Alexander PasteneAppellant,

Vs

Marion R. McMillan and Synergy Spine Center, P.A.Respondents.

Appellant’s Answer to Respondent’s Motion to Strike
Amended Reply Brief of Appellant, dated February 21, 2018

Comes Now, the Appellant, Alexander Pastene, and opposes to the Motion to Strike by Respondents Marion McMillan and Synergy Spine Center, dated February 21st, 2018, and pleads that the motion is denied, insomuch that it is frivolous, designed to delay, and suppress evidence.

The Appellant believes that by now this Honorable Court of Appeals may have noticed the Respondent and his attorney’s strategy to delay the resolution of the case at bar until doomsday, based solely on procedural frivolities in an effort to avoid paying his debt to the Appellant.

The Appellant believes that the Respondent, a Doctor of Medicine, may be a wolf-in-sheep-clothing, who is showing the courts and other authorities that he is a benevolent doctor, whereas, the Appellant believes that he lies without remorse, is disingenuous, and would not hesitate in confronting a patient in a potential case of medical malpractice. Please note that the Respondent already blatantly blackmailed and threatened the Appellant to avoid paying his debt, and furtively hired a new attorney to remove the case from Magistrate to Common Pleas by means of a false counterclaim.

Moreover, as regards his newly appointed attorney, a one David A. Wilson, although having passed the South Carolina Bar exam, he knows better than delaying a case for the last 5 years based on proverbial procedural rigmarole, while never focused on the merits of the case at bar.

Wherefore, the Appellant pleads that Respondents’ Motion to strike is denied.

Respectfully submitted,

David A. Wilson, Esq. for Respondent
