Respondents

Affidavit

of

Vincent Rice

In the Court of Appeals

case # 2017-001489

I Vincent Rice, state and affirm that I did compile and mail a copy of a Record on Appeal to Respondent, Annie Rumber by institutional mail carry on Oct 2, 2017. A copy of the Record on Appeal was received and filed with Court of Appeals clerk on Oct 5, 2017.

On Jan 30, I received a letter from Respondent, Annie Rumber, stating for the first time on record that she did not receive the record on appeal. The Respondent, have requested that I send them a copy of the Record on Appeal.

Thus, I have obtained certified copies of the Record on Appeal from the clerk, and have forwarded a complete copy to Respondent, Annie Rumber. The Respondent, must make an adequate response within (10) calendar days after receipt of documents.

Failure to timely answer, must result in Default judgment. Being that Respondents are perpetually causing damage and harm to my personal right to freedom. My statements are true, correct and not misleading.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Vincent Rice #316178, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2017-001484

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion in response to this court's November 29, 2017 order, which required Appellant to provide proof that he has served Respondent with the record on appeal. Appellant's motion is denied. Appellant is reminded that Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires Appellant to (1) compile the record on appeal, (2) serve the record on appeal on Respondent, and (3) file a proof of service document with this court setting forth the date Appellant served Respondent with the record on appeal. Appellant must file proof that he served the record on appeal on Respondent within twenty days of this order or this appeal may be dismissed.
