1. The two bills from the court reporting service — the first for the trial transcript and the second for the Rule 59 motion hearing transcript — are attached. They include several services, such as the cost of copying exhibits and the cost of supplying a copy to the trial judge, which are not broken down on a per-page basis. The "rate" shown is the total cost of the court reporter's services divided by the number of pages in the two transcripts.
