Dear Ms. Kitchings:

To the extent that a response is required, please allow this correspondence to serve as a response to the Court's letter to attorney Preston McDaniel, dated January 17, 2018. Attached for your convenience, please find a copy of the letter of January 17, 2018. Although the Court's letter of January 17, 2018 identifies the Appellants' counsel as a carbon copy recipient, please be advised that the Appellants' counsel did not receive the court's January 17, 2018 letter until the letter was emailed by Respondents' Counsel on February 12, 2017 at 3:26. p.m. Accordingly, the Appellants provided no response within 10 days of the January 17, 2018 letter, because the Appellants were not aware of this correspondence until February 12, 2018. That being said, to the extent that a response is required the Appellants have no objection to the Respondents' withdrawal of their motion for an Order requiring payment pursuant to South Carolina Code Section 42-17-60 and for penalties, fines, interest and attorney's fees pursuant to the South Carolina Code of Laws in the above-referenced matter.

If any additional information or response is required, please advise us of the same. By copy of this letter, we are notifying counsel for the Respondents' of this communication. As always, we appreciate the time and attention in this matter shown to us by the court.

Very truly yours,

Kenya C. Miller, Esquire
