only take over-the-counter or prescription medicines for pain, discomfort, or fever as directed by your caregiver.

SEEK IMMEDIATE MEDICAL CARE IF:

Your cast gets damaged or breaks.

You have continued severe pain or more swelling than you did before the cast was put on, or the pain is not controlled with medications.

Your skin or nails below the injury turn blue or grey, or feel cold or numb.

There is a bad smell, or new stains and/or pus-like (purulent) drainage coming from under the cast.

MAKE SURE YOU:

Understand these instructions.

Will watch your condition.

Will get help right away if you are not doing well or get worse.

INITIAL EVALUATION

HISTORY OF PRESENT ILLNESS: The patient presented for evaluation of his left foot. He is a 29-year-old Caucasian male who sustained injury while at work when his left foot was run over by a forklift, date of injury November 21, 2011. He was seen at the emergency room at a Roper facility where he was told that he sustained a transverse fracture of the second through fifth metatarsals and the distal fifth phalanx of the left foot. He was placed into a short-leg splint. He has been nonweightbearing since his time of injury. He states that the pain is fairly severe, swelling throughout the foot, difficulty with bearing weight. He has been elevating the foot, which seems to help alleviate his symptoms. He denies any previous history of injury or trauma to the foot.

MEDICATIONS: Percocet prescribed by the emergency room.

ALLERGIES: None.

PAST MEDICAL HISTORY: Negative for diabetes, hypertension, or problems with thyroid.

PAST SURGICAL HISTORY: Negative.

FAMILY HISTORY: Significant for breast cancer.

SOCIAL HISTORY: He works as a truck driver in deliveries. Physical activities include constant walking and physical labor at work. He smokes approximately 2 packs of cigarettes a week for the past 10 years. He consumes approximately a couple drinks of alcohol per week.

REVIEW OF SYSTEMS: He is self-reported 6 feet 3 inches, 250 pounds. Denies constitutional symptoms such as fevers, chills, or night sweats. He denies heart problems such as chest pain, murmur, or irregular beats. He denies neurological problems such as seizures, weakness, or problems with balance.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION: Well-developed, well-nourished male, sitting comfortably in his chair, awake, alert, and oriented, answers questions appropriately. Examination today of the left foot reveals diffuse swelling and ecchymosis about the lateral border and dorsal aspect of the foot as well as the forefoot. No evidence of skin breakdown, abrasion, or infection. No obvious evidence of bony prominence. There is diffuse tenderness about the shaft of the third, fourth, and fifth metatarsals as well as tenderness about the distal aspects of the metatarsals along the metatarsal heads with painful range of motion at the MTP joints at the third, fourth, and fifth MTP joints. Tenderness about the fifth phalanx. No tenderness about the second, third, or fourth phalanx. No tenderness along the peroneal tendons, anterolateral aspect of the ankle joint. No tenderness along the lateral malleolus or medial malleolus. Full range of motion of the ankle. Limited range of motion secondary to pain about the midfoot. Sensation is intact in the distribution of the sural nerve as well as along the distribution of the dorsomedial cutaneous branch of the superficial peroneal nerve. However, there is slight sensitivity over both of these areas as would be expected due to the extreme quality of the crush injury. No obvious evidence of pes planus or pes cavus foot deformity. Achilles tendon is intact.

X-RAYS: Three views of the left foot reviewed from the emergency room as well as 3 views of the left foot, nonweightbearing, taken today in the office reveal transverse fractures of the second, third, fourth, and fifth distal shaft of the metatarsals and a fracture noted of the proximal middle phalanx on the fifth toe. All fractures are within acceptable alignment. Minimal shortening noted of the fourth and fifth metatarsal fractures. They are extraarticular in nature. MTP joints remain in acceptable alignment with a normal cascade. No obvious comminution present.

ORTHOPAEDIC SPECIALISTS OF CHARLESTON Kate Eden, PA-C Patient Name: MCDANIEL, JOHN DOB: [REDACTED] PATIENT #: 30-86-77-4	2093 Henry Tecklenburg Drive Suite 200 East Charleston, SC 29414 Telephone (843) 958-2500 Fax (843) 958-2680 Date of Service: 11/28/2011

IMPRESSION: The patient presents for initial evaluation following a crush injury while at work, date of injury November 21, 2011, sustaining a third, fourth, and fifth metatarsal fracture at the head of the metatarsals and a middle phalanx fracture of the fifth toe.

PLAN: Pathology and nature were discussed with him in detail. He does understand that a crush injury in particular can take up to a year for symptoms to resolve. At this time, conservative treatment is warranted. Fractures remain in acceptable alignment. Surgical intervention is not required at this time. X-rays and plan of care are discussed with Dr. Ohlson in detail. The patient was placed into a short-leg cast boot in a neutral position. He will remain nonweightbearing until his next evaluation. He will follow up in approximately 4 weeks for a repeat evaluation with repeat x-rays of the foot at that time. He will remain out of work or at sedentary duties if it is available until his next evaluation. The patient is given a prescription for Percocet 5/325 mg 1-2 tablets p.o. q. 4-6h. p.r.n. pain #30 with no refills. Told to call the office if questions or concerns, increased erythema, or dramatic increase in swelling. The patient needs to be icing the foot as well as elevating throughout the day. Otherwise, he needs to remain in the cast boot at all times. Pathology and nature were discussed in detail. All of his questions were answered. Told to call the office if questions or concerns.

FOLLOW-UP

This patient is here for followup today for forklift injury, a crush injury to his foot on November 21, 2011. He is doing well. He states still pain in the foot and stiffness, still having difficulty bearing weight on the foot.

Examination today shows a substantial amount of swelling, eschar measuring approximately 3.5 cm in diameter over the dorsolateral border of his foot and some decreased sensation along the sural nerve distribution. He also has diffuse tenderness across the metatarsal region.

X-RAYS: Three views of his foot show some diffuse osteopenia and neck fractures involving the second through fifth metatarsals. The fourth has the most displacement with slight shortening, but the cascade of the metatarsals is still maintained. Also a fracture of the proximal phalanx of the fifth toe.

IMPRESSION: Followup for 2-5 metatarsal fractures with proximal phalanx fracture of the fifth toe.

PLAN: Eschar was debrided on the foot today. We talked about wet-to-dry dressing changes. He may begin progressive weightbearing, transition to a postop shoe. I am going to also begin him in therapy working on range of motion and gait training-type exercises, and see him back in 6 weeks' time for followup. I am going to keep him out of work until the wound is healed.

