STATEMENT OF ISSUE ON APPEALS

On March 29, 2017, Seeahray Brailsford, Employee, Claimant, Appellant brought this action against Piggly Wiggly Carolina Company Inc., Employer, Constitution State Service Company as TBA for Greenbax Enterprise Inc., Carrier. South Carolina Workers Compensation Commission panel, Melody L. James, Avery B. Wilkerson Jr., and Aisha Taylor ruling by the South Carolina Workers Compensation panel was unfair and unjust. The South Carolina Workers Compensation hearing was on January 23, 2017. The decision was made on March 29, 2017. Case # SCWCC file #1019167.

ARGUMENTS:

- a) Because the injury to the left shoulder took so long to be treated, MRI 33 days and surgery 107 days, it caused more health problems as a liver disease.
- b) The injury was not only to the left shoulder. A purplish area from below and above the area of the elbow resulted in swelling of arm, fingers turned blue, cold hands, loss of strength and loss of 2 inches in muscle mass that cannot return. The workers compensation second opinion doctor stated this.
- c) Claimant asked for only one opinion because workers compensation, Dr. Holmes did not know what else to do. All others were at request of Workers Compensation.
- d) Claimant was not depressed before accident. Claimant became depressed from all the surgeries, physical therapy, second opinions, waiting for the ok to be treated, loss of job and loss of life as she once knew it.
- e) Medical in the future only to left surgery

FACTS:

Because the appellant was not allowed to show other evidence at the time of the three-panel hearing before the South Carolina Workers Compensation board on January 23, 2017, the case was not given a fair chance. Also the appellant has asked why did it take so long for treatment? Who makes the decision on treatments? No one wants to give an answer to these questions that has been asked from the start.

CONCLUSION:

For the reason above I ask that the Appellant Court of South Carolina to allow a hearing on this case.

Respectfully Submitted,
Seeahray Brailsford
