Glenda Couram,

Appellant,

v.

Sherwood Tidwell,

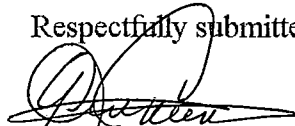

Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION TO FILE APPEAL

Appellant, Glenda Couram, ask that the court allow her time to file the above Appeal as the court is aware the Appellant is unemployed and working to save the funds to file the Appeal. Appellant ask for an extension to September 1, 2018. This Motion request is made pursuant to a letter received from the court dated February 9, 2018. There is also a Motion in the Richland County Court of Common Pleas to side aside the ruling/verdict SCRCF Rule 60.

Dated this 16th day of February 2018.

Respectfully submitted by:

Ms. Nevers

I got your letter regarding the cost of the transcript for trial date 6/15-17/2017. I am filing to the Court of Appeals for an extension to pay you to September 1, 2018. I am unemployed would you be willing to allow me to pay you in two installments starting August 1 and paid completely by September 1, 2017 via money order?

Of course this will depend on the courts grant of an extension to file. If it is granted I will let you know via this email.

If your require a letter to this issue please let me know