FOLLOW-UP

The patient presented for a followup for his left foot. The patient sustained a crush injury involving a forklift while at work on November 21, 2011. He states he has had increased drainage from the area that was debrided at his visit with Dr. Ohlson a few weeks ago. He denies constitutional symptoms such as fevers, chills, or night sweats. He is concerned about the increase in drainage.

On examination today, he does have a substantial amount of residual swelling. The eschar measures approximately 3.5 cm in diameter over the dorsolateral border of the foot with a slight amount of serous drainage present. No evidence of purulence or active infection. There is decreased sensation along the distribution of the sural nerve. Diffuse tenderness about the metatarsal region.

IMPRESSION: The patient presents for a followup for metatarsal fractures 2-5 with proximal phalanx fracture of the fifth toe, date of injury November 21, 2011.

PLAN: The patient is to continue wet-to-dry dressing changes in the area of the eschar wound. He has not been performing wet-to-dry dressing changes. I have recommended that he be evaluated by wound care. I have given him a prescription for this. I have also placed him on a short course of antibiotics due to the fact that he states that there has been a fairly substantial increase in drainage as of recently, Bactrim DS 1 tablet p.o. b.i.d. #10 with 1 refill. He was also given a prescription for Lortab 5/500 mg 1-2 tablets p.o. q.6 h. p.r.n. pain #30 with no refills. He will follow up in approximately 4 weeks. He already has an appointment scheduled with myself or Dr. Ohlson. He was told to call the office with questions or concerns. He will remain out of work until his next followup.

FOLLOW-UP

The patient is here for followup for metatarsal fractures 2-5, proximal phalanx fracture, fifth toe, delayed wound healing. He states that he works for Snelling. He has been trying to facilitate getting wound care as well as physical therapy. He is still using crutches surprisingly. Although he has retained the Steinberg Law Firm for his worker's comp claim, he has really not been able to simply follow the recommendations that I have stated in the past visit.

Exam today still shows a fair amount of swelling. Stiffness in the MP joints. He is neurovascularly intact. The area measures about 2 cm x 2 cm, extends below the subcutaneous tissue, appears clean in the dorsolateral portion of his foot and some numbness in the distribution of the sural nerve and intermediate branch of the superficial peroneal nerve. No evidence of infection.

X-rays today show some significant disuse osteopenia. However, the fractures show good bridging callus.

IMPRESSION: Followup for a 2-5 metatarsal fracture as well as proximal phalanx fracture.

PLAN: I encouraged him to touch base with the Steinberg Law Firm to help facilitate communication with the work case manager and get him into some wound care, help speed along the recovery of the wound, and also physical therapy, lagging behind as his x-rays suggest. I will see him back in about 6 weeks' time for followup. He really needs to get off the crutches and start weaning into a shoe with continued dressing changes.

1. F/u left foot crush injury, multiple metatarsal fractures
2. date of injury: 11/21/2011. OSC BLO Follow Up

History of Present IllnessSymptom(s):

This patient is here for followup of a crush injury to his left foot. He continues to have complaints of pain. He obtained a second opinion from podiatrist Charles Gudas who suggested he may need surgery on his fifth toe. He continues to have difficulty quitting smoking. He also states that he began to notice ingrown toenail great toe on the left foot. He states a history of ingrown toenails and has had surgery on the right in the past. he has been unable to get back into regular shoes. He is not working. He states persistent numbness on the outside border of his foot. He is not currently using any assistive devices.

ExaminationGeneral Examination:

Orthopedics FNA:

Orthopedic Follow Up

Examination left foot shows the wound is nearly healed. There is an area that is insensate in the distribution of the sural nerve as well as intermediate branch of the superficial peroneal nerve. In addition there is a small dorsal prominence present on the dorsal lateral aspect of the fifth toe. There is no evidence of ulceration; there is no evidence of callus formation, and there is no evidence of skin breakdown. he has diminished sensation in this area. He ambulates with an exaggerated antalgic gait. there is no hypersensitivity. Tinel's is negative. There is no evidence of active infection. No pain whatsoever with motion of the fifth toe. He has noted pes planus on examination.

Diagnostic Imaging: XR FOOT 3 VIEWS 3 views left foot weight bearing. There is diffuse osteopenia noted. The fractures appear healed on the second through fifth metatarsal fractures. Fracture of the proximal phalanx of fifth toe appears healed with residual overhang of the fracture fragment Patient presents followup for crush injury to left foot with fractures of second through fifth metatarsals and proximal phalanx of the fifth toe complicated by delayed wound healing. In addition he presents with an ingrown toenail of the great toe left foot.

With respect to the ingrown toenail he will return to clinic tomorrow to have partial nail resection performed was noted purulence was expelled on exam today however the toe itself appeared benign in appearance. Talked about the risk of the procedure including infection and complication recurrence and incomplete relief of pain.

With respect to his crush injury and has been nearly 6 months since the injury occurred. I am almost certain that he will have permanent problems associated with this injury. Despite healing of the fractures he still has significant soft tissue damage. I recommended he continue physical therapy working on range of motion activities and gait training. It would also be reasonable to consider referral to chronic pain management doctor. At this point his foot is too swollen to wear regular shoes. He had a number of pointed questions today as to the appropriateness of removing a small overhanging fracture fragment on the fifth toe. because it took several months for the wound on his foot to heal it would not have been appropriate to place a surgical incision on an area that is asymptomatic. It would have also placed him at risk for infection. He was told in a second opinion that there may be a risk of ulceration. At this point his exam shows no evidence of ulceration and while he is insensate the toe has shown no signs of skin breakdown. I do believe this to be a concern however and perhaps more importantly the risk factors associated with performing surgery at this time. He has a history of delayed wound healing and severe trauma to the foot just proximal to the fifth toe. Before any surgery was even considered I would recommend that he have a vascular workup especially to document toe pressures in the fifth toe. In addition he has been unable to quit smoking which adds risk for infection and wound complications, and loss of the toe. At some point I suspect he will require removal of the malunited fragment. However there is no rush to this. I've advised him he needs to be paying close attention to the toe on a daily basis. If the toe shows any evidence of being at risk for ulceration then it would be more appropriate to proceed with surgery. He also had questions regarding use of orthotics. I would advise against a use of a medial arch support in this instance. Although he has pes planus, posting the medial arch will inevitably tilt him into placing more pressure on the lateral column of the foot or more specifically the zone of injury that continues to cause him grief. Lastly Mr. McDaniell expressed some interest in considering transfer of care to podiatrist Charles Gudas. If Dr. Gudas has further recommendations he thinks will be beneficial to Mr. McDaniell and Mr. McDaniell agrees and I'll be happy to assist with this in any way possible. I do believe he should be close to maximum medical improvement by the 8-9 month mark status post injury.

