From my search of the records, it appears that that case was heard by Judge Nicholson. I was not Judge Nicholson's court reporter on September 28th, 2017. You will need to contact the court reporter who was with him on that date.

It was 9-28-17. You should be able to pull the case by going to the website and pulling in the case number. I never received an email from you in November.

Hello. Can I have an update on the status of the transcript? The Court of Appeals have said that you didn't file for an extension of time and for me to call Court Administration.

Regards,

I don't want the PDF email, the transcript would be just fine. What is that price?

I mailed it on the 2-22-18, that's why I forwarded you the email from that date which you never responded too?! I noticed when I mentioned the court of appeals and court administration I've gotten a response. I mailed it to the address listed in the deposit letter. Is that the correct address?

My address is:

P.O. Box 424
Summerville, SC 29484

I didn't respond because I didn't receive your money order. As indicated in my deposit letter, I don't begin working on the transcript until I receive the payment from you. So even if I had received your deposit on February 22, the 60 days begins to run from that date, which would make the transcript due on April 22.
