RE: Appellate case Nos. 2017-001724 & 2017-001725

DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Dear Mrs. Kitchings,

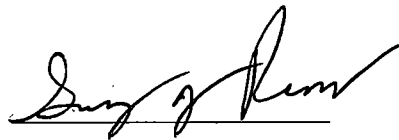

In response to the order received February 26, 2018. At this point I, Gregory Pencille, Appellant would like to request default judgment in both matters (#2017-001724 & 2017-001725) as the South Carolina Department of Corrections refuses to accommodate my requests for proper paperwork to pay filing fees, fails to respond to any motions or orders Gregory Pencille has directed towards them and refuses to pay the filing fees after defaulting on requests/ orders to pay filing fees on appellant's behalf. Which establishes an obvious and actual controversy between the parties creating an invasion of rights and default of duty.

Appellant, GREGORY PENCILLE asks this court to grant default judgment on above stipulated grounds for both #2017-00124 & 2017-001725.

SCDC's failure to comply with order by default to pay court fees. And the Dept. Of Corrections has failed to respond to any papers filed by Pencille in this matter(s).

So being said, Appellant requests granting of default Judgment or immediate payment by SCDC of filing fees, immediate compliance of all conditions of initial briefs conclusion in the above matters.

Failure to respond within 30 days results in breach and damages. This is true and binding on all defaulting parties and is conducive as to the rights and duties involved. So mote it be.

Gregory Pencille,

Appellant/Aggrieved party