History of Present IllnessSymptom(s):

Patient presents for followup for crush injury to left foot. He is limited in the types of shoes he is able to wear. He believes he has plateaued with respect to physical therapy. He continues to have pain. Symptoms are mildly managed with the use of Celebrex. His walking tolerance is limited.

ExaminationGeneral Examination:

Orthopedics FNA:

Orthopedic Follow Up Less swelling. diminished sensation noted in the distribution of the sural nerve as well as intermediate branch of the superficial peroneal nerve. Incision is healed. Ingrown toenail's healed. no evidence of infection. there is also increased hindfoot valgus of approximately 7° compared to the contralateral side. There is also decreased longitudinal arch height on the left side compared to right. bony prominence overlying the fifth toe is nonpainful. There is no callus or ulcer formation..

Treatment1. Crush injury - foot

Document several options for conservative treatment. A prescription was given for Lyrica to try and help manage neurogenic pain. I also recommended that he be fitted with an orthotic to help offset some of the acquired flatfoot deformity. I would also recommend he be fitted with custom shoes to accommodate chronic swelling in the foot. He will follow up in 6 weeks. He is likely approaching maximum medical improvement from the orthopedic standpoint. However he may need ongoing chronic pain management. we also agree holding any intervention to the fifth toe. He is not having any symptoms in this region. Should this become symptomatic in the future he will require likely resection of the malunited fracture fragment.

Patient presents final followup visit for crush injury to the left foot sustained in November 2011. Patient describes persistent pain as well as limited walking tolerance. There is also a malunited fracture of the fifth toe present with small dorsal prominence overlying the phalanx on the fifth toe. This is nontender. No evidence of ulceration. Significant stiffness of the fifth toe is appreciated. Ankylosis of the fifth toe is noted. Minor diminished range of motion lesser MTP joints. Specifically 3-5.

Walking tolerance is limited to one hour. Lifting capacity limited to approximately 10 pounds. Recommend against climbing especially ladders. Recommend against roof work. Recommend against running as well as prolonged periods of standing.

Fifth toe shows evidence of malunited fracture. Patient remains asymptomatic. Over time his changes in shoe wear result irritation of the toe revision surgery may be required. We discussed possible hammertoe surgery versus excision of the exostosis. Patient would like to avoid this if possible. Based upon the malalignment and ankylosed position of the toe is more likely than not surgery will be required in the future. There is risk however given the patient's history of wound complication in this area. Overall I would recommend avoiding surgery if possible. Patient also requires extrawide shoes. Recommended she is replaced or at least inspected and replaced as needed once every 6 months. This is to accommodate chronic swelling secondary to crush injury. Patient will continue on use of Celebrex for the time being. Patient has no primary care physician recommend that long-term use of Celebrex be followed by his pain management doctor. Impairment rating determine using AMA fifth edition guidelines to the evaluation of permanent impairment for decrease in sensation as well as dysesthesias in the distribution of the superficial peroneal nerve as well as thorough nerve yields 15% impairment to the left lower extremity. In addition 2% and should be added for ankylosis of the fifth toe. This brings a total of 17% impairment to the left lower extremity.

Pt developed ulcer after injury. The patient has continued pain swelling and still has the presence of an open ulcerated area on the lateral aspect of the left foot. Patient also complains of significant numbness on the lateral aspect of the left foot with color changes on dependency and a painful antalgic gait.

He presented with fracture of the metatarsal, midfoot or phalanx. It is located on the left, in the third metatarsal bone, in the fourth metatarsal bone, in the fifth metatarsal bone and in the fifth proximal phalanx. It is described as throbbing, chronic and constant. The symptom started 5 months ago. The complaint moderately limits activities. The complaint is moderate. Services Performed:

Independent medical examination. The patient initially suffered an injury to his left foot when the left foot was run over by a forklift on November 21, 2011 the patient was seen in the emergency room at Roseberg Hospital facility and was advised that he sustained a transverse fracture of the second through fifth metatarsals and distal fifth phalanx of the left foot. The patient was placed in a temporary splint and maintain a nonweightbearing status the time of the injury. The patient was initially seen by Kate Eden PAC on November 28/2011. X-rays of the left foot reviewed from the emergency room as well as 3 additional views of the left foot showed transverse fractures of the second third fourth and fifth metatarsals at the distal shaft and a fracture of the proximal phalanx of the fifth toe on the left foot. The fractures were found to be within acceptable alignment minimal shortening of the fourth and fifth metatarsal fractures. The fractures were deemed to be extra-articular in nature and the metatarsal phalangeal joints were in good alignment. Treatment the patient was placed in a short leg cast in neutral position and was advised to remain nonweightbearing. The patient was to remain nonweightbearing for approximately 4 weeks with repeat x-rays at that time. Patient was placed on Percocet 5/325 for pain control. Patient was advised that a crush injury can take up for a year for the symptoms to resolve. There was also slight sensitivity along the distribution of the sural nerve.

The patient was next seen on January 9/2012 by Dr. Blake Ohlson. It was noted at that visit there was an eschar measuring 3.5 cm diameter over the dorsal lateral border of his left foot. It is also noted that there was some decreased sensation along the sural nerve distribution. X-rays taken at that visit show diffuse osteopenia and neck fractures involving the second through fifth metatarsals. The fourth metatarsal head the most displaced with slight shortening but the cascade of the metatarsals according to Dr. Ohlson was still maintained. There was also noted to be a fracture of the proximal phalanx of the fifth toe. The patient was placed on wet to dry dressings and progressive weightbearing with a transition to a postoperative shoe. The patient was also referred for physical therapy.

