

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

In the Matter of Marie Therese Assa'ad-Faltas, M.D., MPH, Petitioner.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002541

ORDER

Following this Court's decision in In re Faltas, Op. No. 2017-MO-016 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed Oct. 4, 2017), Petitioner Marie Therese Assa'ad-Faltas has submitted to this Court eight pro se documents, each with numerous pages of documentary and pictorial attachments. This Court has previously forbidden Petitioner from making any pro se submission in which she "addresses any legal issue, or requests any relief, other than the appointment of counsel or the relief of appointed counsel . . . regardless of how the motion is styled." City of Columbia v. Assa'ad-Faltas, 420 S.C. 28, 44 n.17, 800 S.E.2d 782, 790 n.17 (2017). Each of Petitioner's eight submissions is captioned as a "Motion to Appoint Counsel for Rehearing or to Allow Petitioner to Argue Rehearing pro se And in either case, to Extend the Time to File for Rehearing" or a supplement thereto. However, the substance of these submissions relates exclusively to matters other than the appointment of counsel. Accordingly, those documents are hereby stricken and dismissed. Further, the Clerk shall issue the remittitur.