The patient was again seen by Kate Eden PAC on January 27/2012. Examination of the patient showed substantial swelling with an open wound/eschar measuring approximately 3.5 cm in diameter with a slight amount of serous drainage present. At that visit there is no evidence of pertinence or active infection there continued to be decreased sensation along the distribution of the sural nerve with diffuse tenderness in the metatarsal region. Treatment the patient was to continue wet to dry dressings which apparently the patient had not performed. Previously. The patient was referred to wound care for further evaluation. The patient was placed on a course of antibiotics in the form of Bactrim DS one tablet p.o. b.i.d. #10 with one refill the patient was also placed on Lortab 5 500 mg tabs 1-2 tabs q.6 h. p.r.n. pain.

The patient was seen again on February 20/2012 for followup work related stress fractures of the second third fourth and fifth metatarsals and a proximal phalangeal fracture of the fifth toe left. Patient also had delayed wound healing and apparently has had difficulty in getting the wound care certified as well as physical therapy. The patient was still ambulating on crutches. X-rays taken today show significant disuse osteopenia however the fractures at that time showed good bridging callus formation.

The patient was seen in our office today April 27/2012 with continued pain and swelling in the presence of an open wound on the lateral aspect of the left injured foot. Because of the injury the patient has a significant antalgic gait.

Examination of the patient today shows mild to moderate swelling still present with pain upon compression of the second third fourth and fifth metatarsal heads of the left foot. The patient also has a very sharp pointed area on the fifth toe that is in all probability secondary to the proximal phalangeal fracture.

X-rays were reviewed today from the initial injury to the present. The tissues osteopenia has resolved to a great extent, although the patient still has evidence of mild to moderate osteopenia present. The parabola of the metatarsal phalangeal joints has been maintained although there is moderate displacement of the fourth metatarsal. Good healing is noted on all metatarsal fractures. There is a malunion of the proximal phalangeal fracture of the fifth digit on the left causing hammertoe formation and a bony protrusion from the fifth toe.

The wound is still open and was rated as a Wagner nondiabetic grade 1 chronic wound/ulceration measuring 1.5 x 1.5 cm penetrating through the depth of 1/2 mm. There is no active infection.

The patient has a definite decrease in sensation along the sural nerve distribution laterally on the left foot. I observed the patient during gait without shoes. The patient has an antalgic gait placing minimal stress on the left foot with maximum stress placed on the right lower extremity and right hip.

Impression-healing metatarsal fractures second third fourth and fifth left and good alignment, malposition fifth digital fracture with bony protuberance causing hammertoe formation. Mild disuse osteopenia left extremity, without evidence of complex regional pain syndrome. There is decreased sensation along the distribution of the sural nerve related to the crush injury.

It is my impression that this patient has not yet maximum medical improvement. The open chronic wound has not closed today and he has significant dysesthesia and numbness at the sural nerve on the left foot. The patient has a significant antalgic gait because of the injury.

As a result of the injury and chronic wound problems this patient will not be able to stand climb squat or walk other than to and from his car at work until the open wound is completely closed, utilizing wound care to enhance the process as well as further intensive physical therapy to rehabilitate the foot and decrease the antalgic gait. I anticipate this process we'll take another 3 months. It is too soon to know whether the sural nerve injury is permanent. I would anticipate a further evaluation in 3 months to ascertain the status of the sural nerve.

Further medical treatment will include as mentioned wound care and physical therapy as well as a permanent orthotic device to support the left foot and also the right on an ongoing basis.

RE: John McDaniel
MR#: 34254

Dear Sir:

Mr. McDaniel is a 30-year-old warehouse man who was in good health until November 22, 2011, when a forklift truck backed over his left foot. Following the accident, he went to Roper Hospital where he was diagnosed with multiple metatarsal fractures and a crush injury. He has been treated since that time by Dr. Ohlsen.

He has not returned to work and he has been released from treatment.

He is single. He has no children.

He presently takes Celebrex for discomfort in his foot.

At one time after the accident, he had a breakdown on the outer border of his left foot that eventually healed.

In the office today, he is complaining of persistent pain about his left foot, difficulty walking, pain when he stands on it for any length of time and pain when he gets out of bed in the morning, also inability to do any sort of strenuous activities.

He presently is attending school.

Physical examination showed a well-nourished, well-developed male, alert and oriented to person, place and time. Positive findings were found in the lower extremities. The right lower extremity had good range of motion of hips, knees, and ankles with no signs of abnormalities or swelling, somewhat of a splayed forefoot was present. His left foot was diffusely swollen. Good range of motion of his hips, knees and ankles. There was a healed tender scar over the lateral border of the midportion of the fifth metatarsal. There was tenderness over the metatarsal head. There was some early hammer toe formation of the second digit. Neurological appeared intact.

Today, he could not walk on his toes at all. Has some problem walking on his heels. He had a persistent antalgic limp to the left lower extremity.

X-rays were reviewed here showed fractures involving the second, third, fourth and fifth metatarsal heads and shafts. X-rays in May brought with him showed severe osteoporotic changes in the bones, which is felt secondary to disuse atrophy.

X-ray here today showed further healing of the fractures and the osteoporosis seems to be resolving.

Diagnoses:

1. Crush injury, left foot, with multiple fractures.
2. Probable Sudeck's bone atrophy, now starting to resolve.
3. Healing fracture blister.

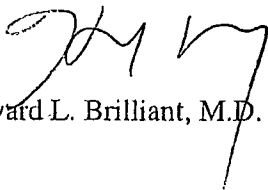

At the present time, he does not need any special treatment. No surgery is indicated. He may benefit by getting a supportive made-to-order shoe so he can get around more. It will probably be about another year until he is fully improved.

At the present time, based on his history of injury, x-ray findings, persistent pain and swelling, he has an impairment of his left foot of 50%.

He should, of course, avoid any strenuous activities such as running, jumping, prolonged standing. He is limited to basically sedentary activities.

He may benefit by supervised physical therapy to improve his gait, range of motion and decrease pain about his foot.

Sincerely,

Howard L. Brilliant, M.D.

RE: John McDaniel v. Career Employment Professional d/b/a Snelling Staffing
WCC File # : 1116275
Our File # : 20117192

Dear Ms. Bruce:

As you know, we are disputing the average weekly wage and compensation rate but even using your average weekly wage of $492.87, the Claimant is not being paid temporary partial that he is entitled to. I previously wrote you about unpaid benefits for the weeks ending April 6 and April 13, 2012. You will find enclosed pay stubs for the weeks ending April 27, May 4, and May 11, 2012. His pay for those weeks was $161.53, $300.30, and $186.55. Over that 3 week period, he earned a total of $648.38. Had he earned his regular average weekly wage you are using, he would have earned $1,478.61. He lost $830.23 and is entitled to $553.51 in temporary partial benefits for those 3 weeks. Please forward a check to us as soon as possible. Also, please provide use with a Form 20 and we need the wages of a like employee.

Yours very truly,

Thomas M. White

RE: John McDaniel v. Career Employment Professional d/b/a Snelling Staffing
WCC File # : 1116275

Dear Ms. Bruce:

You will find enclosed John's pay records. As you can see, his pay rate went from $11.50 an hour to $13.00 per hour shortly before his injury and he had been moving to a new position in the warehouse. He worked 45.5 hours the week before his injury and he was told that was the average for someone doing his job in the warehouse. We need to see a Form 20 for a similar employee who was at the income rate of $13.00 per hour in the warehouse. By our calculations, that would give him an average weekly wage of $627.25 and a compensation rate of $418.19.

I would like to resolve this without the necessity of a Hearing. Please let me know your position on this. If we cannot reach an agreement, I will have to go forward with my Hearing request.

Yours very truly,

Thomas M. White

		Received a call from Dan saying a guy ran over his foot with the forklift. Sent him to ER via EMS. John called and he said 4 of 5 metatarsals are broken. Needs to go to specialist but can't until swelling goes down. I asked him how it happened and he said guy was on lift on next row. He was at the corner pulling orders. He said guy backed into his row and did not look. Rolled over foot. Heard the beeping but thought it was from the other row. I sent over our paperwork to him and asked him to get Ropers stuff to us as soon as possible.

DISCHARGE INSTRUCTIONS

Metatarsal Fracture(s), Undisplaced
Metatarsal Fracture(s), Undisplaced

A metatarsal fracture is a break in the bone(s) of the foot. These are the bones of the foot that connect your toes to the bones of the ankle.

DIAGNOSIS

The diagnoses of these fractures are usually made with X-rays. If there are problems in the forefoot and x-rays are normal a later bone scan will usually make the diagnosis.

TREATMENT & HOME CARE INSTRUCTIONS

Treatment may or may not include a cast or walking shoe. When casts are needed the use is usually for short periods of time so as not to slow down healing with muscle wasting (atrophy). Activities should be stopped until further advised by your caregiver.

Wear shoes with adequate shock absorbing capabilities and stiff soles.

Alternative exercise may be undertaken while waiting for healing. These may include bicycling and swimming, or as your caregiver suggests.

It is important to keep all follow-up visits or specialty referrals. The failure to keep these appointments could result in improper bone healing and chronic pain or disability.

Warning: Do not drive a car or operate a motor vehicle until your caregiver specifically tells you it is safe to do so.

IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A CAST OR SPLINT:

You may walk on your injured foot as tolerated or advised.

DISCHARGE INSTRUCTIONS

Metatarsal Fracture(s), Undisplaced

Do not put any weight on your injured foot for the first 1-2 weeks or as directed by your caregiver. Slowly increase the amount of time you walk on the foot as the pain allows or as advised.

Use crutches until you can bear weight without pain. A gradual increase in weight bearing may help.

Apply ice to the injury for 15 to 20 minutes each hour while awake for the first 2 days. Put the ice in a plastic bag and place a towel between the bag of ice and your skin.

Only take over-the-counter or prescription medicines for pain, discomfort, or fever as directed by your caregiver.

SEEK IMMEDIATE MEDICAL CARE IF:

Your cast gets damaged or breaks.

You have continued severe pain or more swelling than you did before the cast was put on, or the pain is not controlled with medications.

Your skin or nails below the injury turn blue or grey, or feel cold or numb.

There is a bad smell, or new stains and/or pus-like (purulent) drainage coming from under the cast.

MAKE SURE YOU:

Understand these instructions.

Will watch your condition.

Will get help right away if you are not doing well or get worse.

Dear Ms. Walterhouse,

After review of your website, under advice from Bob Petit with Carlock Copeland, I believe your firm offers great opportunities and would like to submit my resume for your consideration. I am currently pursuing a degree in engineering (TTC/Citadel) with the goal of USC law after completion. A brief introduction to work in a law firm by assisting Barnwell, Whaley, Patterson & Helms in a short term assignment with their real-estate division, has helped cement the desire to work within the field as I round out my education. A unique background in concert with my desire to learn and succeed, I believe, makes me the perfect candidate to address your current needs. I will follow up within the next 48 hours, to ensure receipt of this letter and answer any questions that may arise. I thank you for your time in advance.

Mrs. Dunn,

I was prompted to look over your website by, Elizabeth Dale, a former employee who stressed your firm's ability to train inexperienced but hard working individuals. After review of your website, I believe your firm offers great opportunities and would like to submit my resume for your consideration. I am currently pursuing a degree in engineering (TTC/Citadel) with the goal of law school after completion. An introduction to work in a law firm by assisting Barnwell, Whaley, Patterson & Helms in a short term assignment with their real-estate division, has helped cement the desire to work within the field as I complete my formal education. A unique background in concert with my desire to learn and succeed, I believe, makes me the perfect candidate to address any of your needs, current or future. I have provided references below and attached my resume. If any questions should arise please feel free to contact me directly at (843) 425-3000. I thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

John McDaniel

Mr. Hayes,

I have been in contact with Jena about any openings you might have. I understand that, even though you may be able to utilize me, the need for experience is a priority. However, the need for help sounds urgent. As a former business owner, I have a firm understanding of the skills central to success. My limited experience would be quickly made up for with my desire to learn and exceptional work ethic. I could use as much experience as possible and with this in mind, I would make the offer of an extended working interview. Two weeks of help would be beneficial to both myself and to help alleviate some of your current workload. I believe after that time you would be able to make an informed decision on the subject of retaining my services. The possibility of opening a door into a new field, would be worth it many times over. I would be willing to meet with you, to discuss my recent transition from industry to law, or to address any questions that may arise. I would even be available to start in the morning. I have attached my resume for further review, if need be. I thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

John C McDaniel

Dear Ms. Kernodle ,

After review of your website, I believe your firm offers great opportunities and would like to submit my resume for your consideration. I share a somewhat similar background with Mr. Kernodle. I was raised partially on a farm, in a house I helped build in Texas. I am the son of a general contractor and a factory worker, so I am no stranger to the concept of working hard. I have an extensive customer service background and understand that clients are not a hindrance to work but the reason for it. I am currently pursuing a degree in engineering (TTC/Citadel) with the goal of law school after completion. An introduction to work in a law firm by assisting Barnwell, Whaley, Patterson & Helms in a short term assignment with their real-estate division, has helped cement the desire to work within the field as I complete my formal education. Ms. Kernodle,

I thank you for your consideration. I am a James Island resident and appreciate the use of your legal expertise in the recent issue of reincorporating James Island. Your firms use of resources to make a real difference in the community is something to be admired. I would like to work around people who have the knowledge and the ability to make real change. Although the recent position has been filled, I would request that you keep me in mind in the future as I believe that success in anything comes from the people that you surround yourself with as much as personal talent and drive. I thank you for your time.

Dear Sir or Madam,

November 21st of last year, I was struck by a forklift resulting in multiple fractures, chronic pain, nerve damage and limited mobility. Although my experience in the legal field is limited, I would be the perfect candidate for your opening. I could write extensively on this, however I think a list would be more concise.

- 1) I am currently pursuing an engineering degree and plan to attend law school. (My schedule will not conflict with a full time position.)
- 2) I care about people and would relish the opportunity to be an advocate on their behalf.
- 3) I have done extensive research on Title 42 since my accident, including appellate, circuit and supreme court opinions.
- 4) I have been actively involved in my case.
- 5) Although my lawyer is highly respected, my attention to detail has brought to light errors in material facts, forms and calculations.
- 6) I have strong organizational skills, a thirst for knowledge and an outstanding work ethic.
- 7) As a previous small business owner I understand the importance of having a motivated, competent and reliable staff.

I believe details can be taught, but motivation and a desire for success come from within. I have attached a resume and listed both personal and professional references. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

John C McDaniel

Jim,

No luck as of yet. I have probably put out 30 inquiries but only had one decline, and one possible interview coming Monday or Tuesday. Thanks for the help.

Jim, I was wondering if you had found any work for me yet? Are you still looking? If not when did you stop and would that have an effect on applying to barnwell whaley since the 180 day clause? Also, the file I recieved did not have my weekly time sheets or my typing test results, can i come by and get a copy of those or would i have to go through mcangus? Thanks again, happy new year, john mcdaniel

Dear Mr. Romero:

Enclosed please find Mr. McDaniel's pay stub for the week ending June 22, 2012. Mr. McDaniel earned \$266.79 for this week. Using your average weekly wage of \$492.87, he lost \$226.79. He is owed $\frac{2}{3}$ of that amount, or \$150.73, in temporary partial disability.

Also, please know that Mr. McDaniel informs me that due to his restrictions, his employer did not have any work for him for the weeks of June 25 through June 29, 2012 and July 2 through July 6, 2012. Please issue him a check for a full week of TTD benefits for each of these weeks for a total of $985.74.

Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to call.

RE: John McDaniel v. Career Employment Professional d/b/a Snelling Staffing
WCC File No. : 1116275

Dear Allison:

When John McDaniel testified at his deposition he testified he had not been paid any checks since May 25, 2012. This was incorrect. He was paid temporary partial up through early June but is still owed temporary partial for the week ending June 22, 2012. In my letter of July 5, 2012 we noted he is owed $150.73. Through the end of this week 5 more weeks will have accumulated that he has not been paid for which at the Form 20 comp rate is $328.58. Currently there is $1,793.63 owed in past due benefits. For some of these weeks there should be a 10% penalty because they are over 14 days late. He has no money to survive and no way to live without some money coming in. These checks must be brought current immediately. Please let us know the status of where these checks are and when they will be paid.

I spoke to the new adjustor, Nicole. She was reviewing his file yesterday and could not figure out why TTD had not been issued since 6/26/12 so she went ahead and issued a check for 6/26 – 7/23/12 in the amount of $1,314.32. The check should go out in the mail today.

She has sent an email to the employer and is awaiting confirmation of TPD owed for 6/15 – 6/25/12 and will catch TPD up upon receipt of that verification.

She is aware of the dispute about the comp rate and said if they owe him anything in underpayment they will catch him up when the issue is resolved.

Allison,

Attached is a list of the payments not yet received according to the current Form 20.

Also, based on yalls calculations of the Form 20, please see below:

1)The form 20 should be reviewed. The error most likely stemmed from the receipt of two checks for one week of work (period ending 7/22/11) The amount stated ($9,856.96) was for 19 weeks ($9856.96/19 weeks=$518.79) resulting in an AWW of ($518.79 x .6667) $345.87. The amount of $10,450 (Q3-2011 ending 9-30-11) would have been for 20 weeks ($10,450.65/20 weeks=$522.53) resulting in an AWW of ($522.53 x .6667) $348.37. With recovery of the remaining balance ($348.37-$328.58=$19.79) of $19.79 x number of weeks since injury (35) for an amount not including penalties of $692.65

Thanks!

RE: John McDaniel v. Career Employment Professional d/b/a Snelling Staffing
WCC File No. : 1116275

Dear Allison:

We seem to have an ongoing problem getting John McDaniel what he needs. On August 13, 2012, almost 2 months ago, Dr. Ohlson referred him to Dr. Lembo for chronic pain management. Rather than follow the authorized doctor's recommendation, the carrier sent him to Dr. Alexander who he saw on October 1, 2012, six weeks after the referral. Mr. McDaniel saw Dr. Alexander and was told that he would not be able to help him since he only deals with spines. This was a complete waste of my client's time and we have lost 6 weeks of getting him to a doctor. He needs pain management and he needs to see Dr. Lembo. He is also supposed to be wearing orthotics as prescribed by Dr. Ohlson. Those have yet to be approved.

We have a Hearing coming up and it is not fair to my client to make him wait to get the things he is obviously entitled to. Please have the carrier take care of this as soon as possible.

Dear Ms. Bruce:

I spoke to you on May 21, 2012 regarding unpaid temporary partial. There is no pay stub for the week of April 14 - April 20, 2012. The last benefit check paid was for April 7-13. Please have all checks brought current as I have written you about multiple weeks at this point.

We now have the pay stubs for May 18, 2012, which would be the next pay stub after my last letter. Mr. McDaniel earned \$320.78. His average weekly wage that you are using, which we do not agree to, is \$492.87. Using this figure, he lost \$172.09 per week and should be paid $\frac{3}{4}$ of that under Workers' Compensation in the amount of \$114.72. Please have that check forwarded as soon as possible.

We requested a Hearing on May 18, 2012 to resolve these issues. We will be happy to enter into a Consent Order if we can reach an agreement regarding the compensation rate and that all past due Temporary Partial benefits have been paid to date.

He has had a very hard time communicating with his Dr. due to the complications with his foot following his injury. He was able to join a gym to continue with his exercises while out of therapy. Also decided to get a second opinion from Dr. Gudas which he was very pleased with but he was told that he will have to have surgery due to a malunion in his foot. Awaiting to follow up with Dr. Ohlson in two weeks to discuss his options. He was approved for 12 more visits of PT and will continue until told otherwise by his DR.

Objective

Patient received skilled therapy in clinic today which included bike, therex: 6" step ups with foam, r loop sided stepping with the teal loop, Manual therapy for PROM and gentle mobs, cryocuff applied to superior L ankle for 10 mins for pain control/swelling. Patients skin was checked prior to and after administering cold pack with no deficiencies noted.
See Flow Chart for specific treatment administered to this patient.

Notable antalgic gt with L LE circumduction and ER of the hip due to not tolerating a normal heel/toe gt. Discussed precautions with LE strengthening exercises out of therapy due to the malunion in his foot. Advised to perform all exercises with weight bearing into the heel vs the toe. Open wound still present along the L foot at the 5th metatarsal.

Plan

Progress B and S leg activities in WB as tolerated.

Subjective

He is going to do a workout at the gym later today and would like to focus more on stretching in therapy. The medication is still helping with the pain but he has a hard time walking with a heel to toe gt due to pain along the distal metatarsals during toe off.

There is still a small open wound present along the 5th metatarsal of the L foot which he no longer covers with a bandage. Also noted redness along the lateral great toe which is due to friction from poor gt mechanics.

Plan

Next session: focus on stretching, gentle mobilizations, ankle/LE strengthening.

Assessment

Patient has WNL mobility in L ankle but is limited in strength by pain. Still demonstrating antalgic gait pattern with L knee buckling upon mid stance. Has most trouble shifting weight to ball of foot. Unable to perform SLS L due to pain. Significant improvement with swelling around L ankle/foot. Was encouraged to consider walking with one crutch to return to normal gait pattern by reducing WB through L foot. No goals met as of yet.

Plan

Patient to be seen for 2-3 times a week for 4-6 weeks for: strengthening, stretching, manual therapy, proprioception/balance training, gait training, and modalities. Focus for next session: Progress WB and gait training, continue LE PRE, and isolated ankle PRE/stabilization.

Assessment

Patient reports that he injured R knee over weekend and that he would prefer NWB exercises today. Emphasized isolated ankle PRE. Patient has good strength and mobility of L ankle, but still has difficulty with WB tasks due to pain at ball of foot. Trial of estim for pain reduction unsuccessful due to risk of skin damage since patient is hyposensitive at area of electrode placement.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In the Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM South Carolina
Workers Compensation Commission

Full Commission Order Dated December 19, 2013 Affirming Commissioner Melody L. James orders dated January 04, 2013 And September 30, 2013

Case No.: 2014-000186

John C. McDaniel Appellant,

v.

Snelling Staffing Services and United Wisconsin Insurance Company c/o United Heartland Respondents.

APPELLANT'S RESPONSE TO RESPONDENTS' MOTION TO STRIKE AND/OR
AMEND CLAIMANTS INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Appellant hereby replies to Respondents' Motion to Strike and/or Amend Portions of Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation as follows:

As to Paragraphs 1 and 2: The recordings are communications with an administrative agency in execution of its public functions. These recordings support the claims of the Appellant that the SCWCC actively and aggressively suppressed constitutional guarantees of Due Process and Equal Protection. The Appellant will supply the Respondents with copies of the two recordings in question.

As to Paragraph 3: The "Amended Form 30" was ruled on so it must necessarily be part of the record that can be reviewed.

It is the Appellants responsibility to place evidence into the Record on Appeal to sufficiently allow for judicial review.

For justification to exclude Appellant's "Amended Form 30" Respondents site Rule 210 (c), SCACR, "[t]he Record shall not...include matter which was not presented to the lower court or tribunal."

The SC Workers Compensation addressed the acceptance of Appellant's Amended Form 30 During the hearing as reflected in the full commission hearing transcript from October 14, 2013 p.5-15-19 where Commissioner Barden said, "We have that [amended form 30] in front of us, yes, sir."

Then on November 1, Appellant received drafting instructions that stated "the Form 30 was not timely served, so no documents outside the record were considered."

Then on Dec. 16, 2013 Appellant notified the commission of his objection to the form 30's exclusion, among various other defects. (Exhibit A) None of the defects were addressed and the commission signed a order on December 19, 2013.

Following the Decision and Order of the Commission the Appellant notified the court of the intent to seek review with the first topic in the "Statement of Issues on Appeal" was:

"I. DID THE COMMISSION ERR IN FAILING T ACCEPT THE APPELLANTS AMENDED FORM 30?"

When a document is presented to the lower court, the matter decided upon, the appellant has a right to judicial review of the decision.

Terry v. SC DEPT. OF HEALTH 377 S.C. 569, 660 SE 2d 291 (CE App. 2008) After an aggrieved party has exhausted all administrative remedies, the party is entitled to judicial review by the South Carolina Court of Appeals. See S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-380(A) (Supp.2007). Judicial review is confined to the record and is governed by South Carolina Code section § 1-23-380(A)(5), which provides:

The court may not substitute its judgment for the judgment of the agency as to the weight of the evidence on questions of fact. The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings. [However,] [t]he court may reverse or modify the decision if substantial rights of the appellant have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are: (a) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; (b) in excess of the statutory authority of the agency; (c) made upon unlawful procedure; (d) affected by other error of law; (e) clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole record; or (f) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

A) Disallowing the Appellant his right of review would suppress his right to due process and equal protection under the South Carolina and United States Constitutions.

B) S.C. Code Ann. §1-23-320 prohibits an administrative agency from excluding relevant evidence.

C) The Original Form 30 and Review hearing was stayed by the SCWCC "appellate panel" to admit additional and newly discovered evidence pursuant to R. 67-707 (C)(2)(e) and remanded to the original commissioner for further proceedings. After the remand hearing Appellant retains the right of judicial review regarding rulings of law and findings of fact from both hearings.

D) Lack of exercise of discretion amounts to an abuse of discretion, and when the SCWCC denies an injured worker the RIGHT to introduce evidence it is in contradiction of Watson v. Extra Mile Trucking, 399 SC 455, 732 SE 2d 190 (Ct App. 2012) where the court clearly established that the commission in exercise of its authority was not bound by the strict rules of evidence and was given wide latitude to accept additional evidence.

In lay terms, the Amended Form 30 clearly and concisely states errors of law and fact alleged by the appellant that were not ruled on by the Commission, to allow this document to be excluded from the review process would severely prejudice the appellants' right to review.

As to Paragraph 4 and 5: Upon information and belief these records are dated as proposed. I will clarify when the SC Worker Compensation Commission complies with my records request for the forms that were filed on my behalf by my former counsel.

As to Paragraph 6: Appellant agrees.

As to Paragraph 7: Appellant clarifies a date of October 12, 2013.

As to Paragraph 8: Appellant clarifies record dated and received March 26, 2013.

As to Paragraph 10: Appellant clarifies date of service of May 15, 2013 by Virginia Crocker.

As to Paragraph 12: Appellant clarifies date filed of May 09, 2013.

As to Paragraph 13: Appellant clarifies date filed of May 14, 2013.

As to Paragraphs 9, 11, 14, 15: Appellant agrees.

As to Paragraphs 16 and 17: I have attached copies of the letters as requested.

As to Paragraph 18: the appellant would clarify that the notation should have read "(ROA____Form 14-b Dated September 6, 2012.)"

As to Paragraph 19: Appellant further clarifies: (ROA____Exhibit/APA submission to Claimant's Motion for Additional Evidence and Notice of Additional APA Submissions filed May 09, 2013 APA p.# 127)

As to Paragraph 20: Appellant further clarifies: (ROA____Exhibit/APA submission to Claimant's Motion for Additional Evidence and Notice of Additional APA Submissions filed May 09, 2013 APA p.# 166-195)

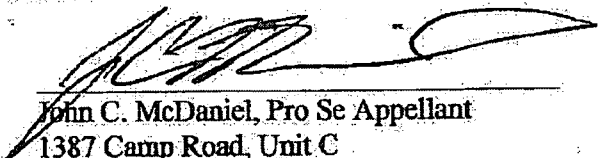

As to Paragraph 21: See "Exhibit C" letter Dated October 4, and Filed 10/10/13 which included APA p.# 340-351

As to Paragraph 22: Appellant further clarifies (ROA____Wages of like employees APA exhibit 9 p. 120-122)

As to Paragraph 23: Appellant further clarifies (ROA____RCC report Dated 2/27/12 attached to and referenced in paragraph 9 in Claimants Motion for penalties Filed June 14, 2013)

Appellant admits the oversight of failing to address the Columbia office of MG&C and will address all further correspondence to that office.

WHEREFORE, based on all of the above, the Appellant respectfully requests that the Respondents' Motion be denied or that the Appellant be given the opportunity to Amend both his initial brief and designation of matter.

Good Evening and Happy Holidays to All,

I am in receipt of defendants proposed order, please let this serve as notice of the following :

Attached please find my proposed Findings of Fact to be ruled upon by the SC Workers Compensation Full Commission Panel, specifically Commissioners Bearden, McCaskill and Roche, for my claim and a synopsis of evidence for the Proposed Order previously submitted by the Defendants and Objected to by the Claimant (Me).

Although I am confident that this email will be discarded by the SCWCC and that my proposed finding of fact will not be ruled upon as required by Title 1 of SC Code of LAW by the SCWCC. I am again submitting findings of fact, after a hearing in front of an Administrative Agency (SC WCC), in an effort to seek resolution and actuality of this claim.

I further would request and have previously requested, clarification and findings of facts on multiple administrative rulings on Claimant's motions (specifically the Claimant's Motion for Additional Evidence & APA Submissions, Motions for Additional Evidence & Testimony and Motion for Penalties to be Enforced) filed prior to the Full Commission Hearing, so that these decisions may be reviewable in a court for error of law.

I object to the Proposed Order submitted by the Defendants on multiple grounds. Please see below.

I object to the Proposed Order submitted by the Defendants, which is not consistent with the original order signed by Commissioner Melody James on January 4th, 2013.

I object to the Proposed Order drafted and submitted by the Defendants on the ground that there is MATERIAL MISREPRESENTATION OF NUMERICAL DATA in the Proposed Order that is inconsistent with the record on file and the orders dated November 28, 2012 and July 8, 2013.

I object to the Defendants Summary of Evidence which is void of the entirety of the APA's submitted from the first hearing and remand hearing.

I object to the sufficiency of notice of the remand hearing.

I object to the sufficiency of notice of the full commission hearing.

I object to the exclusion of the amended form 30 dated October 9, 2013.

I object to being told at the hearing that the form 30 had been accepted only to have it excluded at a later date.

I object to the statement that the Amended form 30 was not timely served.

I object to the Full Commission Hearing proceeding without an opportunity to submit briefs on the issues to be raised.

I object to the issuance of the appeal hearing notice (October 1, 2013) prior to reception of the remand hearing order by Claimant (received October 4th, 2013).

I object to defendants' request for an extension being granted to draft the proposed order.

I object to having my inquiries not addressed by the SCWCC.

I object to the defendants non adherence to the proposed decision directive to include "Amended Form 30 was not timely served. So, no documents outside the record were considered." was changed to say "In reaching this Decision, the appellate panel did not consider any documents outside the record because the claimant's Amended form 30 was not timely served; therefore, any records submitted with the amended form 30 were not considered by the panel."

I object to the Defendant's summarizing the deposition testimony of Dan Cobb and ask that any reference to Dan Cobb's testimony be directly quoted.

I further request that the Defendants do not summarize my testimony in their "Summary of Evidence" as a summarization of testimony depends on an individual's interpretation. I would request that any reference to my testimony be directly quoted, as only I can speak directly to the intent of my statements.

I object to the statement by defendants that claimant was "ultimately referred to a wound facility" no wound care or treatment was EVER provided for by the defendants.

I object to the allegation by defendants that claimant has "alleged malunited fracture." As the record indicates that claimant has malunited fractures.

Sincerely,

John C. McDaniel
